Service at Queen's.
Principal W. S. Dyde, of Queen's Theological College, was the speaker at the service held in Convocation Hall on Sunday afternoon, and he delivered a most inspiring address in his appeal to follow the leadership of Jesus Christ. He spoke of the service in brotherhood, and told how it could be carried out in the classroom, on the campus, on the street, and in the boarding house.

Held Memorial Service.
"Our Blessed Dead" was the subject of Rev. T. W. Savary's sermon at St. James' church on Sunday morning. At the close of the sermon the members of the congregation stood while the rector read the names of members of the congregation who had passed away during the year. The choir rendered an appropriate anthem. The rector's text was "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

KEELERVILLE BUDGET
James Boal Injured By a Kick from A Horse.
Keelerville, Oct. 30.—Quite a number from here attended the auction sale at P. W. Ball's, Battersea, yesterday. Farmers are busy plowing and getting in roofing.

James Boal received a bad kick on the knee from a horse while drawing milk to the cheese factory. He is improving nicely.

Mrs. David Sleeth, Mrs. J. E. Anglin and William Dixon have all been on the sick list. Rosa Townsend and her mother of Joyceville were at John Roblin's Sunday. Miss Leta McRoy returned home today after a month's visit with her sister at Rochester, N.Y. Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon motored to Kingston yesterday. J. E. Anglin visited at Warkworth, Northumberland Co., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sleeth, Douglas Anglin and J. E. Anglin motored to the city yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tighe went to the city yesterday in their new car.

James Moore and family who went west last spring, are expected back again in a few days. The west did not appeal to them to like to live there permanently. Charles Yaman is working for Charles Anglin. Many from here went to see the Prince last Saturday in Kingston. Miss Thomas, teacher, spent Sunday at her home, Sydenham.

The bean social at Battersea last week was well patronized from here and all enjoyed the entertainment. Since the elections the villagers are taking their hats off to the farmers.

Miss Bernice Sutherland is at Edward Sleeth's. Mrs. Edward Andrews and son John, visited at David Sleeth's on Tuesday. John Henry, of Wilmar, was at John Roblin's recently. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boal and family all at James Boal's recently. C. Lake of Battersea was here on business today.

Robert Sleeth has done a fine lot of ditching this fall which will add greatly to his farm. The water of Battersea intends moving on Ezra Baxter's farm, having bought it recently.

FARMERS DRIVE TO MAINLAND
Owing to Bad Winter Crossing Between City and Island.
Wolfe Island, Nov. 1.—Mrs. John Abbott, who has been under the doctor's care at the General Hospital, Kingston, has returned home much improved in health. The many friends of James McAllister, Sr., who has his leg broken some time ago, are pleased to know that he is able to sit up and is doing nicely. Born unto Mr. and Mrs. S. Hogan a son, Dan Lacey has gone to Watertown, N.Y., to visit relatives.

The farmers are plowing since the recent rains. The cheese factories are all closing down owing to the shortage of milk. George and Robert McAllister, Saskatchewan, are visiting relatives here. The farmer's club purchased a car load of coarse and fine salt in barrels and distributed it amongst the farmers at large.

The bans of marriage are published between Arthur Cough and Vera Moran. Dr. George Hanley, Kingston, who attended the medical school of the islanders in the absence of our local doctor, made many friends while here.

A number of farmers have sold their farms and gone to the main shores owing to the bad crossing between Kingston and the island last winter.

Milk Up in Arrapricor.
Arrapricor, Nov. 3.—A cent rise in the price of milk has taken place here. Milk is now worth 14 cents a quart as compared with the old price, 12 cents. Although the increase has caused considerable comment among the housewives, milk distributors declare that it is necessary as the price of feed for the cows, and the poor yield of milk this year, renders no other way out of the difficulty possible.

Elsher's Smile.
Elsher—he's our little man—
Allows there ain't no better plan
Of circumventin' woes and cares
Than smilin' when y' come downstairs.
Elsher smiles and for you know
The rest of it is smilin', so
Ketchin'-like it is! My law
It fits from him to me an' maw;
I've seen it set the nup
A-waggin' fore the sun was up!
Then bimby, as likely as not,
Some men will pass that's mebbe got
A mortgage that his crops can't fetch.
But like enough that man will ketch
Elsher's smile an' drop his frown
An' tote the smile away to town,
An' peddle it where, bein' wuss.
The people need it more than us!
An' then the feller brings it back
At night along the back-urds track,
An' scatters it on either side.
The country road, both far an' wide,
Until, by time when we get in
From work, the smile is back again!
Back hom agin an' seems to bless
Elsher for his cheerfulness.
"Because you smiled," it seems to say,
"The world has a holiday."
—John D. Wells.
