SHAG SAYS ARGOS LOOK LIKE GLASS

The McGill Coach States the Watermen Have Monopoly On Material.

The Ottawa Journal says: Football activity was fanned from a flicker to a flame with the arrival home of Frank Shaughnessy, Saturday. Shag returns fresh from a triumphant season as skipper of the Hamilton Baseball Club. He didn't win the pennant, but his team fought right to the wire and were noised out in the last days. With three 300 hitters adorning the bench the chances of the Tigers coping the bunting went glimmering the last week.

"It looks to me as though the Argos, on paper at any rate, have one of the strongest football combinations ever gotten together," said Shag, discussing football. He states that the Tigers have a very strong back field, but considers that they are weak on the line. In his opinion the Argos have a monopoly in restraint of trade for the other teams. With Frank Knight and Mack Murray at outside wings, seven or eight gifted half backs, and a strong line, they lay it over the other teams like the Woolworth building over a bell tent in available material.

Shag was much interested in the Ottawa football prospects, and passed out encomiums to Dave McCann, the new coach. The Ottawas, he states, have great material. Of his own prospects at McGill he was non-committal. Shag will have the college spirit as an asset in his hunt for the intercollegiate flag. Varsity, he stated, will be very strong, as they have more material than ever to draw from.

Grand Old Man of Golf.

New York Sun. The playing of George S. Lyon, the Canadian veteran, at Apawamis last week, still has the gallery of senior players marveling at his prowess on the links. In spite of his sixty-one years he hustles around like a youngster and plays every shot with the vigor of a Davy Heron or Bobby Jones. It is certain that none of the field of seniors who competed at Apawamis has any business hooking up in a match with the Canadian player. However, there are possibly a few of our more elderly players who could give him a highly interesting argument. John M. Ward, of Garden City, for one, no doubt would be able to make a strong fight against Mr. Lyon, with a good chance of winning. Commodore Bryan Heard, a robust and active senior from Houston, Texas, is another who would put up an able argument against Mr. Lyon. No doubt there are several others equally capable of testing everything that the Canadian star carries in his bag.

"You Never Can Tell."
Ray Caldwell's feat of registering a no hit game at the expense of the Yankees last week proves once more that it is rash to take anything for granted in baseball. When Caldwell was turned loose by the Red Sox some time ago he was passed up by every other club in the big show. This Speaker later picked him up because he had nothing to lose thereby and felt that he might gain something. Caldwell has justified, at least in a measure, whatever faith Speaker has in him.

CARPENTIER IN TRAINING.

French Champion Ready to Meet Beckett After September.

George Carpentier is once more a civilian. He was demobilized August 23rd, after serving in the army for five years, first as an aviator and then as a physical drill instructor.

With money made in the ring he has bought a splendid villa on the cliffs overlooking the sea at Dieppe for his old people, who were for years prisoners of the Germans at Lens.

"I am very sorry," he said, "for the fuss made in the English newspapers about the postponement of my match with Beckett, but I want to be in the finest form and to have no excuse to offer if I lose my European title, and that could not be so long as I was still in the army."

"Now I am free once more, I shall be able to train properly. This of course, I could not do while I remained at the Joinville Physical School, where I had to give lessons and to take part unwillingly in all kinds of sports. Now I am going to train for all I am worth."

"My manager, Mr. Descamps, has wired C. B. Cochrane, with whom we have entered into a contract, that I shall be ready to meet Beckett anywhere after September."

"I think I can beat Beckett, but if he is a better man than I am, all well and good, and I will wish him all the best of luck against Dempsey, and sincerely hope he will bring back the title to the old country."

THE STYMIE IN GOLF

Movement to Abolish Deliberate Attempt at Stymieing.

Says the golf expert in the London Referee: "I understand that the London question is occupying the close attention of the Golf Rules Committee, and that the probabilities are that the stymie, though not entirely done away with, will be abolished so far as a player deliberately laying a stymie for an opponent is concerned. The standard ball agitation still flourishes with unabated vigor, but one marvels at the view of one authority, who favors a lighter ball because it would not be capable of being driven so far nor be controlled so well in the breeze. No common-sense golfer would deny that this is scarcely a sporting way of looking at the question, and it requires a great stretch of imagination to call that sort of thing "improving" the game of golf."

WORLD'S SERIES TO START ON SEPT. 30th.

The world's baseball series will be started this year on Tuesday, September 30th. That was decided at the meeting of the National Commission in Chicago a week ago, though the announcement was withheld at the time.

September 30th originally was the date of the closing of the National League season. The Giants were scheduled to close at home on that date with the Philadelphia club, but that game has been moved forward to the previous Sunday. The Western clubs of both league close shop on Sunday, September 28th.

