The most comprehensive stock of Overcoats in Kingston.

This is a broad statement, but we think you will agree with us.

Young fellows who know styles are enthusiastic over these new models.

Knowing that the stock of good Overcoatings was very limited, we bought heavily early in the season giving us the choice of better materials at prices impossible later.

Unusual values at $40.00 and at $35.00, $42.50, up to $50.00.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Farmers' Candidate in Lennox.
Odessa, Oct. 15.—(To the Editor): As the president of the Odessa Farmers' Co-operative Association I have frequently been asked, and the impression has gone abroad that our association is supporting the United Farmers' candidate.

It was plainly stated by the chairman and others at the nomination meeting which Mr. Brethen accepted that no associations or clubs in the county were behind the movement or in any manner interested in it.

Mr. Brethen announced himself as the candidate of the United Farmers of Ontario.

So far as I am aware, the Farmers' Associations in the County of Lennox were organized by the district agricultural representative and received their charter from the Provincial Government.

The Odessa Farmers' Co-operative Association, composed of over 200 members, probably the largest single association in the province, buys their feed and other commodities used upon a farm, in car lots at wholesale prices direct from the mills and manufacturers, and ship their hogs, cattle and live stock in car lots every week to the packing companies.

The association is not affiliated with or has any connection with the United Farmers and differs with them on the Military-Service Act and other matters.

The United Farmers' Candidate appeals to the United Farmers of Ontario in this county for their support. So far as I know, there are none or at least a very few in the county who it is his privilege to appeal to anyone he wishes.

Thanking you, I am, yours respectfully,

—A. L. DAVIS.

Theatrical

"Mickey" At the Grand To-night.
"Mickey" is the title of the biggest sensation of the seventh world. Wherever it has been presented it has created an interest unprecedented in the history of film productions. "Mickey" is a little mountain girl, whose adventures, pictorially presented, make a photodrama that breathes the very sunshine of life. It is a remarkable production in many ways, and not the least of these is the rare dramatic ability displayed by Mabel Normand. She brings tears to the eyes at one moment, and has her audience roaring with laughter at the next. In addition, she performs stunts that would put in the background many of the stars who have won fame through their ability to inject thrills into a film production. There is a racing scene that is said to have anything of a similar character beaten a furlong, while the fight between the hero and the villain is one of the most realistic battles yet screened. "Mickey" will be seen at the Grand Opera House to-night, to-morrow and Saturday only.—Adv.

"My Soldier Girl."
A tuneful musical comedy of fun and fashion best described by the latest musical comedy success "My Soldier Girl," coming to the Grand Opera House for a return engagement of one night only, Tuesday, Oct. 21st, with its scenes laid in two novel acts. The first scene opens at Colonel Stone's home in Miami, Florida, overlooking Biscayne Bay. There is a lawn fete in progress in honor of boys and girls who the Colonel met in Europe during the recent struggle. The second act opens on the roof of a New York theatre, presenting a gorgeous production of the Follies in rehearsal. Colonel Stone is the producer and the scene as presented shows the big company in all its merry-making. There are many dance ensembles participated in by the excellent cast and big chorus who are responsible for the success of this big spectacle.—Adv.

At Griffin's.
Among the great producers of the world, there are few, if any, whose grasp of the technique of their art is more profound than that which distinguishes all of D. W. Griffith's productions. Mr. Griffith long ago demonstrated his artistic and master of cinema technique, but in none of his pictures are these qualifications more delightfully in evidence than in his latest Arcraft picture "True Heart Susie." That it will be acclaimed a pastoral classic second only in beauty of thought and action to "A Romance of Happy Valley," assured. The same delightful cast, as seen in previous Griffith productions, headed by Lillian Gish and Robert Harron, appear in "True Heart Susie," which is the story of a plain girl with heart as big as humanity, palpitating with sweetness, love and self sacrifice, but the heart is hidden beneath an ordinary exterior. It's another great Griffith drama. Don't miss it. An exceptionally good programme of vaudeville will also be shown which consists of Mme. Zita and Company, in a special scenic act entitled "The Aurora of Light." Lucille Karlin, in a high class musical act, and De-Vaux, Dell and Joe, in brilliant bits of variety. Such a combination of good vaudeville has not been seen in Kingston in some time, and when shown along with the charming feature picture mentioned above, the programme becomes one you cannot afford to miss.—Adv.

War Pictures Coming.
The official prints of Canadian war photographs will be exhibited in the G.W.V.A. rooms on Friday, 6 p.m. to 10 p.m., and on Saturday, 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. These are not the large reproductions, which it would be impossible to show in small space, but are the originals from which the reproductions were made. They depict nearly every war scene in which the Canadians took part and are said to be most realistic and impressive. This is not a movie, but real photographs of the late war. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Kingston G.W.V.A. Admission, 25c.—Adv.

Mrs. Johanna O'Conner, Bellefleur, died on Oct. 11th. She was sixty-two years old and was born in Murray township.

POLICE NABBED LIQUOR

J. D. SMITH BROUGHT FROM MONTREAL FOR THIRSTY ONES.

Magistrate Farrell Imposed a Fine of $500 and Costs on Offender, Who Said He Brought Liquor Here to See What He Could Realize on It.

The police nipped in the bud the plans of one James D. Smith, who was about to quench the thirst of a few Kingston tipplers. Smith arrived from Montreal Thursday morning, with his baggage, which consisted of a suit case and two hand bags. When the said baggage was examined by Constables Cotter, Downey and Lesalle Clark, thirty-five bottles of whiskey were disclosed, and Smith and his "joy water" were taken to the police station. The accused said that he brought the liquor to Kingston to see what he could realize on it.

Magistrate Farrell imposed a fine of $500 and costs, and the accused, it is understood, has the money to cover the fine. The option is six months in jail.

William Moore was up for being intoxicated in a public place. He is a stranger in the city, and as he could not give a satisfactory account of how he managed to get the precious stuff, he was remanded a day.
