Theatrical

To-night "Rocky Roads to Dublin."
There is probably no more loved actor on the stage to-day than the popular Barney Gilmore, who will appear at the Grand Opera House to-night in "The Rocky Roads to Dublin." Written by Daniel Hart, this play of Irish folks and Irish life is better than ever. The charming story and the heart interest appeal makes "The Rocky Roads to Dublin" one of the classics of the American stage. Barney Gilmore is younger than ever, his singing voice as sweet as ever, and he is singing a number of his old favorite songs as well as a number of new, principally among which are "I Loved You, Kate, in Ireland," "There's a Seat at the Table," "When She Rode in the Low Back Car," "Let's All Help the Irish Now" and "Top of the Mornin'."—Adv.

"Gloriana."
It is the uniqueness of Catherine Chisholm Cushing's story, together with Rudolf Friml's catchy melody, that have made "Gloriana," which plays at the Grand Opera House, Saturday, Dec. 6th, with a special matinee, the most talked of musical show on the road. Furnished with a bevy of beautiful girls and talented and capable principals, as well as realistic and artistic stage settings and elaborate effects, "Gloriana" comes here with an unprecedented record-breaking run in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston. The story is as refreshing and as entertaining as its haunting melodies. Not content with plunging Gloriana Gray into financial difficulties, the librettist also provides a set of creditors for her intimate friend, Dolores Pennington, who taught dancing and made her the widow, moreover, of an officer who was believed to have been killed. The plot thickens when news reaches Dolores that she has been made her husband's heir.—Adv.

At Griffin's.
The headline attraction at Griffin's for to-day, Friday and Saturday will be Albert Capellan's great picture, "The Victorious Model," featuring beautiful Dolores Cassinelli, translated to the screen from the play "The Gutter." It is a dramatic story of modern life in the French Capital, and the producer skillfully dressed his silver-haired version in American garb, which suffers not one whit from the locale being placed in and around Paris. Fraught with dramatic intensity full of highly interesting situations, the play pulsates with pathos and feeling giving a true picture of the life of Paris to-day, and it symbolizes the triumph of virtue against all the obstacles with which the straight and narrow path is ever beset. Dolores Cassinelli is superb in this production, and the directorial genius of Albert Capellan is evident in every turn of the picture.—Adv.

FUEL CONSERVATION APPEAL IS ISSUED

Coal Situation in Canada Worse Than It Was During The War.
Ottawa, Dec. 4.—"The fuel situation in Canada was never as grave at any time during the war as it is at the present moment," declared C. A. Magrath, Dominion Fuel Controller, in an appeal to the public for fuel conservation, issued last evening.

He drew attention to the fact that Canada has received practically no soft coal during the month of November, and that the allotment of 15 cars a day which has been made, extremely small as compared with normal imports.

From present appearances he says, all that can be expected is to keep the public utilities and institutions supplied with fuel, in addition to meeting the domestic needs. Many industries may have to close down before we are well into the winter.

Mr. Magrath draws attention to the fact that he could call upon the Government to pass regulations limiting the use of fuel, as was done during the war. He believes, however, that an appeal to the public, setting forth the gravity of the situation, will result in the fullest response, and he therefore resorts to this means.

POLICE CONSTABLE WEDS
Marriage of Miss Florence Cook and Carman Booprey.
The marriage took place at 8 o'clock on Wednesday night, of Miss Florence C. Cook, daughter of Alfred Cook, of Coventry, Eng., and Carman Booprey, a member of the Kingston police force. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Craig, at 28 Clergy street west. The bride was attended by Miss Phronie Gimblet, the groom being supported by his brother, William E. Booprey. Miss Ethel Graham played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Booprey will reside at 28 Clergy street west. The groom served at the front, and is one of the recent additions to the police force, and is a well-known and popular young Kingstonian.

A Large Corporation.

PEACE RIVER OIL AREA ATTRACTING ATTENTION

Toronto Business Men Are at Head of Promising New Venture.
The tremendous demand for oil has turned attention strongly to the great possibilities of the Peace river district, and for this reason the offering of stock now being made by the Peace River Petroleum, Limited, is creating much interest. The company, which controls vast tracts of the most promising land in the oil area, is under the direction of a number of substantial Toronto business men and financiers, whose names convey assurance to the public that funds entrusted to them will be carefully expended in carrying out the big development plans in mind. Prospective purchasers of the shares will be favorably impressed with the fact that no bonus shares whatever have been issued, the directors having paid cash for their holdings, in the belief that the enterprise is one that holds out promise of very solid rewards. Some of the greatest geologists have expressed the belief that the Peace river district is destined to take its place among the great oil fields of the world, and, already, in the initial stages of exploration, oil has been struck in a number of places.

W. C. Goffat & Co., 10-12 East King street, are financial agents for the company, and the shares, which have a par value of $1, and are being offered at 35 cents, are expected to be taken up quickly.

WILLING PRISONERS

One Walked With Constable, Other Gave Himself Up.

The new constable recently appointed by Justice of Peace George Hunter believes in bringing prisoners to the cells whether they drive or walk. On Wednesday afternoon when the constable went to Cataract for the purpose of placing Henry Evans and William Woodhouse under arrest, charged with stealing preserved fruit and potatoes from the cellar of a Westbrook resident, he found that he was unable to get a rig to drive the prisoners to the city. He explained the situation to Evans and he agreed to make the trip by foot. When they arrived in the city, Evans was placed in the cells at the police station.

Woodhouse, who by the way has a silver plate in his leg, said it would be impossible for him to walk, but stated that if the constable would agree to allow him to stay at his home until Thursday morning, he would come to the city and give himself up. Thursday morning at the appointed hour Woodhouse appeared at the office of Col. Hunter. On Friday morning at ten o'clock the two men will appear before the county magistrate.

ENTERTAINED THE W.M.S.

Of Princess Street Church to a Tea On Wednesday Afternoon.
On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Clifford Horne and Mrs. Charles Creer were at home at the residence to Mrs. C. Creer, Albert street, to the members of the Women's Missionary Society of Princess street Methodist church. Mrs. J. A. Waddell received, while Miss Helen Creer opened the door.

The tea table was in charge of Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. J. Gwatkin, assisted by Miss N. Somerville, Miss I. Robinson and Miss G. Peters.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was the presentation of a life membership and a pla of the society to Miss M. Gardiner. Miss E. Wilder and Mrs. Waddell made the presentation.

Solos were rendered by Miss G. Peters, Mrs. L. Foster and Miss K. Flynn. Mrs. Baker presided at the piano. The floral decorations were very pretty.

The Y.M.C.A. Membership Campaign is on his week; have you renewed your ticket this year? Do it NOW.
