KINGSTON CURLING CLUB

HELD ITS ANNUAL MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

H. Angrove Elected President and E. C. Gildersleeve Honorary Secretary—T. M. Asselstine Retires From Latter Position.

The annual business meeting of the Kingston Curling Club was held Monday night in the rink and a very large attendance of members was present.

The report of the executive committee showed a total deficit of just over $700, due to the removal into present.

new quarters last winter, and the cost of furniture etc. It was decided to make an assessment of $5 each on all last year's members who are still in the club, the money to take the form of one renovation bond, redeemable each spring. This, it was stated, would do away with the proposed raising of the members dues from $15 to $18.

Other matters taken up by the committee were, changes in the points competitions. In future, all winners of silver spoons will be handicapped one point for each spoon won. This would make competition more keen. With regard to the dou-
