Blood Poisoning Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Safe First Aid Treatment

How often lockjaw and blood poisoning result from the neglect of a slight scratch or little cut! Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safe and effective first aid treatment. It is a powerful antiseptic and should be applied immediately to wounds of this kind to prevent danger of infection.

It is soothing and healing and quickly drives out pain and inflammation in cases of sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, bites and stings. Just as reliable, too, for stiff neck, sore feet, cold sores, canker sores, eczema and toothache. Get it from druggists for 30 cents. If not satisfied return the bottle and get your money back.

SORE THROAT IS A COMMON AILMENT WHICH UNLESS CHECKED IN THE EARLY STAGES BECOMES A DANGEROUS CONDITION. SIMILARLY A CROUPY COUGH DEVELOPS AND REQUIRES SUSTAINED TREATMENT BEFORE IT IS OVERCOME BUT IF TREATED AT ONCE MUCH CONSEQUENCE AND SUFFERING MAY BE AVOIDED. AN OLD AND RELIABLE REMEDY IS FOUND IN DR. THOMAS' ECLECTIC OIL

Norman Shammoun and Frank Summers of Detroit, U.S.A., are spending a few weeks of their holiday season with their friends and relatives around here. The annual business meeting of the Presbyterian church here will be held on the evening of Jan. 7th in the church. The reports of activities during the past year will be received and officers elected for the various committees of the coming year. All are

TODAY IN HISTORY

Gen. Stoessel. Fifteen years ago today, January 2, 1905, the surrender of Port Arthur was agreed upon. Answer to yesterday's puzzle: Top side down, at most.

The Forward Movement is being pushed along in our locality. An effort is being made to secure a larger attendance at the church services, and larger offerings for the work of the church at home and abroad. It is expected these objectives will be reached. Nomination of candidates for the municipality of Sunbury was held in the town hall here on Monday the 29th, and was largely attended, and a lengthy discussion took place. It is possible that the entire council may be returned by acclamation though a number of nominations were made. Skating is being enjoyed in this locality by the young people. A presentation to the returned soldiers of this part of the township will be made in the town hall on Tuesday evening, the 20th. Robert H. Fair will be chairman. The marriage of Rev. Robert S. Jones, Brantford, to Miss Edith Nesbitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. M. Nesbitt, Brighton, Ont., took place in St. Paul's church, Brighton, on Tuesday.
