"Oh! What a Pal Was Mary"

Here's a good old-fashioned ballad song that's making one of the biggest sentimental hits on record. Henry Burr sings the appealing words and beautiful melody with sincere and tender feeling. Coupled with "Waiting" (from "Listen Lester"), by Charles Harrison.

IT certainly is exasperating to soil the cuff of a perfectly fresh shirt when attending to the furnace.

If you don't change it, you'll feel uncomfortable all day fearing some one will notice the soiled cuff—

Unless you are lucky and are wearing a W. G. & R. shirt with Double Wear Cuffs. Then, all you have to do is to turn the cuff and it's as good as new.

These new Double Wear Cuffs are a convenience men have longed for. Now that they have been invented, men are taking to them enthusiastically.

Double Wear Cuffs look equally dressy and lie perfectly flat either side out. A clever new idea in cuff designing makes this possible. Ask your dealer to show you

JUNIOR TITLE FOR GUELPH COLLEGE

Royal Military College Team is Downed by Farmers, Eighteen to Nil.

WILDE IS POPULAR

Two Bouts Arranged for the Young Briton.

The Evening World says today: Jimmy Wilde the wonderful English boxer, will probably fight for the first time in this country, at Milwaukee, on Thanksgiving Day afternoon. His opponent will be Joe Burman, the crack Chicago bantam who has beaten Briton, will also fight Benny Vogel in the west.

These two fights are all that he will take part in before he boxes for the International Sporting Club, in this city. He is supposed to have an agreement with them that he won't box east of Chicago before he boxes for them in this city, February 3.

No opponent has been selected for Wilde for his local debut. Joe Lynch, Pal Moore and Pete Herman are the leading trio, with the chances favoring the first-named right now, because he is a local boy, and also because it was their fifteen-round battle in London that caused lots of talk the boxing world over.

Jimmy is being made a lion of here. He has not a minute to himself in the hotel. The telephone keeps up a constant ring, while he receives bundles of mail from all sections.

David said that all men are liars. He might have added that some men work in overtime.
