Time for Canadian Policy.
For over a year the thirteen shipyards of Canada have been building steel freighters for the government.
The time has come when Canada must consider what its future policy toward the industry shall be. The shipbuilding plants represent an investment of nearly fifteen million dollars, and they have been paying out in wages over forty million dollars a year, while with auxiliary industries they employ nearly fifty thousand men. On the strength of these figures the government is being urged to give further encouragement to the industry.

Parents Live In East.
Miss Lillian Anderson Buckler, the wife of the late Rev. G. H. Crane, B.A., B.D., killed in Chicago, is the elder daughter of Rev. H. H. and Mrs. Buckler, Mountain Grove, Bar of Quinns Conference. Miss Buckler was a student at Albert College, Belleville, and for several years in connection with it took a thorough musical conservatory course. She was a valued Christian worker in the Bridge Street Methodist Church League and a member of the choir, highly prized by her vocal teacher, Dan A. Cameron. She was a successful teacher in the Ontario Business College of Belleville, from which she resigned to take a more lucrative po-

Would Be Appreciated.
The Whig, daily or Semi-Weekly, for 1920 makes a highly appreciated Christmas present.

Called To Father's Bedside.
Rev. T. W. Savary is at Annapolis, N.S., having received word of the serious illness of his father.

Died at St. Monica, Calif.
Mrs. George Barrett, formerly Miss Annie McRae, Wolfe Island, died at St. Monica, Cal., on the 21st of Oct.

Called To Fenelon Falls.
Rev. W. A. Beecroft, B.D., a Queen's graduate, who spent three years overseas, has been invited to Fenelon Falls Presbyterian Church.

These Also Took Part.
Mrs. Beedie, Mrs. Pettie and Mrs.
Arnel assisted at the tea-table, and Mrs. Edward Anderson, helped to receive the guests at Cooke's church bazaar.

Was Lieutenant-in 14th.
The late Col. Frank Lafferty, who died in Quebec last Saturday, commenced his military career as a lieutenant in the 14th P.W.O. Rifles, Kingston after graduating at the Royal Military College.

For Fall and Winter.
Prevost Brock street has a great assortment of Ready Made Clothing in suits and overcoats and a splendid assortment of Gents Furnishings, his order clothing department was never better assorted at extremely low prices.

Joins School Staff.
Robert J. Bolton, Mallorytown, has been appointed to the Peterboro Public School staff as vice-principal to succeed Mr. Gould, who has resigned, salary to be according to schedule, and duties to commence 5th January next.

Colonel Kincaid's Position.
Lieut.-Col. J. Leslie Kincaid, D.S.O., of the Front of Yonge family of the same name and a pre-war summer visitor at Butternut Bay, has been appointed executive assistant to Frank Dudley, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., president of the United Hotels of America.

Changing Election Date Back.
While Kingston is to have its coming municipal elections on New Year's Day, St. Thomas is changing back from New Year's Day to the old date, the first Monday in January, so that the ratepayers will have an opportunity of enjoying their holiday on New Year's without being interrupted by municipal obligations.

Offered Candidature.
Lady Beaverbrook, who before her marriage to Baron Beaverbrook was Miss Drury, has been invited by the Unionists of Ashton-Under-Lyne to stand for the House of Commons for the seat of Sir Albert Stanley. Sir Albert is resigning his seat, and it is expected will be elevated to the peerage.

To Speak in Ottawa.
Prof. J. L. Morison is to speak before Queen's University Alumni Association at Ottawa this evening on his war experiences. Concerning him the Ottawa Journal says: "His buoyant personality and his fresh, original point of view will make his appearance here a unique event for Queen's undergraduates."

Holding Up Pork Prices.
Some local butchers have stopped buying trimmed pork from Toronto dealers, despite the fact that hogs are now selling liveweight at $14 a hundredweight. They are buying from farmers and doing their own trimming, as they can thus sell at lower prices to their customers and make more money themselves.

Selected Rhodes Scholar.
Captain Sherwood Lett, M.C., son of the late Rev. F. G. Lett, a well known Methodist minister and grand son of the late William Sherwood, barrister, Brockville, has been selected Rhodes scholar for British Columbia for 1919. Captain Lett is a graduate of McGill College of British Columbia and went overseas in 1916, joining the 46th Battalion in France.

Make Way for 'Permanents.'
A Brantford despatch says: Lieut-Col. H. A. Genet, who took the 58th Battalion overseas, has been retired from the post of Assistant Adjutant-General of Military District No. 3 (Kingston), being replaced by Lieut.
Col. William Pope, who went overseas as second in command of the Royal Canadian Regiment. The explanation given by Ottawa military authorities of this move is that the permanent corps men have given their entire life up to soldiering and no other profession, and places must be made for them.

lition in Regina, Sask., where she was active also in choir and League work. There she met Mr. Crane, and they were married in the Metropolitan Church, on Aug. 24th, 1915.
Mr. and Mrs. Crane and their two baby boys visited her parents at Mountain Grove, and also Mr.
Crane's at Farnham, Que.

Fine Irish Play.
Lovers of an Irish play were given a fine treat at the Grand Opera House last night, when Barney Gilmore, the most capable comedian, with a
"The Rocky Road to Dublin," and Barney and his company entertained the fairly large audience during the three acts the play covered in finally landing him in the Bank of Dublin as its manager. The piece is brimming with good Irish wit, and most entertaining. Mr. Gilmore sang, "I Loved You Kate in Ireland," "County Tyrone" and "Top O' Mornin'" in fine voice. The orchestra played Irish airs throughout the evening, and it was a real Irish night.

Boy's Naval Brigade.
On Wednesday evening the local Boy's Naval Brigade held an entertainment at which over sixty boys were present. From seven until eight the boys held their weekly business meeting, the remainder of the evening being spent in music, boxing, etc. Captain F. P. Fitzgerald spoke of the good work being done by the boys and congratulated them on the excellent manner they conducted their meeting, and of the progress made in their work. The programme consisted of three rounds of boxing by the brothers Fox, Willie Cornish and E. Montgomery, Sam Jarvis and Amey; pianoforte selections by Master John North. H. W. Shaw caused a great deal of amusement with a number of tricks and illusions.
The boys gave three rousing cheers for the Auxiliary, and the Army and Navy Veterans.
