Theatrical

At The Grand.

What has proven the real success of the present season standing out above all the new musical plays that have been produced in months is "My Soldier Girl," musical spectacle which will be presented at the Grand to-night. Many names of clever artists well known to lovers of musical plays are to be found in the cast of this remarkable success, including Maude Baxter, Dorothy Garrigue, Leslie Jones, Billy Moore, James Baber, Billy Murphy and many others. The chorus is composed of the most attractive lot of girls ever gotten together in one organization. The production is gorgeous, whether in the first act, showing Col. Stone's home at Miami Fla., during a lawn fete in honor of friends from "overseas," or the grand stage settings for the Follies production on the roof of a New York theatre, showing the city illuminated with grotesque. Many new and novel dances are introduced by the bewitching chorus, offering spicy moments of amusement and wholesome entertainment. The score is melodious and the many song hits include "My Soldier Girl," "Just For You," "Jasper's Ragtime Band," "Won't You Be My Beau," "That Dixie Wedding Tune," and "Wrap Me Up in a Bundle of Love."—Advt.

"The Kiss Burglar."

One of the most notable musical play productions of the season will be found in Court's and Tennis' smacking musical comedy success, "The Kiss Burglar," which comes direct from a successful six months' run at the George M. Cohan Theatre, New York and will be offered at the Grand on Wednesday, Oct. 22nd, bargain matinee and night, exactly as seen on Broadway. The book and lyrics are by Glen MacDonough, who has to his credit a long list of successes which embrace, "The Queen of the Movies," "Fads and Fancies," "Babes of Toyland," "The Midnight Sons," etc., and the music is by Raymond Hubbell, a young American composer, whose song hits have long been favorites with the American public. No estimation is given regarding the play itself, except that it pictures life in New York of present day. Among the beautiful scenes will be two showing "Peacock Alley," a promenade in one of the fashionable metropolitan hotels, and a country show place on Long Island, the retreat of so many millionaire New Yorkers. Romance and adventure are said to be provided in good measure in this lively story of smart-set life in the gay metropolis. Interpolated in the action of this romantic musical comedy are more than a dozen alluring song and dance numbers. "The original George M. Cohan Theatre production, and an enormous company which includes the famous "Peacock Alley Chorus."—Advt.

At Griffin's.

"The Virtuous Thief," Enid Bennett's latest starring vehicle, was presented with great success at this theatre last evening. This is a delightful bit of drama with finely drawn characterizations of real human people living in the Flatbush district of New York. In it there is drama, suspense and good comedy relief. The story concerns a young girl who becomes a stenographer of the broker her brother has robbed. He takes advantage of the power he holds to attempt the ruin of the girl. How she escapes and the man pays a terrible penalty is a plot development that would destroy the interest of the spectators by revealing in advance. Don't miss this picture. An exceptionally good programme of vaudeville is also shown and received a hearty reception from the large audience last evening. The bill consists of Peter Smith, character singing comedian, who made a big hit by his clever songs and dancing. Zellnor and Hollway, who provide something new in the line of impersonations, and Dick Hamlin, the Man in Brown, whose good singing received much applause. This programme will be repeated again to-night and to-morrow, don't overlook it.—Advt.

CONSERVATION OF FOXES.

Fur Farming Industry Will Be Encouraged.
Ottawa, Oct. 21.—The Commission of Conservation is calling a convention of fox breeders and others interested in the business of fur farming. Fox farming, although only in its infancy, is today netting those engaged in the industry over $1,000,000 per year. The exceedingly high prices obtained at the recent fur sales have enormously stimulated the trapping of fur bearers. These animals are undoubtedly decreasing in numbers, and the supply of fur can only be kept up by domestication, which not only ensures better pelts, but decreases the losses the animals sustain in the wild state from predatory animals and other enemies.

