BIG FAIR WILL SOON BE ON

EVERYTHING IS NOW GOING ALONG WITH A BANG.

Many Requests for Space from Outsiders Had to be Refused—An Extra Big Rush of Entries in the Poultry Department.

Everything is going with a bang in connection with the Kingston Industrial Fair, which opens on Tuesday next. The only trouble is that the management is unable to meet the demands from outside people who want space for exhibits. Several requests from outsiders have had to be refused, simply for the reason that the space has all been taken up. This goes to show how the exhibition is progressing.

Manager Bushell received a telephone call on Thursday afternoon, while a Whig representative was in his office. The call came from a firm in Ottawa, very anxious to get space at the fair.

"Everything filled up," said Mr. Bushell. "Your only chance is in the taking the place of some exhibitor who has space and who happens to fall down on the job. If there is room for you I will telephone you." And this is only one of the many requests Mr. Bushell has received for space. From different parts of the country, the call has been received for space, and it looks as if the fair management will have to seek more property.

One department which is making rapid progress is that of poultry. One man alone is making 139 entries in poultry, and this is going some. A rush order for coops had to be given.

MADELONG JOURNEY ALONE

ELEVEN YEAR OLD LILY CAINES ARRIVED FROM LIVERPOOL.

Through Some Mistake Parents Did Not Meet Her, and She Was Cared for by Inspector John Pollicie of the Children's Aid Society.

To come all the way from Liverpool, England, to Kingston alone, was the experience of Lily Caines, a bright-eyed girl of eleven years, who was brought to this country by the Children's Aid Society. She came up from Montreal, via the Grand Trunk, but upon arrival here there was no person to meet her; and she was handed over to John Pollicie, Inspector for the Children's Aid Society, and he is locating the girl's mother at the address given by the child.

Lily made the trip over on the S.S. Metagama. Her parents, she said, with two sisters and one brother came out to Canada seven years ago, and left her in the old land, under the care of her Aunt Mary. The war came on later, and it was impossible for her to get passage to Canada.

Lily is a sturdy sample of old country stock, and although she had no mother or friend to accompany her, she was well able to look after herself, and stated that she did not mind making the long journey alone. "They were all good to me on the boat," she said.

Has Reached Home.

After serving overseas for nearly three years with the C.A.S.C. in England and France, Capt. C. L. J. Hudson, son of the late Lt.-Col. J. G. Hudson arrived home on Thursday morning. He returned to Canada on the S. S. Minnikahda, and arrived at his mother's home at Garden Island quite unexpectedly. He reported a splendid trip across the Atlantic, and returned in good health.

Theatrical

To-night—"My Soldier Girl."

Full of pleasing melodies and offering an amazingly lavish production, the tuneful musical comedy "My Soldier Girl," will be presented at the Grand to-night and to-morrow matinee and night and should live up to its phenomenal magnet for the play-going men it appears here. The excellent cast including Dorothy Garrigue, Maude Baxter, Billy Moore, James Baber, Leslie Jones, Billy Murphy and many other talented musical comedy players, are supported by a brigade of wonderful girls, who sing and dance so cleverly that the audience wonder if the management have cornered all the pretty girls in this country. The story is laid in two acts, the opening shows a grand fete in progress at Colonel Stone's home, Miami, Florida, in honor of the many "overseas" boys and girls. This is followed by a bewildering production of the Follies show during its final dress rehearsal under the management of Colonel Stone. The scenic production is carried out in both acts in its entirety, blending pretty color schemes and novel effects artistically. There are some twenty big song hits, among the favorites are "My Soldier Girl," "That Dixie Wedding Tune," "Wrap Me Up in a Bundle of Love," "Jasper's Ragtime Band," "Won't You Be My Beau," and "Just For You."—Advt.

At Griffin's.

Appearing as a little rural belle, Lila Lee was seen in one of the most delightful roles of her screen career in her new picture "Rose O' the River," a beautiful romance by Kate Douglas Wiggin, which was presented at this theatre with great success yesterday. Lila Lee is one of the youngest of film stars, and is proving with each new production that she is worthy of the support accorded her by her admirers. Her latest portrayal is that of a country belle—of sweet and innocent little girlhood—who unaccustomed to the suave ways of city folk is deluded into believing that she loves a stranger from Boston, a circumstance which results in her denunciation by her country sweetheart. A trip to the city where she sees her supposed sweetheart in the body colors of reality disillusiones her regarding city men and she returns to her country fiancé. This is a delightful theme and as the country maid, Miss Lee presents a more than delightful characterization. Our three vaudeville acts are of exceptional merit, and provide thoroughly satisfying entertainment. The special high class Indian act is one out of the ordinary and would be hard to surpass anywhere. All three were most enthusiastically received last evening, and bid fair to become very popular during their showing in Kingston. Don't miss this show.—Advt.

At the Strand.

"Three Green Eyes," the new World Picture, was filmed from a famous play, and the picture has even more punch than the plan which was one of the stage's biggest successes. In fact, the picture rushes along from surprise to amazement and never slackens its pace to the very climax. This certainly is a fast-moving, mighty interesting and delightfully entertaining picture. At the Strand to-day five stars appear in this picture. They are Carlyle Blackwell, Montague Love, June Elvidge, Evelyn Greeley and Johnny Hines. Think of it—these five big stars all in one picture! It is certainly going some to be able to see such an aggregation of the screen's best talent in a single picture.—Advt.
