THE HARROWSMITH FAIR INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON DREW A LARGE CROWD

Michael Vanluven of Moscow, aged eighty-five was present and will try and attend Kingston Fair next week.

Although the weather was threatening most of the day, a large crowd was present at the Harrowsmith fair on Friday afternoon. From two until four o'clock the judges were busy examining the horses and cattle. Altogether there were not nearly as many cattle exhibited as on former occasions those shown were real good stock.

The ladies who attended the show spent most of their time examining the display of fancy work. Probably the oldest man who attended the exhibition was Michael Vanluven of Murvale. Mr. Vanluven although eighty-five years of age is still very active. When speaking to the Whig, he stated that he felt fit and hoped to be spared to see many more exhibitions. This year, on account of his son being overseas, and being unable to get any help, Mr. Vanluven put all of the crop in without any assistance. He states that all being well he will visit Kingston fair next week.

During the afternoon a number of the young people who were present participated in the sports. The following is the list of those who had charge of the different events: Wm. S. Reed, Harrowsmith, president; Edward Whitty, R.R. No. 1, Harrowsmith, 1st vice-president; A. Bradshaw, Harrowsmith, 2nd vice-president; J. S. Gallagher, Harrowsmith, secretary treasurer.

Directors: M. B. Teas, Latimer; Chas. Hicks, Harrowsmith; Jas. Brady, Harrowsmith; Wm. Lee, Harrowsmith; Geo. Leatherland, R.R. No. 2, Kingston; Arth. Asselstine, Moscow; Thos. W. Kerr, Harrowsmith; Cliff Rutledge, Sydenham; Byron Gordon, Westbrooke.

DELIGHTED BIG AUDIENCE

"MY SOLDIER GIRL," A SPLENDID MUSICAL COMEDY.

Production Made a Big Hit Friday Night, and Will be Attraction Again To-night—Brimful of Catchy Songs and Some Fine Features.

Brimful of catchy songs, good dancing and with a tone throughout which is most entertaining, "My Soldier Girl," made its initial appearance at the Grand on Friday night, and made a big hit before a capacity house. The audience was delighted with the production, and manifested satisfaction throughout the two acts with liberal applause. The cast is strong, and the play is one that has the proper swing to it from beginning to end.

Dorothy Garrigue was charming in the title role of "My Soldier Girl," and was showered with applause in her various songs. Maud Baxter, as her chum, was most captivating in her songs. She possesses a clear, rich voice, and her selections were warmly received. The comedy work is carried on by Billy Moore, as Jasper Pebbles, and Billy Murphy, as Ricketts from Nowhere, and the two Bills proved to be pastmasters at the business, for they had the audience in roars of laughter all the time. Jasper got off a number of local hits to good advantage. Ricketts had a line of jokes and poetry that rang the bell every time, and Jasper brought down the house when he sang "Room 202." Ricketts made a big hit with his song, "I Saved Up for a Dry Day." He carried a bottle of "wet goods," and in the song he told how the majority of people had saved up for a rainy day, while he had prepared for the "dry" days. Jasper and Ricketts put the necessary "pep" into all their work, and they are given plenty of time to do. Words of praise are due to the girls in the chorus. They sing well, and can dance well too.

As a special feature, the management had a running-board out from the stage as far as the wide aisle, and the singing provided a fine treat. There are a score or more songs in the production, and all took well. A few of the favorites included, "My Soldier Girl," "Sugar Baby," "Hitchie Koo," "Just for You," "Broadway," "Won't You Be My Beau," "Rice."

Miss Garrigue had one song which calls for special mention, that of "Wrap Me Up in a Bundle of Love," in which the chorus assisted, while Miss Baxter's voice was perhaps heard to the best advantage in "The Hand That Rocks the Cradle Rules My Heart." The comedy quartette, composed of Ricketts, Jasper and the boys, was another big feature. There are several dancing specialties. Miss Garrigue and Leslie Jones were very clever in their turn. Jasper also did some clever dancing.

"My Soldier Girl," is one of the best musical comedies seen at the Grand in many a day. It will be the attraction at the Grand again to-night.

Teething Troubles

Baby's teething time is a time of worry for most mothers. Baby's little gums become swollen and tender; his bowels get out of order and stipitation, colic or even diarrhoea sets in. To make the teething period easy Baby's Own Tablets should be given the little one. They sweeten the stomach; regulate the bowels and keep baby good natured. Concerning them Mrs. Harold D. LeBlanc, Monarcomok, West. N.B., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past six years and have found them indispensable. To my mind nothing can equal them in allaying the fever accompanying teething. I would not be without them and can strongly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
