Had Caught Five.

A man who was wanted by the police had been photographed in six different positions, and the pictures sent to the chief of police of a provincial town, where it was thought likely the fugitive was hiding. After the lapse of a few days the following reply reached headquarters: "Sir—I duly received the portraits of the six miscreants whom you desired, and the sixth is under observation and will be secured shortly."

Had a Great Shake.

The Renfrew Mercury says that Hon. Dr. Arthur E. Ross, Kingston, and His Honor Beve McEwen, Renfrew, "had a great shake hands" before an audience assembled in Pembroke the other evening to listen to political addresses. It seems that they went to the same school, visited the same swimming hole, skated on the same pond and pliffered from the same orchard in days of auld lang syne when boys together at Cobden.

A Kind Act.

On Thursday evening, Martin Snook, Bath Road, was presented with a purse of $750 raised by a subscription from farmers in the township of Kingston and adjoining townships. Mr. Snook suffered the total loss of his barns and contents, valued at $2,000, during an electric storm on August 24th last, and his friends raised the money to assist him in erecting new barns. Mr. Snook was grateful.

IS THIS YOUR CASE?

What You Should Do—Most Successful and Economical Treatment.

Do you have a feeling of general weakness day in and out? Is your appetite poor? Does your food fail to strengthen you and your sleep to refresh? Do you find it hard to do or to bear what should be easy? Have your ordinary duties and cares become great tasks and burdens?

If so, take Hood's Sarsaparilla—this great medicine revitalizes the blood, gives vigor and tone to all the organs and functions, and is unequalled for those who are in any degree debilitated or run down. Do not delay treatment—begin it today.

To rouse the torpid liver and regulate the bowels take Hood's Pills. They are purely vegetable.

John M. Theobald returned from a hunting trip to-day in the township of Clarendon. He brought home a great many ducks and partridges.

What He Had Forgotten

A farmer, noted for his absent-mindedness, went to the market town and transacted his business. He started on his way home, however, with the unpleasant conviction that he had forgotten something, but what it was he could not recall. As he neared home the conviction strengthened, and three times he stopped his horse and went carefully through his pocket-book in a vain endeavor to discover what he had forgotten. In due course he reached home and was met by his daughter, who looked at him in surprise and then exclaimed: "Why, father, where have you left mother?"
