A delightful tea and musicale was that given by Mrs. W. Morgan, Barrie street, on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. James Richardson, who received with the hostess, was the raison d'être. In the drawing room and dining room red shaded lights cast a pretty glow, while beautiful crimson roses were artistically arranged. A bright fire crackled merrily in the hall, and on the table was a vase filled with cream roses and narcissi. On the handsome polished table in the dining room a cut-glass vase, filled with crimson roses, made a lovely centre-piece. Here Mrs. Sandford Calvin poured coffee. Miss Agnes Richardson made tea while the ices were cut by Mrs. A. B. Cunningham and Mrs. W. Birmingham, several of the guests, passing the dainty refreshments. Then the guests enjoyed a feast of music, the programme being: Piano solo, Mrs. Lyster; songs, Miss Carrie Waldron; piano solo, Mrs. Gummer; songs, Mrs. T. Callendar; musical dialogue, Mrs. Hicks; piano solo, Mrs. W. Goodwin; songs, Mrs. Callendar; piano solo, Mrs. Rigney; song, Miss Carrie Waldron.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Spence (Evelyn Corbett) entertained a number of friends at their pretty new house, Arthur street, Brantford. Mrs. Spence, who was assisted in receiving her guests by her sister, Miss Corbett, wore a dainty gown of apricot silk with overdrapes of cream nixon embroidered in black French knots, while Miss Corbett's frock was champagne colored georgette crepe. Quantities of lovely pink and white chrysanthemums were prettily arranged in the drawing room and dining room, while pink shaded lights cast soft rays over the happy scene. Until midnight dancing was enjoyed, and then a delicious buffet supper was served.

The Royal Military College was en fête last evening, when the commandant, staff and gentlemen cadets entertained at a jolly dance. The delights of these gatherings has spread to other cities, and friends and relations of the cadets from Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto were there in large numbers. The gymnasium was gaily decorated with flags and bunting, swords and rifles giving the sterner touch. Here Major-Gen. Sir Archibald Macdonald and Lady Macdonald received the guests. The R. C. H. A. orchestra played all the latest one steps, fox trots and waltzes, and at the end of each number were eagerly besieged for "more." About midnight a delicious buffet supper was served, and then dancing was resumed until the strains of "God Save the King" ended this long-looked-forward-to event.

Mrs. William Leslie, West street, entertained informally at the tea hour on Friday afternoon, when she invited a number of Miss Lily Norton Taylor's friends in to have a chat and a cup of tea. Lovely yellow and white narcissi were in the drawing room and on the tea table over which Mrs. Arthur Evans presided.

A great number of friends gathered at the G.T.R. station yesterday to bid "bon voyage" to Mrs. Weil and her daughter, the Misses Ethel and Lena, and Miss Aileen Folger, who left for St. John, from where they sail on the S.S. Corsican for England.

After the theatre on Wednesday evening there was a jolly supper party, composed of Queen's students, held at the Chateau Belvidere.
