R.M.C. DEFEATS M'GILL

IN INTERCOLLEGIATE RUGBY MATCH BY 10 TO 0.

The Cadets Made Two Touches in the Second Half on Brilliant Run—K.C.I. Defeats the R.M.C. Juniors. In what undoubtedly was the finest game of rugby played in the city this season, the Royal Military College Intermediate team, met and defeated McGill Intermediate on Saturday afternoon by 10 to 0. Both teams were in the pink of condition, with the cadet team a trifle superior in all round weight. Full speed was kept up in the first two periods of the game and no score resulted from either side. In speed, tackling and passing both teams were excellent, but some of the R.M.C. work called forth great applause from the packed stands and bleachers.

Perhaps the most noticed player on the gridiron was Dunbar of the Cadets, who played a great game. Here, there and everywhere he was always in just the right place to stop McGill from getting anywhere. He did some wonderful tackling, and his passing and running were superb. He is undoubtedly the mainstay of the Cadet team, and he put a lot of confidence in the other players on his side.

Russell, also of the Cadets, played a fine game at half back, and more than one McGill man had reason to feel his weight. He made several magnificent runs. The McGill team also played a very fine game, their men being in good form. They had some very good combination work and their passing was fine. Their star was Kearns, who played centre half. It was due to him to no small extent that the Cadets did not do more scoring, and he in his turn very nearly scored several times.

The game was clean all through and not one penalty was given. The referee, Jack Williams, was delighted with the game which he refereed in a very fair manner. The first two quarters were without any score whatever, but the third period saw developments along this line, R.M.C. making the first points in the game. Dunbar, flying wing, par excellence, broke through the McGill scrum. He passed at least six men, all of whom tried but failed to throw him and he placed the pig-skin between the bars. The convert did not materialize, and the period closed without any further score.

The next and last score was made by Russell, half back for the soldier team, and is worthy of special mention.

G.W.V.A. DEFEATS THE 21ST

IN A SOCCER GAME BY THREE GOALS TO TWO.

The Unexpected Happened on Saturday—The R.C.A. Were Unable to Meet the Shipbuilders. "Alls well that ends well," said the friends of the G.W.V.A. soccer team on Saturday, after the 21st was beaten in a very fast game at the cricket field by a score of 3 to 2. It was unexpected that happened, but the honors were well won. Partis scored the first goal by a penalty kick which was very cleverly carried out by the tactician Tibbits who countered McLeish's little game, and brought forth applause. It was a very pretty piece of work. No more goals were scored in the first half, but in the second Tibbits scored and he was followed by Lively and Heap for the 21st making a tie, which was broken by the lead this secured was held to the close, the game ending 3 to 2. The line-up was:

Batty	Goal	G.W.V.A.

K.C.I. Defeat R.M.C. II

The Collegiate Institute met and defeated the Royal Military College in a junior intercollegiate game of rugby on Saturday by 14 to 9. The game was played at the R.M.C. grounds and the field was very muddy. The result was a win for the Collegiate Institute and the youngsters deserved their victory. It was almost laughable at times to see the youngsters tackle the big cadet players. The K.C.I. had it over the cadets in tackling and passing work. The soldier team was not in good condition owing to many of its best players being taken as spares for the big game at the Athletic grounds. Excellent work was done by F. Morris of the K.C.I. team, who scored two of the touch-downs for his team. The second one he scored was a dandy. Morris zigzagged throughout the whole R.M.C. team and scored. The other touch-down for the K.C.I. was scored by little R. Carr-Harris, and a nice display of running could not have been wished for. The cadets played a fair game, but lacked combination. McDonald, the R.M.C. quarter, played an excellent game. The teams lined up as follows:

R.M.C.	Position	R.M.C.
Dryman	flying wing	R.M.C.
Howard	halves	R.M.C.
Timmerman	halves	R.M.C.
Jones	quarter	R.M.C.

