A very delightful Queen's tea was given by Mrs. Bruce Taylor on Thursday afternoon, when the wives of the faculty were invited to meet Miss Clark, new director of physical education, and the wives of the new and recently returned professors. Mrs. J. C. Connell and Mrs. W. L. Goodwin assisted Mrs. Taylor in introducing the new comers. In the tea room Mrs. John Macgillivray made tea, while Mrs. H. A. Lavell poured coffee. Their assistants were the Misses Taylor and several of the members of Queen's Alumnae and Levauna Society.

The bachelors of the Yacht Club were hosts of a very jolly dance on Wednesday evening. A fire burned merrily in the feldspar fire place and spread its soft glow over the dancers. Salsbury's orchestra played delightfully, and at 11.30 o'clock delicious refreshments were served. This was a very special attraction to the dance. Next Wednesday will be the last of the dances for the season, when the bachelors will again be the hosts.
