

Notice to Creditors

In the Estate of Edith Penwarden Deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, that all persons having any claims or demands against the estate of Edith Penwarden, late of the City of Kingston, deceased, who died on or about the 25th of July, 1917, are required to deliver or send by post prepaid to A. B. Cunningham, 79 Clarence street, Kingston, Ontario, the administrator of the estate of the said Edith Penwarden, deceased, on or before the 17th of November, 1919, their claims and demands, addressed and descriptions, with full particulars of their claims or demands duly verified, and the nature of the security (if any) held by them.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that after the said 17th of November, 1919, the said administrator may proceed to distribute the assets of the said estate amongst the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims or demands of which he shall then have received notice, and shall not be liable for the said assets, or any part thereof so distributed, to any person or persons of whose claims or demands he shall not have received notice at the time of the distribution.

Dated this 29th day of October, 1919.

A. B. CUNNINGHAM,
Administrator of the Estate of Edith Penwarden.

BANKS TO REMAIN OPEN

On Saturday Evening For Benefit of Victory Loan.

The city banks have decided to remain open until 9 o'clock on Saturday evening so that all persons who desire to make applications for Victory Bonds may have an opportunity to do so. There is every reason to believe that many persons who have not been reached by the canvassers and who have been too busy all the week to attend to the purchase of their bonds will go to the banks on Saturday afternoon, or evening here they will be given full information and where they can fill out the applications for the amounts they wish to subscribe.

Returned From Peterboro. Major-General William G.O.C., D.D., No. 3, returned from Peterboro on Thursday afternoon. While in Peterboro he took up the question of the reorganization of the 57th Regiment and heard representations on behalf of the overseas units from Major-General G. W. Cunningham, Peterboro, Peterboro contributed to the 21st Battalion, the C.M.R. and the 2nd Battalion, and it is expected that the company organizations will perpetuate these fighting units in some way. The officer commanding the 57th has not yet been appointed.

Died in Detroit, Mich. Mary Kelly, wife of Eugene Kelly, 96 Melrose avenue, Detroit, Michigan, passed away on Nov. 3rd after an illness of four weeks.