The old system of tossing a coin to decide which club will draw the opening game again will be in vogue this year. It was dispensed with last year when the commission selected Chicago as the best city in which to open the series.

Jimmy Wilde's Offer.

Jimmy Wilde, the English lightweight champion of the world, has agreed to meet the most formidable bantamweight in America on the night of Dec. 3rd, according to an announcement by Major Drexel Biddle, president of the new International Sporting Club of New York. The bout will be held before that club, he said. Wilde has offered to post a $10,000 forfeit binding himself to weigh not more than 103 pounds at the ringside, if Lynch, Moore or another opponent selected to meet him will not exceed 116 pounds. That is certainly giving away a chunk of weight for a "silver" if he can do 103 pounds, and beat Lynch, Moore or any good 116-pound lad, he is a real marvel.

A Sporty Parson.

Six times married at fifty-four is the record of Elder Joseph Hall, hard-shell Baptist minister of Millstone, Ky. He has just been remarried to Vina Webb, from whom he was divorced about a year ago. It was the sixth marriage of the bridegroom and the third of the bride.

LATE DR. HANLEY A LEADING HORSEMAN

The Montreal Gazette says: The late Dr. Robert Hanley first came into prominence on the Canadian turf by the purchase of the mare Euterpe, which won at the first asking for her owner. She won many events fashioned for Canadian owned horses and two years ago was bred with a view to producing an eligible for the King's Plate race run at Toronto.

Dr. Hanley formed a partnership with the late Alexander McGarr during the season of 1915 and campaigned a string of horses with marked success, the best in the string being Medea, at that time a two-year old.

For a number of years Dr. Hanley identified himself with amateur hockey and rugby football at Kingston. He held office in the Granite Hockey Club as well in the Limestone Hockey Club.

Toronto Mail-Empire: The late "Doc" Hanley was the owner of that consistent race mare Euterpe, who practically paid the racing bills for the small stable that the Kingston turfman reared. "Doc" as he was familiarly called by all who ever came in contact with him, was of a genial disposition and made friends wherever he went. He was a great supporter of the Kingston teams in any branch of sport and often paid visits to the Arena when the Kingston club was playing here.

TENNIS RESULTS AT COUNTRY CLUB

At the Country Club on Wednesday in the tennis matches for the Leslie shield, Dr. McKee and Miss Phyllis Williams defeated Miss Gordon and Mr. Penhale, Miss Helen McKay and Mr. McCarty won from Miss Gwendolyn Folger and E. R. Rogers.

On Thursday afternoon Dr. McKee and Miss Williams defeated Miss McKay and Mr. McCarty, Miss Rose Rogers and Major Benson won from Mrs. Norman Stuart Leslie and Major Lafferty and Major Fortt and Miss Marion Ogilvie defeated Miss Mildred Jones and H. Brownfield.

DENTALS TO PLAY AGAIN.

Former Allan Cup Holders to Re-organize for Next Season.

With the revival of intercollegiate sports it was freely predicted that Toronto Dentals would retire from the O.H.A., but the refusal of the University to reinstate the Dental players has caused a change in the plans, and the former Allan Cup holders will again enter the series. Definite arrangements have not been completed, but one of the team's most prominent players stated yesterday that he considered it entirely impossible that Dentals would disband.

Of last season's team, Rennie, Box, Smylie, Brown, Olson and Hudson are available, while "Bill" Carson, the Woodstock star, is now attending the Dental College and is counted on, McCaffrey, Glen, Smith and Charlie Stewart have not announced their intentions, but it is feared that they are lost to the "tooth-pullers."

"Stan" Brown, the sensational defenseman player has returned to Toronto and reported that hockey was due for a boom in the North country this coming winter. "Stan" is authority for the statement that Sudbury will prove a formidable team. "Shorty" Green, the most effective player on the Fire team last season, will lead the Northerners in their quest of the Allan Cup.

RACING COMMISSION.

Sitting in Montreal Fixed For Sept. 25th.

Dr. Rutherford has sent out notices calling sessions of the commission to investigate and report on horse racing in Canada, of which he follows:

Ottawa, Sept. 23rd.
Montreal, Sept. 25th.
Toronto, Oct. 1st and 2nd.
Windsor, Oct. 4th.

The jockey clubs and racing interests will be heard.

"Mike" Rodden, former outside wing of the Queen's University team, will likely be out with the Argonauts of Toronto, this season. Mike is on the sporting staff of the Toronto Globe and will, incidentally, coach the Y.M.C.A. team in the Ontario Union.

Baker, a husky wing man from Gananoque, is out with the Ottawas. He recently returned from overseas and is in good shape. He would make a good middle or inside wing man. He is a new arrival in the Capital.
