"Oh! What a Pal Was Mary"

Sergeant Guy Empey is managing the "Treat 'Em Rough" basketball team in New York.

In its 46 years of existence the Grand Circuit has paid $12,805,302.92 to the money winners in harness racing.

Mike O'Dowd is to receive $15,000 win, lose or draw, for fighting Mike Gibbons at St. Paul the latter part of this month.

Not a few New York boxing enthusiasts are of the opinion that Eddie Fitzsimons will be the next lightweight champion.

"Babe" Ruth, the home-run king, has been showing Los Angeles fans the longest hits ever seen in the California city.

In a recent ball game in Oklahoma Walter Johnson, the Washington star, struck out 18 batsmen and won his game 3 to 2.

Johnny Griffith, the Akron welterweight, will sail for England Dec. 5, to meet Johnny Basham, the British welterweight champion.

Rev. Earl Blackman, whose cleverness as a boxer has won him the title of "the fighting parson," is going to referee bouts at Kansas City.

The Colgate football team received a guarantee of $800 for the game in which it defeated Princeton, but it cost Colgate over $1,000 to make the trip to Princeton.

New England is to lose its greatest reinman, Walter Cox. The New Hampshire racing pilot is to move his stable to Indiana, where a permanent home will be located.

"Chic" Harley's wonderful all-around work on the Ohio State University football team has led a number of gridiron critics to proclaim him the greatest star of the season.

How long will Fred Fulton be able to withstand Champion Jack Dempsey's wallop if the pair meet next month? It took Dempsey just 15 seconds to put Fred away the last time they met.

Foster Sanford, the Rutgers football coach, doesn't believe in individual gridiron stars for the success of the team. He says, "Give me a team with the right methods and just an average squad of players."

Villar Kyronen, the New York long distance runner, is rapidly recuperating after an attack of pneumonia, which struck him low on the eve of his starting in the ten mile national championship run.

Sam Rumler, of the Salt Lake City team, led the Pacific Coast League in hitting the past season with an average of .362. Sam Crawford, the former Detroit slugger now with Los Angeles, was second with an average of .355.

Hockey Stars With Regins. Some of the players already secured by the Regina hockey club are Dick Irvin, that fast Winnipeg Monarch centre player; Reg. and George Hay, the two wing men of the same team; Harold Bowen, who will be remembered by the stubborn defence games which he played while a member of the Melville Millionaires. Then there are Fred McCullough, Bill Laird, Gresswell, Fred Wilson, "Puss" Train, Fred Barker, Molisky, Jack Campbell and "Stirling" McEililand, a bunch of formidable hockey players who need no introduction to Regina fans.

Coach Foulds is giving his Varsity squad some hard practice and they will go to Montreal on Saturday to give McGill a stiff contest.

Bob Isbister and Ross Craig, of Hamilton, have announced that they are through with active play on the gridiron.

Varsity Changes Tactics

And Expect to Make Things Warm For McGill.

A Toronto dispatch says: There is not going to be any walk-away for McGill against the University of Toronto on Saturday if Varsity can possibly help it. One look at the Blue and White practice this afternoon would convince anybody of that fact. The whole regular squad, all the subs and a flock of other players who have no expectation of making the trip to Montreal were out on the job. The scrubs were there to offer their bit to the coaches, and of coaches there were mobs. Honorary Coach "Bill" Foulds and Assistant Honorary Coach "Pete" Campbell, both former U. of T. quarterbacks, were reinforced by alumni coaches who have hitherto not associated themselves with the team this season. Some of them have not played football for years, but the spirit is there and they are trying to help. For the first time in many seasons there is a display of genuine spirit around the stadium.

All the University of Toronto efforts just now are bent toward overcoming the plays launched by McGill in the game here, when the Red and White bewildered their opponents. The Toronto team does not propose to become bewildered again, but there is always the lurking suspicion that the wily "Shag" will turn loose a lot of new formations with which Toronto are unfamiliar. As one of the alumni coaches said today: "There seems to be no bottom to Shaughnessy's trick box."

The explanation offered by Toronto for their defeat by McGill here was that "Shag" had evolved plays, quite within the rules, that were incapable of being stopped by methods within the rules. There seems to have been a change of heart up at the university and football of the vintage of 1905 has been discarded. There are a lot of things in Canadian football besides two backs and a kick, an occasional criss-cross and an end-run. It took University of Toronto a long time to realize that a lot of clever things may be done without violating football law. That's the tack the team and coaches are taking. Maybe the Blue and White won't win, but there are those of the opinion that a surprise awaits McGill.

Recognition of the O.R.F.U. Toronto Globe: There is very scant recognition of the rights of the O.R.F.U. in the attitude of the M.A.A.A. and McGill teams. The Ontario Union teams undertake heavy expenditure in operating their senior series. Quitting football teams these days is a highly expensive business. For some reason or other the O.R.F.U. senior series does not attract the fans as do the Intercollegiate and Interprovincial fixtures, but there is no gaining that the Ontario senior series sport football. The Canadian governing body of football provides for semi-finals and finals years in advance. O.R.F.U. teams are led to believe that they will be accorded the same privileges as the others, and proceed with their series on that assumption.

It might be possible for the various unions to get an undertaking from their respective teams at the commencement of the season as to whether or not they will compete in the national championship in the event that they qualify. Certainly some consideration is due the Ontario Union, which, with its many teams and several series, does infinitely more for the game than the other organizations.

Women At Olympiad. Women originally were not expected to compete at the Olympiad in Antwerp in 1920, it is said, at the headquarters of the Central Olympic Committee at Lausanne, Switzerland, but the committee announces that women will be welcomed to the Olympiad, and says they will be entered on the same conditions as men. Would Not Allow Pitchers to Bat

The Joint Rules Committee of the Major League is receiving numerous suggestions from players, managers, writers and fans.

The latest suggestion would provide a regular batsman for the pitcher, providing the latter should be a weak hitter. It is proposed to allow a manager before each game to name a certain member of his team who will take the pitcher's turn at bat without removing the latter from the team. Persons who favor this radical move argue that if a manager allows a weak batting pitcher to go to the plate with men on bases, in ten out of eleven cases the runs are not scored.

If a manager sends up a pinch hitter, in two out of three cases the runners are not batted in, and it is pointed out it is almost an even bet that the substitute pitcher will lose the game even if the pinch hitter comes through.

Tourists are Barred by Manitoba League

The reorganization of the Winnipeg Hockey League during the week-end failed to solve the hockey controversy which exists here just now. The league is holding its tight, while the C.A.K. management maintains that they will accommodate only one league at the rink and that it must not be over five teams. The Winnipeg League organized, with the Victorias, Monarchs and Winnipeg comprising the series and drew up a twelve-game schedule which opens December 22 and winds up February 19. The officials hope to secure ice and play as a three-team league.

Value of Good Kicking

The value of good kicking in Canadian rugby was demonstrated in Montreal's victory over Hamilton for the Big Four Championship. The teams were otherwise well matched but the superiority of Jacques, of Montreal, over any kicker the Tigers could produce turned the tide in favor of the M. A. A. team. Montreal deserved the championship as they played the most consistent game of any of the teams. They are a smart, well-drilled team with plenty of snap and dash, and an ideal back division; in fact the all-round work of the Montreal rear guard could hardly be improved upon.
