Theatrical

At The Grand. For to-night, Tuesday and Wednesday only The Grand offers a picture that is sure to win instant popularity. Winsome Mae Marsh in "Spotlight Sadie" has the role of a daughter of Erin who becomes a chorus queen to win the man she loves. There is a villain in the play; a sly old fox who thinks chorus girls are toys for men. He bargains and Sadie—well, see Mae Marsh as the saintly show girl and learn the truth. It is a Goldenwyn picture which is a guarantee of an excellent production. There is also a very amusing five-reel picture featuring Albert Ray and Elnor Fair that is sure to please the most critical. This programme will be completed by a reel of "Must and Jeff" cartoon comedy and an act of extra good vaudeville.—Advt.

At Griffins. If one likes romance in the form of a motion picture it is certainly to be had at Griffins' theatre today when Bryant Washburn's new picture "Love Insurance" is presented.

The romance starts when Dick Milnot, the role played by the star, while on his way down to Florida to promote a wedding between an English nobleman and an American heiress, which his employers have insisted he meets by chance a beautiful girl and has a flirtation with her. The plot thickens when Dick finds that the very girl with whom he has fallen in love is the heiress in question.

Between love and duty he appeals to his employers, but he is forced to sacrifice love on the altar of duty. Just as the girl is about to be married she hears of his bet with Lloyd on their marriage, which results in her denouncement of both the suitor and Dick besides. Dick leaves for home and discovers the girl also on the train. Passing through the town of their first acquaintance fond memories again sow seed of romance and they are reconciled.

"Love Insurance" provides an admirable vehicle for Bryant Washburn who is achieving considerable reputation as a master of light comedy roles.

This photoplay along with our usual line of good picture attractions will be shown today, Tuesday and Wednesday.—Advt.
