General Sport

Dalton Meeking, the clever Barrie player, and Charles Stewart have definitely decided to play for the Dentals O.H.A. team this season.

T. Healey, an English boxing promoter, has offered a purse of $180,000 for a world's championship bout between Jack Dempsey and the winner of the Beckett-Carpenter contest.

Directors of the Sacramento Club of the Coast League are said to be sharply divided on the issue of retaining Bill Rodgers as manager of the team for next year, with indications that the majority is against Bill. However, the rub is, where is another manager who would give better results?

Del Howard last week spiked the rumor that he would retire from baseball. He will continue as manager of the Oakland team, and the club, by the way, will continue under the same ownership, with J. Calder Ewing, as the driving force. It was for sale, but no offers were made that would touch the price put upon it.

The new owners of the Beaumont Club of the Texas League have elected O. B. Greaves president and Ruby Jett, secretary, manager Joe Mathes, who has been in St. Louis since the close of the Texas season, reported to the club owner that he had signed a couple of good prospects from the St. Louis lots and has others in view for tryouts.

DUNCAN WITH VANCOUVER

Gives Up the Idea of Getting Toronto Club Franchise.

Capt. Art Duncan, M.C., who has been angling for the Toronto Arena hockey franchise in the N.H.L., has mailed his signed contract to Frank Patrick of the Vancouver club of the Pacific Coast League. He has given up the idea of getting the Toronto franchise. He said in an interview: "I think that I could have placed a good team on the ice, as I received letters from enough players to have formed a strong combination. However, I may be playing at the Arena before the winter is over, as I think Vancouver will win the Pacific Coast League championship this year, and that being the case they will be down East playing for the Stanley Cup."

Nothing as yet has been accomplished by the Toronto pros, relative to the proposed trade with Quebec for Joe Malone. The latter is working in Toronto and was limbering up at the Arena last night.

Cully Wilson, who was with the Toronto pros, before the war, is now a free agent and has wired asking for a job. The local club has made him an offer.

Mitchell, a goalie, who was with Seattle before he went overseas, has asked for a trial with the Toronto pro team.

Refuse to Blend.
Ottawa Citizen: Alcohol and hockey cannot mix, according to officers of the National Hockey League. At the annual meeting of the big professional circuit last week, it was quite clear that several of the clubs intended to pass up prominent players, not through any collapse as purchasers, but chiefly because they had broken their contracts, which contain temperance clauses. "No boozers need apply," seems to be the motto of the N.H.L. The day of the rough element in pro hockey has passed. A new era dawned when the Ottawas introduced players of the Merrill-Gerard-Darragh-Nighbor class.

"Never again," said one manager, who had suffered last winter through slips on the parts of his players. How times have changed!

BOOM AMATEUR LACROSSE

Montreal A.A. Will Make Efforts to Revive Game.

An effort to revive amateur lacrosse will be made by the Montreal A.A.A., according to expressions on the part of the followers of the national game who gathered at the 62nd annual meeting of the M.A.A. Club, J. J. Louson, a senior player of 30 years ago, was chosen as president of the club.

"It is our intention," stated an officer, "to feel out other amateur associations in the city with a view to forming an amateur league for the 1920 season, and it is our firm belief that there will be sufficient amateur talent offering in the spring to start a league in the city to give amateur lacrosse in Montreal a rousing send-off."

Should it be found impossible to start such a league, however, a lacrosse series between clubs within the M.A.A.A. will be inaugurated.

The Householder—How's this? Your price is $5 for moving that table and your regular rate is $1 for each piece of furniture?
The Van Man—That's all right. You see, the legs of the table got knocked off on the way and that made four extra pieces.

To a greater or less extent we are all dishonest with ourselves.

BIG FOUR ON RECORD AGAINST ROUGH PLAY

Rule Off for Game for Intentional Work the Governors Decide.

