Hunting Eye Goes to School

The school bell was ringing as Hunting Eye came up. Several children were running into the school house. Hunting Eye followed them and sat down in the back of the room.

"Here comes Teacher, ask her," said the teacher. "Long ago, the government did not think the school important enough to take up its time in running them."

Gun News.

Boys, when you go game shooting for the first time beware of "buck fever." It comes to those who are new at the game.

The Cadets' Shield.

The Cadets of Victoria school have won the shield for drill for three years in succession. The shield is now covered with the crests bearing the name of the winning school cadet corps.

A Christmas Story.

"Ding, ding, ding, ding, ding, ding, ding," went the great clock in the hall. Suddenly the front door opened and a merry voice called out, "Merry Christmas, are there any children in this house?"

Some Victoria School Answers.

Question. What happens when you have a cold?

Answer. The nose becomes red and swollen.

Q. Describe the climate of Ireland.

A. About 32,000 square miles.

Surely a Mistake.

A little girl, being sent to a store to purchase some material for dyeing clothes, forgot the name of the article, and said to the clerk:

Mike All Over.

Mr. Duffy: Mrs. Kelly it pains me to inform you that your husband has just been blown up by a delinquent cartridge. We found his head in a wasp nest, his body in another lot, his legs in another lot and his arms and feet in another lot.

For Next Week.

The editor of the School British Whig wishes to thank the pupils of all the schools for their activity in writing stories for the school news section.

Trailing

Trailing is something like the game of Hare and Hounds, only vastly more exciting, for, instead of scraps of paper to follow, you have the tracks of wild creatures.

It is much easier to follow the trail when the ground is covered with snow soft enough to take footprints clearly, but mud will show them and so will sand and dust.

Remember that a DEER TRACK resembles that of a cow but is very much smaller; a FOX TRACK is like a dog's with often the imprint of hairs between the toes.

The dread of censure is the death-blow of genius.

From Out the Night You Hear the Cry:

"Oh! Why Can't I Get to Sleep?"

Thousands of people all over the country ask this question, but still continue to toss, night after night, on sleepless beds, or walk the bedroom floor until near dawn.

To be able to lie down at night and in a few minutes fall asleep—to know no dream or waking until morning—then to bounce out of bed full of vigor, freshness and good spirits, ready for each and every duty the day may demand, is a blessing that can be easily achieved by using
