APPEAL TO THE FARMERS

TO SUBSCRIBE LIBERALLY TO THE VICTORY LOAN.

A Letter Issued by J. J. Morrison, Secretary of the United Farmers of Ontario.

The secretary of the United Farmers of Ontario has issued the following appeal to the farmers for subscriptions to the Victory Loan upon the success of which depends ready market and good prices for farm produce of every kind.

The new leader of the Farmers' party, E. C. Drury, has also sent out a letter, signed by himself, endorsing the loan.

Toronto, October 25th, 1919.

To the Farmers of Ontario. The Victory Loan, 1919, is of vital interest to the farmers of the Province of Ontario. This will be readily recognized when it is realized that of the total proceeds of the 1918 loan over $200,000,000, or 34 per cent. of the loan, was advanced to Great Britain and her allies for the purchase of Canadian wheat and other food-stuffs.

If the farmers of the country are to receive good prices, with a ready market for their products, it is all important that there should be an over-subscription. Then in addition there is the fact that the loan affords a good investment—almost double the rate of interest obtainable at any of the banks on deposits, with the whole of Canada as security.

I would like to commend the loan in the strongest possible way to the farmers of Ontario, and hope from the rural districts a large volume of subscriptions will be forthcoming.

Yours for the Victory Loan, 1919, and prosperity.
THE UNITED FARMERS OF ONTARIO
Per J. J. Morrison, Secretary.

Theatrical

At the Grand.
Tonight will be the last performance of the splendid programme now running at the Grand. Tom Mix, the versatile Fox star, in "The Coming of the Law," a story of a tenderfoot that comes west to manage a newspaper, and incidentally to clean up a bunch of rustlers, who have shown a fondness for the cattle on the ranch left him by his father. When Mix starts something the audience sits up straight in their seats, and in this picture he most certainly does start things moving. Another remarkable feature picture is "The Ordeal of Rosetta," with Alice Brady in the starring role. This picture is given a surprising twist towards the end that adds greatly to the charming acting of the star. This bill is completed by an act of local vaudeville that has made a decided hit and will be seen for tonight only.

For the first part of next week the Grand presents George Walsh in his latest Fox production, "Luck and Pluck." In this picture Walsh plays the part of a master crook, who, for the sake of a girl lands on the Hun agents with both feet. The play contains speed, pep, thrills, risks and develops a lively romance. There will be another big feature picture and comedies and other reels; also an act of most enjoyable vaudeville.—Advt.

At Griffin's.
Tonight will be the last opportunity to see Jack Pickford, in "The Spirit of '17," his latest picture, which has been attracting so much attention at Griffin's, during the past two days.

The story deals with a patriotic young America who, together with several veterans of the Civil War rescues the whole township from an impending disaster and the perils of a strike at the mines. "The Spirit of '17" furnishes clever young Jack Pickford with a screen success which brings out his very best work. A splendid cast, and excellent direction have added their full quota of success to Mr. Pickford's newest picture. No person should miss seeing this excellent picture, and the balance of our splendid programme, which includes special Vod-a-Vit pictures, a novelty in Kingston, and has proven an instantaneous success. See this programme.—Advt.

At The Strand.
To-night will be the last time that theatre goers of Kingston will have of seeing Harold Lockwood in "Shadows of Suspicion" at the Strand Theatre. This is the last picture Mr. Lockwood made and from an entertaining stand point in his best.

For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday we have secured by special request of hundreds of patrons, a return engagement of Anita Stewart in "A Midnight Romance," a beautiful story of a young princess who comes to America to be rid of all the "frills" of Royalty, and to find real honest to goodness romance, assuming the position of a hotel maid at one of the popular Sea Shore resorts, in order to find it.

The added feature will be "Through The Tolls" starring Monte Love, a gripping story, told in a fascinating manner and presenting Mr. Love in a dual role. It is not over-stating the facts to declare that this is one of the most gripping and intensely interesting that has been issued in a long time and all those people who are looking for throbbing drama and intense situations are cordially invited to see this production.