Carson	scrummage	R.M.C.
F. MacDonald	scrummage	R.M.C.
Yampolski	scrummage	R.M.C.
Wilson	inside wings	R.M.C.
Hudson	inside wings	R.M.C.
Gimblett	middle wings	R.M.C.
Trinc	middle wings	R.M.C.
R. Carr-Harris	middle wings	R.M.C.
Williams	middle wings	R.M.C.
Johnson	outside wings	R.M.C.
McMurtrey	outside wings	R.M.C.

Belmont Park Not Offered.
Belmont is not for sale, and the control of the Winchester Racing Association will remain in the hands of August Belmont and his associates. This announcement has been made by Mr. Belmont, the principal stockholder, in denial of persistent reports that Jos. E. Widener of Philadelphia had obtained an option on the course and was ready to close the deal.

"There is no chance whatsoever that I will sell my stock," said Mr. Belmont. "My interest in Belmont Park is not for sale, and I don't believe the other stockholders will sell their interest in the place."
Spratt To Coach Lindsay.
The Lindsay Midgets have organized for the coming season and will have a strong junior team on the ice. A number of last year's players are on hand, besides some new material. It is expected that Peter Spratt will coach the boys and Alf Gamble will be trainer. The management includes the following gentlemen: C. M. Squier, R. Butler, F. A. Martin, P. Carew, Ed. C. Armstrong.

Guarded intimations that Walter Maranville of the Boston Braves will be found playing shortstop for the New York Giants next season lead to the conclusion that the off-reported transfer of Rogers Hornsby to the Giants is not to be. Maranville is quoted as saying it is his ambition to play with the Giants.

STILL TALKING ABOUT CROOKED WORLD SERIES

A Chicago sporting paper is authority for the statement that seven members of the White Sox helped in the downfall of their Red team, throwing the games to the Sox. The referee is the publication which states that Claude Williams thru the agency of a friend of his wife planted $2,000 on the Sox chances. The story bears a nasty tinge and also involves Eddie Cicotte.

Charles Comiskey offered $10,000 for information that would lead to the truth or denial of these stories. Sanborn and Dryden, two Chicago baseball writers, declared there was something amiss with the White Sox play in the series. The Referee stated that the night before Williams pitched the game that lost the series, he was in a maudlin condition in a Chicago jail.

British Columbia is Opposed.

That there is a general objection in amateur circles to the indiscriminate use of the whitewash brush is plainly obvious. Dave Leith of Vancouver, who was elected Vice-President at the recent A.A.U. of C. meeting, commenting on the matter, remarks: "British Columbia amateur officials, I believe I am safe in saying, will most certainly offer opposition to the action of the Saskatchewan and Alberta unions in granting reinstatements to out-and-out professionals, which, in my opinion, is the wholly unwarranted and not in the interests of amateur athletics, and is a flagrant violation of the spirit of the resolution passed by the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada at the Ottawa convention." said Mr. Leith.

"Just what action the governing body will take I am not prepared to say, but steps must be taken at once to put an end to the promiscuous reinstatement of professionals whose present status does not merit consideration."
Official Action on Freak Deliveries.
President Ben Johnson of the American League has requested August Hermann, Chairman of the National Commission, and John A. Heydler, President of the National League, to call a joint meeting of the Rules Committee of the two leagues to take action in regard to the abolition of the "spit ball," the "shine ball" and other freak pitching deliveries.

President Johnson said these deliveries should be legislated out of the major leagues. He also has several suggestions to make on the scoring rules.
Clarence Rowland, commenting on the feature plays of the World's series, says the two that stand out most came in the first game. One was Schalk's play at the plate, when he took a throw from the outfield and dove headfirst into the runner, tagging him out. The other was Roush's catch of Leibold's long drive.

Though Jack Dunn, trained his Baltimore Orioles at home so well last spring that they won the 1914 pennant in the International League, he's going to take them farther south next spring, and a ready hand his club secretary scouting around in Dixie for a suitable camp.
