R. WALDRON

Theatrical

At The Grand.
To-night will be the last showing of the latest Fox Film production "Gambling in Souls," with the talented star, Madeline Travers in the leading role. The picture is a story of gambling in Wall Street, in society and around the roulette wheel. The final scene takes place in a gambling house, where the heroine, known as Madame Rouge, deliberately cheats the son of the broker who had robbed her husband. Her triumph is short lived, because she soon learns that the son she has cheated has secretly married her own daughter. The revelation of feeling caused by this discovery is admirably portrayed. "The Sundown Trail" with Monroe Salisbury in the lead, is a splendid picture of the great out-doors and with the good support Mr. Salisbury has, this play is one well worth while. A reel of good comedy pictures and an act of superior vaudeville will complete this bill which will be seen to-night only.—Adv.

"Bringing Up Father in Society."
These popular comies, "Bringing Up Father," created by George McManus and brought to the realm of the stage by that astute and far-seeing manager, Bert Lytell, is the attraction at the Grand Opera House Saturday Nov. 22nd matinee and night. It bears the happy title of "Bringing Up Father in Society" and from all accounts will more than help to ingratiate the popular characters of "Jiggs" Mahoney, "Mother" and the rest of the Mahoney clan into the hearts of the public. The new play—and it is brand new in every respect, from the scenery to the very pauses to the melodious score—is in three acts and three scenes. As no doubt anticipated it serves to humorously recount the splitting adventures of "Father," "Mother," "Dinny," et al to "butt" their way into the sacred portals of exclusive society.—Adv.

At The Strand.
Two striking pictures made up the entertainment at the Strand on Thursday evening. They were Bert Lytell in "Easy to Make Money" and Constance Talmage in her latest hit "Romance and Arabella." They were both most pleasing and the theatre was packed. Bert Lytell is the son of a wealthy New Yorker who is constantly getting into mischief finally landing in jail but upon his release through his father's efforts he starts out on his own account and makes good.

Constance Talmage needs no introduction to the Strand's patrons, and appears in "Romance and Arabella" in which an interrupted wedding and a disappointed bridegroom provide all the elements of romance, while the previously neglected suitor of the beautiful widow receives his reward. These pictures will be seen at the Strand today and Saturday matinee and evening.—Adv.

At Griffin's.
The charm and personality of Mary Pickford never were more delightfully in evidence in any of her previous screen portrayals than manifested by her in her quaint Artcraft picture, "Captain Kidd Jr." which was presented with unusual success at Griffin's yesterday. The photoplay which is based upon the famous stage success of the same name, and its reception by the big audience at this theatre was in the nature of a triumph.

As a nearly grown up Scotch lassie, Mary MacFavish, who runs a curio and book store with her grandfather, Angus MacFavish, Miss Pickford presented a deliciously refreshing portrayal—one wholly distinct from the famous characterizations with which her name has been associated for years past. When she drives a hard bargain in the sale for $75. for a set of books which has cost her only $4.50 and which by the way had been brought to the shop by mistake, she supplies some very entertaining moments for her admirers.

Along with the above feature, the great Mack Bennett comedy "Uncle Tom without the Cabin" is shown, and kept the audience in an uproar all during its showing last evening. Don't fail to see this programme.—Adv.

DESERVING OF SUPPORT.

Sudbury Comment on Resolution Passed by Kingston Board.
The following appears in the Sudbury News: "It is important to note that a resolution is being presented by the Kingston Board of Trade to the annual meeting of the Associated Boards of Trade at J. T. Day's Hotel for assistance to the shipbuilding industry. This is a resolution which deserves support for the reason that it is also vital to the well-being of the country, but it is just possible that if the iron ore industry was so assisted that iron could be produced in Canada cheaply and plentifully, the shipbuilding industry would be sufficiently assisted in that way to get along. The iron ore industry and the shipbuilding industry seem to be so closely related that if assistance is needed for one it is needed for the other. This point may well be taken into consideration by the Sudbury delegates and, by them impressed on the delegates from Eastern Ontario."

Late John V. H. Burton.
The funeral of the late John V. H. Burton took place on Friday afternoon from his late residence, 210 Queen street. Interment took place at Cataract cemetery. Rev. W. Taylor-Dale conducted the service, assisted by Rev. J. W. Stephen. The pallbearers were six members of Cooke's church session, Messrs H. W. Newman, M. H. Claxton, W. Anderson, R. J. Diack, J. McCallie, and D. A. Shaw.

PRINCE TO BE HOST TO 1,000 CHILDREN

On British Battleship—He Places a Wreath on Roosevelt's Grave.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
New York, Nov. 21.—Edward Albert, Prince of Wales, began the last full day of his visit to New York today with a trip to the grave of Theodore Roosevelt at Oyster Bay. The Prince carried a wreath to place on the late ex-president's grave. The day's programme called for his presence at a noon luncheon at Pipping Rock Club and in the afternoon he planned to play host to 1,000 school children on the British battleship Renown. This evening he will be guest at a dinner of the Pilgrims, at which Chauncey M. Depew will preside. A brief visit to the Hippodrome and a reception at the 7th armory, arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Wainmaker, will complete the day's events. Tomorrow, the Prince will end his visit to the United States, sailing on the Renown for Halifax.

ANOTHER RALLY

Facilitated a Further Advance of New York Stock Prices.
(Canadian Press Despatch)
New York, Nov. 21.—Another rally in foreign exchange and indications that the money stringency has been overcome facilitated a further advance of prices during the morning. Easter money conditions were confirmed by the opening rate of eight per cent. for call loans. Crucible Steel, General Motors and High Grade Oils gained six to thirteen points in the first hour. Tobacco kept pace with stronger food, leather and shipping issues, but Rails were relatively dull, and Irregular Steels Equipments and Motors shared more actively in the broader buying at noon.

MILK PRICE CONTROL

Is Limited By the Price of Food, Board Says.
Ottawa, Nov. 21.—In a statement handed out last night the Board of Commerce announces that it is unable, owing to the refusal of its application to the Canadian Wheat Board for a reduction in the selling price of millfeeds, to control the advancing prices of milk and milk products other than by supervision of profits. In the opinion of the board there cannot be cheaper milk until the price of millfeeds, such as bran and shorts, are substantially reduced. The power of fixing prices for these millfeeds, according to the statement, has been conferred upon the Canadian Wheat Board, and this body has refused to allow the reduction.

To Speak in Kingston.

No man in Canada outside of the members of the parliamentary committee on soldiers' re-establishment, knows more about this subject than C. G. MacNeil, the dominion secretary of the G.W.V.A. Mr. MacNeil represented the G.W.V.A., Army and Navy Veterans and the Imperials Association during the meetings of the parliamentary committee, and did the splendid work there. He is coming to Kingston on Saturday, and on Sunday afternoon he will be the chief speaker at the mass meeting for returned soldiers to be held in the Strand theatre. The G.W.V.A. band is also to be in attendance, and a musical programme has been arranged. All returned soldiers are invited, and the matter of soldiers' re-establishment will be fully discussed.

An Exciting Runaway.

An exciting runaway took place on Ontario street on Friday morning. The horse which belonged to a cattle drover, took fright near the C.P.R. station and dashed along the road until it was captured near Tete de Pont barracks. It was amusing to see the dog belonging to the drover running along side the horse for fear that they might get separated.
