Britain's Poor Prospects for Olympiad

The playing on the fields of Great Britain was never busier than at the present. Tardy reconstruction of the industrial life has not affected in the slightest degree the great revival of British sports. Army life has discouraged the spectacular side of the games and tended more to individual participation. Beyond boxers, the army training has not produced any world beaters. The prospects of many British successes at the Olympic games at Antwerp in 1920 are dim.

M'GILL DEFEATS QUEEN'S

INTERCOLLEGIATE RUGBY GAME BY 32 TO 2.

Several of Queen's Best Players Were Unable to Play Because of Injuries Received in Practice.

Queen's were easily disposed of by McGill in the senior intercollegiate rugby game here Saturday afternoon, the score resulting 32 to 2 in favor of Shaughnessy's Montreal team.

Queen's went on the field in a rather weak condition. The Toronto battle between Varsity and Queen's and also the exhibition game here between the tricolor and R.M.C. had incapacitated several of "Jack" Williams' best men. The eighteen-year-old wonder, McKelvey, was unable to play, although he used his lungs to help his team on during the game. One, if not the best man on the team, Ferguson, was out of business with a sprained ankle, while McCoville, Carson and Nickle, were also nursing various bruises and bumps and were consequently not able to play. The situation was relieved, however, by the appearance of "Eddie" Elliott, a former Queen's senior team player, and also "Mike" Freda, both of whom were put in to play without much practice. Hopes were also held out of getting Sheehy, a former Ottawa player, but as he had not registered in time it was impossible for him to play.

Weight told throughout the game, Queen's being unable to hold McGill in the scrimmage, and the visitors got through repeatedly. McGill had a fine team, all in the pink of condition. Their best man was Montgomery, who made the first two touchdowns in splendid style. Other outstanding players were Seath, Williamson, Cope and Gilhooly, all of whom showed some very neat and fast work. Some fine tackling was seen and good fast combination work featured throughout the game.

Much, however, must be said for the tricolor team, who although beaten, fought hard and cleanly. McKelvey was badly missed. With him and Ferguson in the game a different tale might have been told. "Eddie" Elliott played a magnificent game and McGill had more than once occasion to feel his massive weight. Freda played well and kept the scrimmage working hard all through, whilst Brownfield, Carroll and Campbell, none of whom were feeling up to scratch, all showed to good advantage. The team was, on the whole, far too tight for McGill and possibly if they had done more punting, they would have done more scoring.

A great amount of credit is due to "Jack" Williams for making such good use of the small amount of material on hand. "Jack" has kept the boys at it unceasingly and it was hard luck that some of his best trained players were unable to turn out against McGill.

A large crowd witnessed the game, both grand-stand and bleachers being packed. The majority were students, whose yells and songs kept the game well up in excitement.

The Game by Quarters.

For the first few minutes of the first quarter, both teams played very snappy ball but it was not long before McGill started to show the value of condition. McGill started to break through with the result that Montgomery went over for the first five points. The try was not converted. McGill 5 Queen's 0.

The second quarter opened with

Gaul and Bawlf Refused Cards.

Horace Gaul and Nick Bawlf, who applied recently for their amateur cards, have been rejected. Harry Bush, of Ottawa, also applied and he, too, was turned down. It seems a pity that Gaul and Bawlf, who both served overseas, should be denied their cards. Both were out and out professionals some years ago. Bawlf was allowed to play football in England during the war and no question was asked regarding his qualifications. He recently returned from overseas and is anxious to keep up his athletics. The domination of Toronto in the councils of the C.A.A.U. prevented many soldier athletes who were fighting men from again securing their cards. Charlie Lanfols, who applied some time ago for his papers was granted them.

Baseball Man Buys Cuba Track.

Chas. A. Stoneham, president and principal owner of the New York Giants, has purchased the plant of the Cuban-American Jockey Club in Havana, according to a report printed here today. The price paid to H. D. (Curley) Brown is said to be near $1,000,000. Stoneham and John J. McGraw, manager of the Giants, are now in Cuba, and the report could not be confirmed.

Where The Going Is Good.

Sure they play seven-man hockey in the West, but that is no reason why tourists players should tax the capacity of the railroad trains en route to Calgary. When the latter city began "loading up" Edmonton took the hint and claim to have some wanderers themselves. The residence clause names November 1 as the last day under which to qualify. There's time yet.

R.C.H.A. WON ON SATURDAY

IN THE FOOTBALL MATCH WITH THE G.W.V.A.

Captured Interesting Match By a Score of 3 to 2.—Prince of Wales To Kick Off Ball in Next Saturday's Game.

