Too Late. Teacher: "Benjamin, how many times must I tell you not to snap your fingers? Now put down your hand and keep still. I shall hear what you have to say presently."

Benjamin: "There was a tramp in the hall a few minutes ago, and I saw him go off with your umbrella."

Always a Limit. A certain good woman was so painfully neat that she made life wretched for her family. One of her rules was that all the members of the household must remove their shoes before entering the house.

"Bill," she whined one day to her husband, "I found a greasy spot on one of the dining-room chairs, and I think it came off those pants you wear in the shop."

"Well, Mirandy," shouted Bill, his patience exhausted, "for the last 15 years I've taken my shoes off every time I came into this house, but I'll be hanged if I'm going to go any further."

Not Particular. "Doctor, now, if you repay you for your kindness to me?" "Doesn't matter, old man. Cheque, money order or cash."

The neighbors and friends of Fish Lake community gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Armstrong, who are leaving for their new home in Greenbush, and presented them with gifts - Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, one dozen silver teaspoons; Miss Emily Armstrong, ebony brush and comb; Mr. Will Armstrong, military brushes; Sammy and Johnny, each Bibles.

Ma doesn't have to ask me what corn flakes I like - says Bobby. She knows I'd answer.

Make Them Over. With the present high price of materials, we will surely come back to the practice of "making over" clothes. Just before the war most of us got out of this habit, and though as children we wore made-over coats and suits at times, we have recently come to the conclusion that the time involved was worth more than was saved by that bill of effort. However, as things are now the time involved is well worth the result reaped by that conservation. Often in a discarded blue serge frock of your own you will be able to find material enough which, if washed, pressed and used inside out would be enough for the little girl's frock.