At a meeting of the board of governors of the interprovincial Union, with a bare quorum present, viz., President T. P. Galt of Toronto in the chair, A. P. Burritt of Argonauts and H. B. McQuiverin, Ottawa, is was adopted that next year intentional rough play must be penalized by ruling off for the balance of the game. Montreal had laid a complaint against Martin Kilt of Ottawa for rough play, but Phil McKenzie was an absentee, and he sent no word or letter to substantiate the charge.

Joe Wright, one of the best centre scrummers who ever played in Ontario is a convert to the American college game. He went over to Philadelphia to see the game between Pennay and Cornell, and incidentally sign up to coach U. of P. oarsmen for another term. Of course, Joe would be pleased to see his favorites win by 24 to 0. He likes all the features, not excepting the forward pass. Prof. Wright would eliminate the flying wing, and side scrummers, and make his own old job a mere snapback. That would bring the Canadian game back to the numerical level of the American, viz., fourteen players, and he would also introduce interference, which he considers a splendid feature of rugby.

DENTALS ROUND OUT TEAM

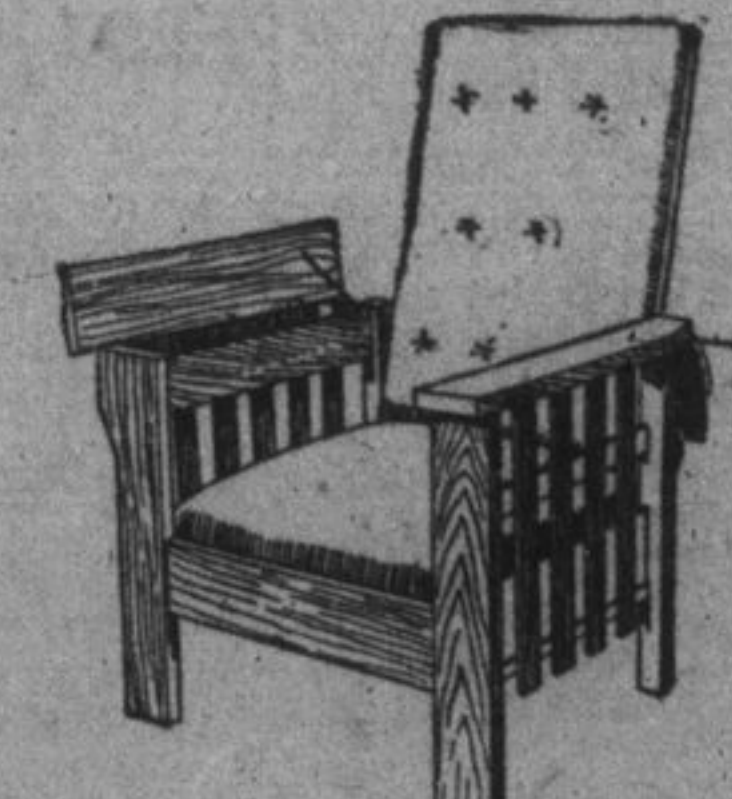

Goalie Charlie Stewart Is Out At Practice.

Dalton Meeking, the centre player, and Charlie Stewart, last year's regular goalie, are practising with the Toronto Dentals, and Manager Box stated that with these two players his team was now complete. Mac Sheldon was going great guns, and fits in nicely with Stan Brown on the defence. Rod Smylie looks right in the pink after his running activities during the fall. Bill Box's rugby work has also kept him in shape, and Rennie and Hudson are also in fair condition. The Dentals look like the team to beat in the O.H.A. senior series again this year. Their lineup will be as follows:
Goal—Charlie Stewart, Vernon Forbes.
Defence—Mac Sheldon, Stan Brown, Bill Box.
Forwards—Rod Smylie, Louis Hudson, Dalton Meeking, Le Roy Rennie.

Handing it to Uncle.
"Edwin," said his penurious uncle, "what would you do if I gave you a nickel?"
"I don't know for sure," replied Edwin, "but I probably would drop dead."
