Theatrical

At The Grand.
For tonight only the Grand will present Alma Rubens the well known screen artist in "Diana of the Green Van," a thrilling romance of love and adventure. This offering presents Miss Rubens in a most attractive role where her splendid acting ability is given full scope to display itself. The settings are beautiful. The plot is of the most entertaining type imaginable, and Miss Rubens charming smile and captivating manner will without doubt win for her many admirers. A comedy and two other film dramas together with special vaudeville will make an excellent programme for the patrons of the Grand.—Advt.

"My Soldier Girl."
"My Soldier Girl," the brilliant musical spectacle, coming to the Grand on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 19th and 20th, with a matinee on Saturday is the cleverest, brightest, wittiest entertainment ever seen on any stage. It sparkles—it has humor, color, melody and a score that holds the auditor with its brilliant lyrics. The cast includes several New York musical comedy artists, and theatergoers may rest assured of a rare treat in music, comedy, dancing, scenery, and a wonderful ballet all combined to make "My Soldier Girl" the remarkable success it really is. There are twenty some big song hits including "My Soldier Girl," "Wrap Me Up In A Bundle of Love," "Jasper's Ragtime Band," "Won't You Be My Beau," "Just For You," "That Dixie Wedding Tune" and many others equally as tuneful.—Advt.

At Griffin's.
Lila Lee's new picture "Rose O' the River," which will be shown at Griffin's to-day, Friday and Saturday is a story which lends itself admirably to pictorial because of the colorful nature of the setting and the locale. The story which is based on the novel of the same name by Kate Douglas Wiggin transpires in a village and presents the charming little star as the belle of the country-side. Beautiful character drawing, always a quality the author's work is abundant in the story and is amply portrayed in the picture by a clever cast of screen players. It is said this photoplay affords Lila Lee one of her faintest parts, and is a distinct departure from the roles portrayed in previous plays. In addition to the above feature a splendid line of vaudeville will also be shown, which consists of three high class acts, each of exceptional merit and any one alone would be well worth seeing. This vaudeville is the best obtainable and is sure to prove very popular during the next three days.—Advt.

At the Strand.
Five stars in one picture! Think of that! They are Carlyle Blackwell, Montagu Love, June Elvidge, Evelyn Greener and Johnny Hines, and they all appear in "Three Green Eyes." This new production is a World Picture.

It will be shown to-day at the Strand Theatre.

If you want to see something unusual, something that will grip and hold your attention from start to finish, then be sure to see this picture, because "Three Green Eyes" will do all that and then some.

Of course, it must be a remarkable story which calls for presentation by an all-star cast of five stars.

"Three Green Eyes" does tell a remarkable story.

It has nothing to do with the war. There are no murders in "Three Green Eyes."

But it is mighty pleasing, exceptionally entertaining, wholly delightful from start to finish.

"Three Green Eyes" will make you sit up and take notice.

It will make you mighty glad to be among those present at the entertainment.

"Three Green Eyes" is an exceptional production from every angle, and you'll make a big mistake if you do not see it.

See "Three Green Eyes" and show yourself a good time.—Advt.

German General Wants the World War Costs Put Upon Moscow.

Paris, Sept. 18.—"With the consent of the Entente I will undertake with 150,000 men chosen by myself to take Moscow and destroy Bolshevism forever."

This is the statement by General Hoffman of the German general staff as reported to-day by the Berlin correspondent of Le Matin. By those who have been following recent developments in the Baltic, this statement given out in Berlin, and which was not suppressed in Paris, is looked upon as a preparatory measure to an expected revelation of a counter revolutionary alliance between the Entente and Germany.

General Hoffman is one of the most typical representatives of Prussian junkerdom, with its chief characteristics—brutality, hatred of democracy, and stubborn worship of the former kaiser. It was General Hoffman, who in January, 1918, at the Brest-Litovsk conference banged his fist on the table and sternly informed the Russian delegates unless his terms were accepted without discussion German troops would instantly advance on Russia.

Help the Returned Men.
Ottawa, Sept. 18.—In Parliament Dr. Michael Clark, Red Deer, came to the front with the suggestion of compromise. He said that there was no bickering the fact that a good many of the returned men had spent their gratuity, were out of work and had a hard winter ahead of them. No one wanted to see these poor fellows during their first winter home perish for want of food and fuel. He, therefore, suggested a grant for the winter, say payable in monthly instalments during November, December, January, February and March.

Lady Foster was formerly Miss Addie Davies, the eldest daughter of the late Milton Davies, a well-known banker, of Hamilton, Ont. She was educated there and was first married to D. B. Chisholm, barrister, and at one time a member of the Dominion Parliament.

OBITUARY

Death At Melvin, Mich.

The many friends of Mrs. Simon Sager will regret to hear of her death at Melvin, Mich., on Sept. 11th. Deceased had been ailing some time. She was born April 13th, 1844, at Shannonville, Ont. Of late she has resided with her daughter, Mrs. Wallace Putney. In religion she was a Methodist. Her sudden death has cast a gloom over the Melvin vicinity and has meant the loss of a kind and loving mother and neighbor. The funeral, from the residence, was in charge of Rev. Mr. Lomas, Peck, and was largely attended, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held. The remains were conducted to the Peck cemetery. Deceased leaves to mourn two children, Frank Sager, Chalmers, Ont., and Mrs. Wallace Putney, Melvin, Mich.; two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Myra Langan, Harrison, Mich.; Mrs. Hattie Baker, Port Hope, Ont.; James Howald, Melvin, Mich.; James Donald, Detroit, Mich. Besides these three grandchildren, numerous nephews and nieces at various points of Michigan and Illinois. Deceased suffered the loss of a kind and loving husband six years prior to her death.

The Late Mrs. Margaret Clerihew.

Mrs. Margaret Clerihew, widow of George W. Clerihew, died on Tuesday at her home, 59 Oriole Gardens, Toronto, after an illness of over three months. Born in Kingston fifty-eight years ago, she had made her home in Toronto for the past four years. She is survived by three children, Mrs. (Dr.) Mason, Parry Sound; Miss Mardell Clerihew, at home, and Bruce Clerihew, Toronto. Another son, George, was killed in action last year. Deceased was a daughter of the late William Robinson, ex-M.P. Two brothers, Thomas and James, reside here. The remains will be laid to rest in Cataract cemetery.

TURLEY WILL STICK TO JOB.

Veterans Vindicate Him and Refuse His Resignation.

Toronto, Sept. 18.—The executive of the Ontario Provincial command of the G.W.V.A., at its meeting yesterday, authorized its president to engage counsel and to take legal action against members of organizations which have been making charges against the G.W.V.A. and its paid officers. This motion was the direct result of the tabling of the resignation of W. E. Turley, provincial secretary, who gave as his chief reason for his action criticism from outside organizations and lack of internal harmony in the organization. After the long discussion, the executive refused to accept the resignation of Mr. Turley, and he will, therefore, continue in his present capacity.

HOLDEN—Sudden

in Kingston, on Sept. 15th, 1919, Robert Holden, aged 45 years.

Funeral from his son-in-law's residence, Charles Fraser, 8 Quebec street, Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock to Cataract Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

IN MEMORIAM.

Pte. Edwin Job Walker, of Wolfe Island, son of Edwin Walker and Fanny Mary Watts, his wife.

When "Eddy" first essayed to go and face... Those in authority answered "No." He again, and once again applied. So at length obtained consent. Now—those in France presume he died in a brilliant action at the front. If so—Grant him, Lord, eternal rest. May perpetual light upon him shine. And help us here to do our best. That we with him may there be Thine.
