"IN THE PUBLIC EYE"

OUR eyes are the school teachers of our brain. They must help to interpret the messages of our other senses. Between seventy and eighty per cent. of the children who do not progress properly in their studies at school are backward because of deficient eye-sight. Do not send your child to school with such impaired vision equipment. Let us examine into the cause and make the proper glasses to correct his failing.

WHIG AND THE STUDENTS

LETTERS THAT HAVE PASSED REGARDING STREET RUSH.

Alma Mater Society Resents Insinuations—The Whig Claims That Its Article Did Not Exaggerate.

A letter addressed to the Whig by the secretary of Queen's Alma Mater Society, in regard to the late students' rush, was received and duly answered. The Whig had no idea that the society wished this communication to be published as a letter to the editor, but regarded it simply as a private communication. It was only after the meeting of the society on Saturday night that we learned that the letter was for publication. We are accordingly printing it to-day along with our reply to same. The letters follow:

Queen's University, Kingston, Ont.
(To the Editor): It seems to be a regrettable fact that when an event occurs which is liable to lead to ill-feeling between the students of Queen's University and the resident citizens of Kingston, that some one is always keen and eager to promote that ill-feeling with biased, exaggerated and unfortunate accounts of what happened. I refer to your article of Nov. 1st. under the heading "Rowdiness of Students."

While the Queen's Alma Mater Society is not particularly in sympathy with any students who happened to be involved in the fracas in question, it resents strongly the unjust insinuations of the said article against the student body, and has authorized me to write this letter to that effect.

The fact that the students did get together, went into several of the theatres, gave their yells and left, doing no damage at all, shows that a little tact would have avoided the situation which developed later. A most unfortunate circumstance, and one which the Whig for some reason or other chose to ignore, was that a large number of civilian youths who hang around the streets just waiting for something unusual to happen, joined in. Over two-thirds of the crowd outside the Grand were such. They counted on being overlooked by the papers afterward. That is part of their game. A great opportunity to throw a few stones.

The description of the "battlefield" made good lurid copy, but wandered far from the truth. Any of the spectators interviewed denied there being pools of blood or that the paintings on the wall were unrecognizable.

While the student body as a whole are not especially in sympathy with the students who may have been involved, neither does it pretend to understand the motive that prompted the Whig article.

I am sir,
Sincerely yours,
—G. D. MALLORY, Sec. A.M.S.

Kingston, Nov. 10th, 1919.
Mr. G. D. Mallory,
Secretary, Alma Mater Society,
Queen's University, City.

Dear Sir: This will acknowledge receipt of your favor which reached us late on Thursday, and a reply to which was delayed while we sought further verification of the statements published in the article complained of. This investigation shows that the Whig did not exaggerate the facts; that the article as written and printed was a fair and impartial report of the event.

These being the facts, it seems to us an amazing thing, to say the least, that the Alma Mater Society should seek to justify such conduct on the part of certain students. Rather, the good name of the city and the university would be strengthened by a condemnation of the spirit of rowdiness which manifested itself on the streets of Kingston on the evening of Oct. 31st.

The Whig has to-day, as it has always had, nothing but the kindest of feelings towards Queen's University and its students. It has never sought, nor does it wish now to seek, to foment a "town and gown" feud, but it must as a newspaper maintain its right to present the news to its readers. If, therefore, it should allow itself to be deterred from publishing certain news because a particular person or group of persons objected to it, then the paper would have surrendered its independence.

INDIGESTION CAN'T STAY

Stomach Pain, Sourness, Gases, and Acidity ended with "Pape's Diapepsin"

Out-of-order stomachs feel fine at once! When meals don't fit and you belch gas, acids and undigested food. When you feel indigestion pain, lumps of distress in stomach, heart-burn or headache. Here is instant relief.

Just as soon as you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin all the dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach distress caused by acidity will end. These pleasant, harmless tablets of Pape's Diapepsin always put sick, upset, acid stomachs in order at once and they cost so little at drug stores.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head and ear noises or are growing hard of hearing go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmitin (double strength), and add to it ½ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

and jeopardized its usefulness to the community it sought to serve.

Yours very truly,
—LEMAN A. GUILD,
Managing Director.

VETERANS MET EVERYWHERE

PLACED IN POSITIONS BY THE DEPARTMENT OF S.C.I.

What One Veteran Reported About Kingston—He Got Placed Driving a Car Here.

If any there be who cast doubt upon the value of eastern Canada's contribution in manpower to the great war, a glance at the number of veterans who may have returned for placement and of those who wear the badge of service throughout every province must bring speedy reassurance.

As conductors on the trains; in the offices of hotels; on the station platforms; in the stores—everywhere; one meets the men who helped finish the war, and following closely along by the steady stream of men back home, are the activities of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment.

As the men have drifted in, offices of the department have been set up, to look after their needs, and a very present help in time of such need have often proved, as one man told me.

He enlisted from one of the larger cities, having the usual idea that there were no opportunities in the smaller places, but on returning the fancy struck him to move to Kingston, and get into some outdoor industry other than farming. "I had not any notion of applying at an employment office," he said, "in fact, I just thought I would strike out on my own. However I happened to hit the Limestone City, but found things were pretty quiet there. I did manage to land an odd job, but nothing steady, and then someone told me that the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment had an office for information and employment on the market square. Say! I was glad to hear that. I went in, and within a few hours after arrival got placed driving a car.

The story is typical of what is being done all along the route, from Halifax to Vancouver, and the spirit of aptitude in the eastern towns and cities is an inspiration.

THE TRIENNIAL CONVENTION

Of the Young Women's Christian Associations.

There will be a very large representation of the associations at the coming convention in Hamilton from Nov. 13th to 15th. Delegates are coming from Vancouver, Edmonton, Calgary, Regina, Brandon and Winnipeg, as well as from St. John, Halifax, Montreal, Quebec, Sherbrooke, and all centres of Ontario. Fraternal delegates representing all the chief women's organizations of Canada will be present.

The speakers will include: Miss Margaret Slattery of Boston, Miss King of Cleveland, Lady Falconer of Toronto, Dr. Pidgeon of Toronto, Dean Tucker of London.

Through the hospitality of Hamilton, a hundred delegates are being welcomed in the homes of Hamilton. The four big themes of the convention will be ably introduced by well-informed speakers, and it is hoped and expected that the whole conference will take part in discussion and debate.

It is hoped that the dynamic power of the convention will be felt, not only in the association itself, but in the co-operation of the association with every body working for the best growth and development of the nation.

The question of industry, which receives a good place on the programme, is one of the most vital issues in our national life, and the association has a big place to take in developing a spirit of thoughtful understanding of the subject, and of well-judged action in time of crises.

Leadership, again, is one of the most outstanding needs in our national life, and will need every organization which will co-operate in helping to develop it in the growth of the nation. Above all, we, as a growing country have need of world-fellowship, of right relationships and understanding with the people of the world, and the unifying agent in world-fellowship is Jesus Christ.

The associations in assembling themselves together are striving to learn anew the teaching of the Lord and Maker of life, and to receive help and strength to work with Him in making a new world.
