HORSE RACES AT THE FAIR

TWO GOOD CLASSES WERE RUN OFF ON TUESDAY.

One Driver Was Thrown—Kingston Horse Won In Named Race and a Brockville Speed In the 2.35 Class

There were two very good races on Tuesday afternoon's programme at the fair grounds and some very good heats were run off. The first race was a named race and the result was: Nellie Murphy, T. Douch, or, city 1 1 1; Judge Murphy, C. J., 2 4 2; Johnny Mack, A. Mc Donald, Wolfe Island, 4 2 3; Squire Murphy, T. Galt, Ivan, city 3 3 4; Peter Hawkins, W. Hawkins, Wolfe Island, 5 5 5; Baron Brino, T. Gallivan, city 6 6 7; Frank Medium, J. Leath-erland, Cataraugus, 7 7 6. Best time—2.49 1/2.

Johnny Lyons, driver of "Frank Medium" was badly thrown in the first heat of the named race. The horse was not hurt and was driven in the remaining heats by Mr. Blake. The next race was the 2.35 class and an exciting finish was witnessed. The results: Justo the Great, P. Giffin, Brockville 1 1 2 5 1; Dolly Patch, C. L. May of Smithfield, 2 3 1 1 2; Frank McKerran, C. Sandrell, North Bay 6 2 3 2; Beatrice, W. Harris, Sackett's Harbor, N.Y. 3 6 5 3; Signature, George Darragh, Kingston 5 4 4 4; Noble Wilks 4 5 6 6. Best time—2.34 1/2.

The fifth and last heat of this race was a hustler. After some jockeying for position the two winners of heats, "Justo the Great" and "Dolly Patch" got away to a fine start, and as exciting a race as could be wished for, was then witnessed. The two horses came down the stretch neck and neck "Justo" winning out by nearly a length.

The judges were: Mayor Wilson of Gananoque, Ex-mayor J. M. Healy, Ald. S. S. Corbett, W. Clurston, W. Murray, starter, Dr. Bell, timer.

Theatrical

At the Grand. George Walsh will be portrayed at the Grand to-night for the last time in his latest comedy feature, "Help, Help, Police," a well blended story of love and adventure. Mae Marsh will be shown in "Hidden Fires" a picture which as the name suggests, is full of thrills and exciting scenes. The latest Mutt and Jeff cartoon, "Pig Tails and Peaches," will also be displayed along with an excellent vaudeville which won much applause last evening. For Thursday afternoon and evening and Friday afternoon only Bessie Barriscale will be shown in "The White Lie," a role which gives her a very good opportunity to display her exceptional acting ability. Other features, along with comedy reels, will also be seen. High class vaudeville will complete this fine programme.—Advt.

"His Bridal Night." Few of the present day farces have met with the success of "His Bridal Night," which will be presented at the Grand on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 26th and 27th with a Saturday matinee. When presented in Boston, the dramatic critic of the American had the following to say: "His Bridal Night" pleased a capacity audience at the Wilbur Theatre last night. "His Bridal Night" is an involved farce with a great deal of humor and many clever situations largely dependent on the likeness of twin sisters, one of whom is a bride at the beginning of the story, whose husband finds himself unable to tell her from her equally pretty sister. To go further into the story, would be to spoil it for those who intend seeing it. Robert Knight will appear in the leading male role.

At the Strand. "Tempered Steel" will be shown at the Strand theatre tonight. In selecting George Middleton's story, "Tempered Steel," for her fourth appearance on the First National Exhibitors' Circuit, Madame Petrova was actuated by a desire to give her, following a drama of realistic contrasts without changing the locale of the story from America or forcing her cameraman to invent new wrinkles in double-exposure. The result is pleasing from every standpoint, as the Polish actress here found in Lucille Caruthers, the heroine of Mr. Middleton's story, a part which gives her ample scope to suggest the many changes that are wrought in the life of a girl brought up in the seclusion of an old-time Southern home, who suddenly finds herself thrown into the whirlpool of New York theatrical life, with all its baffling cross-currents of intrigue and temptation.

An example of practical camouflage is given by Charlie Chaplin in his second million-dollar picture, "Shoulder Arms," to be shown at the Strand Theatre to-day, when he disguises himself as a tree stump and starts on a spying trip into enemy territory, only to be met by a small party of Huns, seeking firewood, who promptly decide to chop down the human stump as an addition to the load of wood they are about to take back to their trenches. In Charlie's opinion, his attempt at camouflage is entirely too successful and his resentment over the stupidity of the Huns in mistaking him for a genuine stump gets him into countless difficulties.—Advt.

At Griffin's. To-night will be the last time to see Bryant Washburn's picture "A Very Good Young Man" which has proven so popular with Kingston audiences during the last two days. This is a delightful characterization of the kind in which Bryant Washburn excels and is filled with delicious comedy from beginning to end. To-night, will also be the last time that an opportunity will be given to hear the delightful Harmony Singing Trio, the foremost in America, and who are a delight to the eye as well as to the ear. These three artists have grown into favor with the Kingston public to an immense degree, and seldom has their equal been here. The same may be said of Toe Wizard of the Banjo. Frank Sweetman, whose master handling of this sweet instrument is creating a sensation. Don't miss this programme to-night or you will have missed one of the best of the year.—Advt.