The R. C. A. defeated the G. W. V. A. by a score of 3 to 2, in a fast game of football on Saturday afternoon. This is the first time that the R. C. A. has come out on top, and owing to the pucky manner in which the team has played the game during the season, had many friends among the fans. The score was 1 to 1 at the end of the first period, Norwood scoring for the R. C. A. and Tibbets for the veterans. In the second period Norwood scored again, to be tied by it and from this point some feeling was evident which came to a clash between two players, but the game went on and the redoubtable Norwood scored his third goal making a lead that remained at the end of the game. The line up was:

R. C. A. G. W. V. A. Osborne goal. Smith back. Fulton back. Campbell half backs. Verrill half backs. Jones half backs. Carey half backs. Wilson forwards. Partis forwards. Phillips forwards. W. Graham forwards. Cpl. Graham forwards. Owens forwards. Lowring forwards. Hood forwards. Norwood forwards. Tibbets forwards. Cole forwards. Reid forwards. Goldfinch forwards. Green forwards.

Referee, A. G. M. Strowger, Linesmen Heap, Batty.

At the close of the football game on Saturday J. R. Forster announced to the players assembled on the field, that arrangements had been made by which it was assured that His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, would kick off the ball in an exhibition game between the two Veterans' teams on the cricket field at 11.20 a. m. on Saturday next, the 25th inst. after the civic reception. The greatest satisfaction was felt over the announcement and a meeting of the executive has been called for this evening when the personnel of the teams and other necessary arrangements for the game will be completed. On thing is certain, Kingston sports will be honored by the recognition of His Royal Highness, and honored, too, by her football players who will put on a superior game of soccer football.

FREDA IS PLAYING RUGBY WITH QUEEN'S

"Mike" Freda is once again playing with Queen's rugby team. He reached the limestone city Thursday morning and on reaching the old Varsity was welcomed with open arms and immediately put into an outfit and shipped up to the athletic grounds for a game, and the victory won by Queen's against R.M.C. was in no small way due to his fine tackling and swift running. "Mike" played for Queen's in 1913 and 1914 and was always a very valuable asset to the university team, and judging by his present looks, he is as good as ever.

An Aviator In Trouble.

At the Longchamps racetrack in France Sunday an aviator, defying orders against flying over Paris, came down and landed on the main course, where the enclosures were already considerably crowded. A woman calmly jumped out of the airplane and walked off. The aviator took the air, but before he got clear of the course the machine fell, owing to one of the brace rods breaking, and crashed just inside the enclosure. This aviator, who was not hurt, was attacked by the crowd.

Wonderful for the Blood!

Cures Sallow Skin, Headache, Langor and Tiredness.

You don't need to be told how you feel—blue, sort of sickish, poor appetite, vague pains, tired in the morning. This condition is common at this season.

Fortunately there is prompt relief in Dr. Hamilton's Pills which immediately relieve the system of all poisons and disease-producing matter.

Thousands have been so utterly depressed, so worn out as to be despondent, but Dr. Hamilton's Pills always cured them. "I can speak feelingly on the power of Dr. Hamilton's Pills," writes C. T. Fearman, of Kingston. "Last spring my blood was thin and weak, I was terribly run down, had awful headaches and a gnawing, empty feeling about my stomach. I couldn't sleep or work until I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they did me a world of good." At all dealers in 25c boxes.

Weiser and Flanagan of McGill are on the injured list, and are not expected to play in Kingston today. Weiser has no peer as a quarterback in intercollegiate football, but it is not likely that Coach Shaughnessy will use him in this position.

Governments' Share Equals Clubs.

Nearly as much money was paid to the United States in war tax as accrued to the club owners of each of the teams that participated in the recent world baseball series. For the eight games $75,239 was paid to the government as war tax, while Charles A. Comiskey, of the Chicago White Sox, and Garry Herrmann, of the Cincinnati Reds, got approximately $95,000 each. But from that amount, it is stated, it was necessary to deduct the expenses of erecting temporary seats, players' salaries, the cost of transporting the players from one city to the other, and their hotel bills, leaving what the government was left to the owners.

Returned Men!

This is NEW. Invented While You Were Overseas

Clever, isn't it? No one thought it possible to design a cuff that would fold as neat and flat when turned in as when turned out.

But it has been done. Now when the cuff of your W. G. & R. shirt gets soiled, you turn the other side of the Double Wear Cuff. This enables a man to wear his shirt twice as long before sending it to the laundry. It cuts your laundry bills on shirts clean in two.

It adds months to the life of your shirt, because everyone knows that laundering a shirt is harder on it than wearing it.

And remember—These shirts cost no more than good shirts should.