A new Big "V" Comedy in two reels also a late issue of the Pathe review will be shown.—Advt.

New Winchester Industry.
The village of Winchester has a new industry in its selection as the site of a plant for the treating of milk to be erected by the Guaranteed Pure Milk Co., Montreal. Several acres have been purchased near the C.P.R. station for the erection of the plant.

Prince's Acknowledgment.
The Leicester Lodge No. 33, Sons of England, have received a letter of acknowledgment for the address presented by them to H.R.H. Prince of Wales on the occasion of his recent visit to Kingston. In his Highness thanks them for the address and expresses the hope of being in the city at some future date.

MARRIED IN MISSOURI

Nuptials of Miss Alice H. Donihoe and John H. Bell.

The marriage took place in St. Michael's Church, at Fredericktown, Missouri, on October 22nd, of Miss Alice Helene Donihoe and John H. Bell. Miss Donihoe was superintendent of nurses at the Hotel Dieu, about six years ago, and is well-known in Kingston. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McCartney, Mrs. I. J. Mateer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, while the bride's younger sister, Miss Anna C. Donihoe was maid of honor.

The bride's gown was a Lucille model of kitten's ear satin. The bodice and court train were heavily embroidered in seed pearls. The girdle was of cloth of silver. The Juliet cap effect was carried out in the veil and the lustrous hair had a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a magnificent shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Bell has been a resident of Fredericktown for about a year, going there to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mateer. Mr. Mateer is the general manager of the Missouri Coal Company and Mr. Bell, whose former home was in San Antonio, has been connected in an executive capacity with the company for the past three years. Mrs. Bell who also is very popular and has endeavored to her all she has met though her unusual interest in others. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Donihoe of Cornwall, Ont.

Home Again.
After a preaching tour in many parts of Central Ontario, Evangelist Richard Irving is home again, and will speak in Gospel Hall, new Orange building, Sunday evening, at seven o'clock. Lovers of the old-fashioned Bible will enjoy him.

Come early to-night. Shirts worth $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50 for $1.49. Livingstons.

A special meeting of the Board of Works, which was called for Friday afternoon, did not materialize, as only Aldermen Graham, Patterson and Norris put in an appearance.

Mrs. Leach and children, who reside on Harris street, are leaving next week for Cobourg to rejoin Lieut. S. H. Leach.

St. Mark's Guild, Barriefield, will hold their annual bazaar on Nov. 12, in Barriefield Hall.

Hear Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, St. George's Hall, Tuesday, 8 p.m.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Capt. Harry Dunlop, M.C., C.A.M.C., killed in action near Valenciennes, Nov. 2nd, 1918. Buried in Auboy Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of our loving brother, Richard Clifford Willis, who departed this life Nov. 2nd, 1918.

Perfect be thy rest, dear Clifford, 'Tis sweet to breath thy name; In life we loved you very dear, In death we do the same.

Oh, the sadness of that hour, When the sad news reached our home, That the spirit of our loved one, To another world had flown.

But, dear Clifford, we think of you, As a shining angel bright, Rejoice in Jesus, In that home where all is light.

More and more each day we miss you, Friends may think the wound is healed, But they little know the sorrow That lies within our hearts concealed.

IN MEMORIAM.

In fond and loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. J. Kennedy, who departed this life, Nov. 1st, 1909.

It is not the tears at the moment shed, That tell how beloved is the soul that is fled, But the tears through many a long day weep, And sad remembrance fondly kept.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our beloved mother, Mrs. Alice Willis, Morton.

Two years has passed since that sad day, When mother dear was called away; God took her home, it was His will, But in our hearts, she breath still.

Yes, dear mother, though we miss thee, More than e'er the tongue can tell, We would never call you back here, We know that all is well.

We are willing, heavenly Father, We can trust her in Thy care, For we soon will end our journey, Then we'll meet her there.

Then, dear Father, may we labor, Live that when our life is over, We may all go home to mother, On the happy, golden shore.
