A LONGER SERIES IN FAVOR OF THE REDS

Every Game Over Five Reduces the Chicago White Sox's Chances.

On the left arm of Claude Williams depends to a large extent the chances of the White Sox in the world's series. Eddie Collins, Joe Jackson, Chick Gandil and the other big hitters of the Sox wrecking crew may fall before the slants of the star Red hurlers, and yet Gleason might cop the honors in the championship fracas. The concrete defensive works of the American League champions might wobble without throwing the season's crown to the Ohio team. But if Williams falls down under the load that will be placed on his shoulders, the hopes of the Sox will go up in smoke.

Eddie Cicotte and Williams worked a double hitch all season and pitched the hose to a victory. If the White Sox's record of never having lost a world's series match is to be maintained the same pair of "iron men" must carry the brunt of the box work against the Reds.

Cicotte, taking up the task in the opening game, will face the Reds' offense. The sturdy righthander, on the strength of his past season's record, can almost be counted upon for two games, and possibly three.

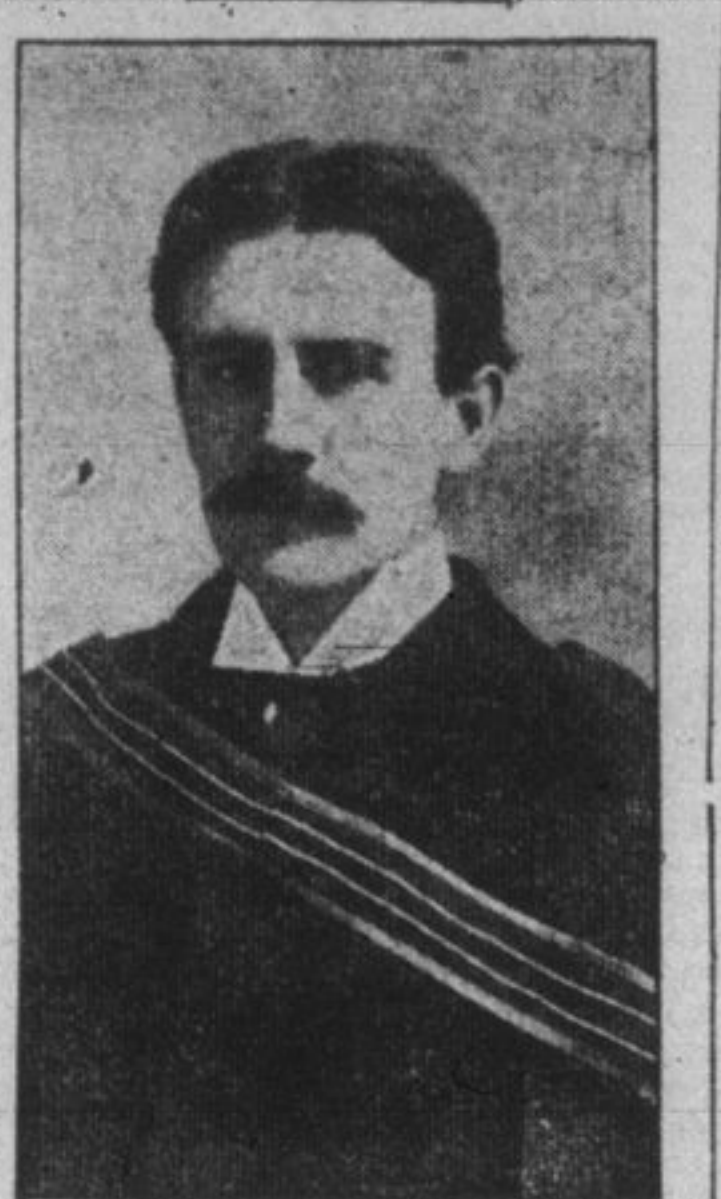

Williams, no doubt, will face the Moran club in the second game. If he fails to hold the National League's it will burden Cicotte to the breaking point. Should he fall down on his second appearance the title will go to the Reds unless a miracle appears.

Dick Kerr, the kid southpaw, as earned right to start a game against the Reds, and Gleason no doubt will give him the chance. If the youngster turns the Reds back Cicotte and Williams can come back with a two day rest, which has been sufficient for them all season.

Every game the series goes over five will mean a reduction of the White Sox's chances.

MORE PLAYERS TURNING OUT WITH QUEEN'S

With the opening of the fall session of Queen's University Wednesday a number of students were added to those who have been out practicing with "Jack" Williams for the rugby team. "Jack" is working them hard and has his eye open all the time for fresh material. With the first big game on the 11th he cannot afford to lose time, but it will be safe to leave it to him, for if he can get his backs from the Collegiate boys he will train the line in time to give Varsity a warm contest. There is some very good material amongst those practicing this week, especially one or two fast wingers.

Head Master of St. Andrew's College, Toronto, who has been elected president of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada.

CINCINNATI WINS THE FIRST GAME OF WORLD'S SERIES

At Cincinnati on Wednesday afternoon the Cincinnati National League team won the first game of the world's baseball series by 9 to 1 from the Chicago White Sox of the American League. A great battling bee in the fourth inning netted Cincinnati five runs, while in the seventh several hits yielded the home team two more.

Cicotte, Chicago's pitching "ace," was taken out of the box in the fourth inning and Wilkinson replaced him. The summary: Chicago: 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 6-1 Cincinnati: 1 0 5 0 0 2 1 2—9 14-1 Chicago—Cicotte, Wilkinson and Schalk. Cincinnati—Rueher and Wingo.

