Church on Friday. Cushendall, Nov. 1 .- The consecration of St. James' church, Pittsburg, by Bishop Bidwell, took place on Tuesday last. Oct. 28th, in the presence of a fairly large congregation. Besides the biship there were present the rector, Rev. W. J. Gratton, Rev. Dean Starr, of Kingston; Rev. J. O. Crisp, of Portsmouth, and Rural Dean A. O. Cooke, rector of Barriefield, and Rev. J. W. Jones. secretary of the diocese. In spite of the fact that the morning was stormy a goodly number of people attended and listened attentively to a very 70c helpful discourse by the bishop. Mrs. Gratton presided at the organ. After the service all present sat down to a very substantial luncheon provided by members of the congregation, to which tribute was paid afthe visiting clergy

Purest Music In the World. The song which Japanese workmen sing when raising the rooftree of a new building ranks with the purest music in the world, according to Henry Eichman, a Boston composer, who is spending a year in Japan studying Oriental music. He said in Tokio: "The Orientals have evolved by the process of elimination a perfeet music. If we could think as Orientals think we would realise the absolute simplicity and perfection of art life." As he goes about Japan he takes notes on the sound of temple bells, with their beautiful over-
