New Canons of Modesty.
(New York World)
The Pope warns women against "fashions contrary to that modesty which should be the fairest ornament of the Christian woman." But women to whom clothes are religion have their own canons of modesty, and strongly subversive canons they are.
Us Poor City Men.
(Ottawa Journal)
The farmer has captured the province; he has not back standard time; he has hens that lay the golden eggs; he has the open spaces, fresh air and sunshine. By golly, what chance have some of us city men to get in on his position.

"California Syrup of Figs"
For a Child's Liver and Bowels
Mother! Say "California," then you will get genuine "California Syrup of Figs." Full directions for babies and children of all ages who are constipated, bilious, feverish, tongue-coated, or full of cold, are plainly printed on the bottle. Children love this delicious laxative.

Kingston and Vicinity

Organized An Orchestra.
A great deal of credit is due to Mrs. W. M. Campbell for organizing the orchestra which plays at the sessions of Sydenham Street Methodist bible school every Sunday afternoon.

To Instruct Them About Ireland.
Canon Fitzgerald, of Kingston, will give his illustrated lectures on "Ireland" in the Parish Hall, Carrying Place, Tuesday evening, November 4th.

After Bicycle Thieves.
The police are after the boys who are stealing bicycles. During the past few weeks the police have been notified that a number of machines have been taken.

Students Will Attend Reception.
A large number of the students in attendance at Queen's University will attend a reception in the lecture hall of Sydenham Street Methodist church on Monday evening.

The Coming Municipal Election.
The coming municipal election campaign should be a hot one, if all the rumours heard on the street are true. There are several sections of the citizens who feel that there should be a change in the council.

Clock On Job Again.
The clock on Grant Hall at the University is going again. The large registration in Science has doubtless proved to be of value, and a man was found to put the old "ticker" in working shape again.

Located His Bicycle.
The Alfred street resident, who had his bicycle stolen from his house on Thursday night and recovered it. The bicycle was found by a Whig employee and then turned over to the police.

Leaving For Europe.
Thomas A. Low, ex-M.P., for South Renfrew, has left upon a trip to Europe. Mr. Low, is head of three of Renfrew's principal industries, and he crosses the Atlantic for the promotion of business. He will be away for about a month.

For Fall and Winter.
Prevost Brock street has a great assortment of Ready Made Clothing in suits and overcoats and a splendid assortment of Gents Furnishings, his order clothing department was never better assorted at extremely low prices.

James T. Sutherland Home Soon.
It is understood that Capt. James T. Sutherland will return from overseas in the course of a couple of weeks. The hockey enthusiasts are hoping that he will be prime mover in getting the old Frontenacs re-organized again.

Col. A. P. Deroche Resigns.
Col. A. P. Deroche, Director General of Engineer services in Canada, who has resigned his commission in the Royal Canadian Engineers, to take the position of general manager for the firm of Bate McMahon Company in Ottawa, is an old Napanee boy, the younger son of the late H. M. Deroche, K.C. He attended the Napanee Collegiate Institute and graduated from the Royal Military College, Kingston, in 1903, later on taking a position in the Militia Department at Ottawa.

To Help Along The Loan.
A meeting of the council of the Board of Trade has been called for Monday afternoon to meet the Victoria Loan canvassers when plans will be discussed for the vigorous prosecution of the campaign to bring Kingston up on the 1st of cities.

Wants Permanent Office.
The principal of the Theological College at the University seems to be having a hard time to get a permanent office in which to do his work. He is at present housed in the old office of the Educational Faculty, and is living in hopes of it being made his permanent home.

Patching Won't Do.
Men are still working on Ontario street, trying to make a good job of the work done in an hour by Aid, Graham's men on the occasion of the visit of the Prince of Wales. The street is sure in a bad shape, and the amount of the large amount of traffic passing over it, something should be done, besides mere patching up.

