To Use the Classified Costs Very Little--To Neglect to Do So Often Costs a Great Deal

It's expensive to be out of a job--while the advertising required to secure one may cost but a trifle.

It's expensive to have vacant property--a store, office, loft, house or apartment. The advertising expense involved in finding a tenant is small in comparison.

Your chance of loss through timely advertising in the classified is insignificant--your opportunity for making lasting profits is substantial.