SHOULD BE HELPFUL TO ALL THE CLUBS

The Toronto Star says: College rugby authorities have taken a firm hold in regard to the interpretation of the playing rules of a conference held on Saturday the "interference rule," which has been the bone of contention for some years, was clearly defined. The interpretation agreed upon makes it clear that the college are opposed to any interference on the line except to make a hole and the rule will be strictly enforced by the officials. Any obscure points were also made clear for the board of referees who were present. This conference should result in a uniform interpretation of the rules, which will be helpful to all the clubs and patrons of the game.

A Montreal despatch says: Billy Billington, the famous halfback of the champion McGill team of 1912, was an interested spectator at the practice of the squad at the stadium this afternoon. Billington was not only a spectator, but assisted Shaughnessy during the afternoon's workout. Billington devoted the greater part of his time in showing the candidates for the half line how to drop and punt.

Reports from Ottawa say that the Rough Riders are having trouble in securing suitable men for the back division. They are talking of trotting out Dave McCann again.

VASSAR GIRLS MUST ENGAGE IN ATHLETICS

President Henry N. MacCracken announces a new system of athletics at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., which will be considerably more extensive than that in the past. Competitions hereafter instead of being between individual students will be between classes and a silver cup will be given to the class showing the greatest proficiency during the year.

Three days a week for six weeks are compulsory for students in athletic work. Mild gymnastic exercises will not count; the work must be in the form of a hike of not less than five miles, volley ball, basketball, hockey, swimming, horseback riding or similar sports.

The honor system will be used and at the end of the term a field day will be held.

INTERPROVINCIAL RUGBY

President William Ewing, of the Interprovincial Football Union, has appointed the referees for the opening games to be played at Toronto and Ottawa on Saturday. Pete Campbell, the former University of Toronto player, will referee at Ottawa, with George Mallett, of Hamilton, as judge of play. In the Toronto game between Argonauts and Tigers, Eddie Phillips, of Ottawa, will referee and George Kelly, of M.A.A.A., will be judge of play.

PICTON'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Clerk's Athletic Association has been formed by the young men of Picton. The officers are: President, James Wright; secretary-treasurer, Richard Hadden; manager, Earl Croft; captain, Arnold Adams; snuggler, P. Stanley Croft; trainer, Ernest Hodgkin; business committee, Joseph Ruben, William Branscombe, P. Stanley Croft. The association is out to promote all reasonable sports, and just now are giving their attention to football.

STILL CONTINUES TO WIN

Commander J. K. L. Ross continues to gather rich stakes on the American tracks. It is not uncommon for the commander and Bedwell to slip over a double, but it is only infrequently that he registers a triple win in an afternoon. That is what he did Saturday. His choice took the third race at Havre, Billy Kelly the fourth and Cudgel the fifth.

FIVE OF REDS ONCE WITH WHITE SOX

It is a singular coincidence that five members of the Cincinnati Reds formerly wore the uniforms of the White Sox—the team they are to play for the world's baseball championship. Eddie Roush, star batter and outfielder of the Reds, was with the Sox in 1914 under Jimmy Callahan, being released to Lincoln. Morris, second baseman, also played under Callahan. He was signed by the Reds last season and made good from the start.

Hod Eller, star pitcher, was with the Chicago nine in 1916, but was released to Moline. Eller, as well as Cicotte, enjoyed his best year in 1917. Like the Chicago pitcher, he is a shine-ball artist. Schreiber, utility infielder of the Reds, was also with the Sox for a time in 1914, and Allen, a catcher, played with Comiskey's club in 1911, later going to Minneapolis.

CALF IN AIRPLANE TO LIVE STOCK SHOW

Jim Jeffries owns the first cow that ever jumped over the moon. It is only a calf at that, but a prize calf, sired by Jim's famous $10,000 bull. Jim wanted to show the calf in a live stock show at Los Angeles. He missed railroad connections, and in order to get the calf to the judging ring before it was too late he hired an airplane and shipped the calf the distance of 20 miles from his ranch to the city. It was lifted from the airplane at the exposition grounds, and rewarded Jim by capturing first prize. The former heavyweight champion is going in for prize stock and getting some very good results from breeding efforts.

HOCKEY PLAYERS HOME

Belleville expects to have plenty of material next winter for strong intermediate and junior O.H.A. teams, with the return of players from overseas. Ted Clarke will manage the club, and K. A. W. Sutherland will be secretary. Players available for the intermediates include Swayne, Weir, Symonds, Whalen, Finkle, Sutherland, Green, Arnot and Boland. The boys are already training at the Y.M.C.A.

The Argonaut football club have decided to enter a team in the O.R.F.U. intermediate series.

HE CAN'T GET AWAY WITH THAT STUFF ON JEFF.

By Bud Fisher

SURE! I'M ONE OF THE MILITARY POLICE. SEE THE M.P. ON MY SLEEVE? MY JOB IS TO KEEP LONDON TOWER FULL OF BOARDERS, SO WATCH YOURSELF, MURT!

GONNA MOVE DOWN TO SHERLOCK HOLMES' OLD QUARTERS ON BAKER STREET?

I WISH A WAVE OF CRIME WOULD SWEEP THE CITY JUST SO I COULD SHOW THE SCOTLAND YARD INSPECTORS HOW TO COPE WITH IT. AHEM!

SOME ONE OUGHT TO TELL THAT GUY HIS WAGON'S LEAKING!

THE FIRST TIME I THOUGHT IT WAS LEAKING, BUT NOW I KNOW YOU'RE DOING IT ON PURPOSE!