A Neat Reply.
In reply to the letter of protest sent by E. Warburton, local secretary of the G. W. V. A. regarding soldier's the provincial secretary of voting, the organization replied that fitting punishment had been meted out to those who were responsible, referring no doubt to the defeat of the Hearst Government.

What Will Be Done?
Many Methodists are wondering what the officials of Brock street church intend to do with the church upon the congregation of Queen street church return to their new building. According to the present plans, it is understood that the church will be closed and the members of the congregation will go to Queen and Sydenham street churches.

A St. Andrew's Banquet.
A meeting of the executive of St. Andrew's Society was held on Friday afternoon, in the office of the honorary secretary, James Stewart. It was decided to hold the annual meeting of the society on November 7th. The executive recommends that a banquet be held this year and the date selected for the event is Friday, November 28th. Mr. Stewart will look after the arrangements.

Was It Indian Summer?
On Friday afternoon the weather was so mild that many people thought that summer had returned. Many citizens, who had been wearing their spring and fall coats for some time, left them at home. Many farmers are hoping that the mild weather will continue as the rainy weather during the past week has delayed the plowing.

Drop In Meat Prices.
Kingston housewives, who are greatly interested in the cost of living and are alive to every opportunity of reducing it, should keep careful note of the prices quoted in Whig advertisements. For instance, in Fisher's Meat market news on Friday evening, shoulder steaks were down to 25 cents a pound and stewing cuts to 17 cents a pound.

'Twas Pay Day.
Friday was pay-day for the R.C.H. A. stationed in this district, and a large parade lined up outside the Bank of Montreal, (B.N.A.) to cash their cheques. They were dismissed for the remainder of the day, it being Halloween, and a holiday in military circles.

Directors Appointed.
At an organization meeting of the Casualties Reed and Rattan Company, which in the City Hall on Thursday evening, a board of directors was formed, consisting of R. F. Elliott, Lieut.-Col. R. Crocker, Captain W. H. Smith, H. C. Nickle, and H. C. Richardson. The company expects to be in a position to commence operations at an early date.

Oddfellows Athletic Club.
The independent Order of Oddfellows is considering forming an athletic club as there is admirable material among the membership. The initiative will be taken by Cataract Lodge No. 10, the largest in the city, the membership being over five hundred. William Fitzgerald, the sitting N. G., is a strong advocate of an active sports committee.

Recognized By Prince.
Nursing sister Mabel A. Bonter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Randall Bonter, Carrying Place, had the honor of being recognized by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, here on Saturday last. As the nursing sister stepped up to the platform arranged for the Prince and his staff, she shook hands with him and he remarked, "Miss Bonter the last time we met was at 'Bonn.'"

Prisoners Are Released.
The two prisoners, who it was stated, had been held at Portsmouth penitentiary after their discharge papers were made out and they were about to be freed, have been released. Prison officials say the two convicts were not held over their time limit because of strenuous language they had used, but because arrangements had not been made for their deportation. Both men have now been deported.

Deer Hunting.
Every hunter, whether a resident in Ontario or not, must take out a license before he can go after deer. Non-residents licenses for deer and moose are $25, while resident licenses are $3 for deer and $5 for moose. Deer season opens November 1st and closes November 20th. This year the Government has decided that the deer hunters will have to go back to the old rule of one hunter, one deer.

Will He Resign?
It is said that Major A. W. Gray, who was elected member of the Legislature in Leeds, refused a Dominion Government position in the expectation that the Hearst Government would be returned to power and that he would be chosen as Commissioner of Highways. Now that the Government has been defeated, word comes from Westport that Major Gray may resign and take the Ottawa post.

The Value Of The Home
The man who can afford to own a home—and the average man of reasonable earning capacity can—should make it his first concern to solve the problem. He will be aided in this task by studying the real estate offerings closely and investigating those which impress him favorably. He will thus be serving himself, his family and his city. To every such man, we would say "Get a home to rally around."