DISSATISFIED WITH ALLOTMENT

Space Requisitioned For November Inadequate For Great Demand.
Ottawa, Oct. 21.—The announcement that fifty per cent. of the space on liners of British registry has been requisitioned for November, the same as October, increasing the difficulties of Canadian shipping agencies which have demands for more commercial space to principal British ports than they can supply. The heavy movement of wheat and other foodstuffs at this season calls for extra accommodation. The Canadian Trade Commission has made representations to London for release of more space.

Orel Retaken By Bolsheviks.

(Canadian Press Despatch).
London, Oct. 21.—Orel has been retaken by the Bolsheviks, who also have defeated nineteen regiments of Gen. Mamentoff's army outside Voronezh, according to a wireless despatch sent out by the Soviet Government at Moscow.

A Mine Disaster.

(Canadian Press Despatch).
Penzance, England, Oct. 21.—A disaster in the Levant mine at St. Just, Cornwall, to-day, caused about forty deaths. Many miners were injured.

ARE TO STOP FORGED PRESCRIPTIONS NOW

More Inspectors Appointed—Supply Doctors With Numbered Blanks.

Montreal, Oct. 21.—Stringent measures are about to be taken by the local Prohibition Law Office to prevent the sale of liquor by vendors to would-be buyers, who present forged medical prescriptions. A number of new inspectors have been added to the staff of the law office, and they state that they are under strict orders to see that the twelve licensed vendors' establishments are under continuous inspection. An inspector will remain in each establishment during the whole time that it is open to the public, and will scrutinize closely all medical prescriptions presented. It is expected that the results will be immediately visible in decreasing sales.

So successful has the new method been that of 132 prescriptions presented in one day in one vendor's shop last week, 126 were confiscated by the inspector who considered the signatures dubious, and refusal was given to the applicants. The confiscated prescriptions will be investigated and the prohibition law office will have arrests for forgeries made in cases where it is found that the signatures are not genuine.

A method whereby the 1300 doctors in Montreal will be supplied with specially numbered prescription blanks which will enable an inspector to tell whether or not a prescription presented at a vendor's was actually signed by the physician purporting to have signed it, is being arranged, and the new blank form will be distributed to the doctors in the course of a few weeks.

By the same methods an automatic record will be kept of the number of prescriptions for liquor issued by each individual doctor.

Sir Arthur Brown Lecture.

The story of the first non-stop trans-Atlantic flight which Sir Arthur Whittien Brown will lecture on in the Grand Opera House on Friday evening, Oct. 24th. Landed at Cliff ten at 8.40 a.m., Greenwich mean time, 15th of June, Vickers Vimy Atlantic machine leaving Newfoundland and coast at 4.28 p.m., Greenwich mean time, 14th of June. Total time, sixteen hours, twelve minutes (Signed) Alecock and Brown. Such was the first, brief and modest message flashed from the airmen in Ireland to the Aero Club of America; the complete tale of an adventurous and amazingly hazardous enterprise was to be told later. The J. B. Pond Lyceum Bureau now has the rare privilege of presenting Lieut. Sir Arthur Whittien Brown, K.B.E., one of the only two men who have ever stood on the continents of America and Europe in the same day, who will tell his original story of this first great accomplishment of peace-time, the Story of the Non-Stop Trans-Atlantic flight as made by Capt. Sir John Alecock and Lieut. Sir Arthur Whittien Brown.

Alecock and Brown were knighted by King George last June upon their arrival in England, the announcement of this honor being made by Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill at the same time that he presented them with Lord Northcliffe's "Daily Mail" prize of $50,000, offered in 1913 for the first non-stop unaided flight across the Atlantic.—Advt.

FOUR PERSONS KILLED.

In a Collision of Trains at New York.
(Canadian Press Despatch)
New York, Oct. 21.—Four persons were killed and several injured when a north-bound third avenue elevated train crashed into the rear end of a second train stalled, early to-day. Slippery rails caused the disaster. The rear car of the forward train was telescoped three-quarters of its length.
