A Lively Council Meeting.
A lively time is expected at the meeting of the city council on Monday next. The Utilities Commission and the housing situation will be under discussion.

To Unveil a Tablet.
A tablet in memory of thirteen members of Cooke's Presbyterian church who fell during the war is to be unveiled on Sunday evening by Lieut.-Col. Alexander Gordon.

Paint Up For Christmas.
The Christmas cleaning-up season is drawing near. H. Rowley, 340 Barris street, advertises in the Whig that he is ready to give estimates on all kinds of house painting and paper hanging.

To Present Certificates.
Major-General Victor Williams will be in Peterboro on Armistice Day and will present memorial certificates given by the Peterboro Board of Trade to the next-of-kin of those who lost their lives in the great war.

Meat Prices Down.
The price of meat in Kingston seems to be taking a drop. On Friday Quick's Western Meat Market had stowing beef advertised at 15 cents a pound, and shoulder and pot roasts at 20 cents a pound.

A Book on Birds.
The secretary of the Kingston branch of the G.W.V.A. is in receipt of a handsome bird book, the work of R. A. Marzoni, of Pleasant town, Ontario. This book is illustrated by bird photographs specially taken by the author.

Out in the Cold.
On Thursday evening a baby carriage was left standing outside the Trades and Labor Hall for about three hours without a guardian. It evidently belonged to someone attending a religious service in one of the rooms.

Attending a Congress.
F. W. Clayton, superintendent of the Prudential Insurance Co., Kingston, is in Peterboro attending an insurance congress of the company's staff in Eastern Ontario and Midland district. Special lectures are being delivered in the art of solicitation, etc.

For Fall and Winter.
Ernest Brock street has a great assortment of Ready Made Clothing in suits and overcoats and a splendid assortment of Gents Furnishings, his order clothing department was never better assorted at extremely low prices.

A Phonograph Repair Station.
Owners of gramophones and phonographs are sometimes at a loss as to where broken parts can be replaced and repairs done. A look at the Whig's advertising columns will make known the fact that this kind of work is done quickly and modestly.

Two Games Saturday.
In the soccer league on Saturday two games will be played. At 2 p.m. the R.C.A. will go up against the 21st Battalion, and following this the Shipbuilders will take on the Great War Veterans. Both games will be played at the cricket field.

Defeated the R.C.H.A.
In the game of indoor baseball at the armories on Thursday night the 14th P.W.O. Rifles team defeated the R.C.H.A. by a score of 25 to 17. Quite a large crowd was out to see the game, and much interest is being manifested in the series.

Welcomed the Prince.
The Toronto Globe says that Premier-elect Drury may include in the "people's government" one conservative and one liberal. W. F. Nickle, until recently M.P. for Kingston, and formerly a member of the local House, was mentioned as the Conservative to be taken in. Mr. Nickle when spoken to said: "Another job for me and without my knowledge about it! What place am I slated for? How they do use one's name these days without one's knowledge!"

Hubbell—McDonagh Marriage.
The marriage of Col. Ernest Wilson Hubbell, D.L.S., C.E., chief inspector of survey to Mrs. Madge H. McDonagh, widow of the late John A. McDonagh, of Albany, N.Y., took place on Wednesday in the Archbishop's Palace, Ottawa.

Monday Evening's Concert.
The joint recital which will be given at City Hall next Monday evening by Charlotte Bergh, coloratura soprano; Edna Wheeler Ballard, harpist; and Tracy Jay Kingman, baritone, will be one of the biggest musical treats that has ever been offered in Kingston. Miss Bergh will sing "Caro Nome" from the opera, "Rigoletto," by Verdi. It was her prize offering of this aria that won her the prize offered by the Lakeview Musical Society of Chicago, Ill., in competition with one hundred other singers. At the end of the aria Miss Bergh sings an E in Alt (above high C). She will also sing several other beautiful numbers, including the "Last Rose of Summer." Edna Wheeler Ballard will play some very fine arrangements of the Spring Song by Mendelssohn and the Spring Song by Grieg. Tracy Jay Kingman will sing some very beautiful English ballads and a duet with Miss Bergh to herald accompaniment.

IN MARINE CIRCLES.

Vessels Will have to be Laid Up Owing to Shortage of Coal.
It is quite a number of vessels here that is slated to be laid up much earlier than usual owing to the shortage of coal. The barge Brookdale, which has been unloading coal at the Grove Inn, will be laid up in Kingston. The vessel is now being dismantled at Crawford's wharf, and will afterwards be taken below Cataract wharf.

The steamer City of Ottawa arrived in Kingston Thursday night and cleared for Montreal Friday noon with package freight from Toronto. The steamer Seagull cleared Friday morning for Hamilton to load freight for Montreal.

The steamer Brockville arrived with a load of canned goods from Picton. The steamer Buena Vista tied up at Swift's wharf with a load of fruit from the points.

The Government steamer Concretia is in port taking on coal.

France has authorized the wearing of the interallied war medal by soldiers, sailors and nurses.
