MACDONALD'S BRIER SMOKING TOBACCO

The Tobacco with a heart

Presentation At Oconto.
Oconto, Jan. 1.—Friday evening a splendid programme was given by the pupils of St. George's Lake school. Rev. Mr. Brown gave an excellent address and acted as chairman. When the programme consisting of dialogues, recitations, choruses, drills etc., had almost finished, the teacher Miss S. V. Strong who is leaving was presented with a beautiful rocking chair. The presentation was made by Austin Tryon and Victor Gillespie and the address was read by Jennie Davison.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Kathleen Johnson and Francis Roy Taylor, on Dec. 27th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Johnson, Consecou.

TEACHES QUEEN'S HOCKEY

NICK BAWLF INSTRUCTS THE BUDDING STUDENT PLAYERS.

He Knows the Science of the Game Thoroughly, and Queen's Will Benefit Through His Coaching.

Nicholas Bawlf, professional hockey player, was a magnificent find by Queen's University, for by securing him it has placed hockey upon the curriculum as one of the scientific subjects, if, indeed, it is not one of the highest accomplishments as an art. Mr. Bawlf began his athletic career in 1905, and came rapidly to the front as a rugby and hockey player. Later he became a professional, and played with the Montreal Wanderers.

One has only to attend his class at Queen's rink to see how Bawlf became such a great player. He has the game reduced to scientific principles, which have to be thoroughly learned and understood, and Bawlf not only knows these things, but unlike many great players, he is able to impart instruction by lectures as well as by demonstration.

The idea generally held is that success in hockey depends absolutely upon speed, but this is not quite true, as Bawlf shows that it depends upon ability to do the right thing at the right time. Skating ability is, of course, one of the first essentials. Next comes a full knowledge of the game and the rules governing the combination play. In a large class of students the coach expects to find some good skaters who are capable of rising in the ranks of a team, and he sets out to develop the best in them. After teaching them how to skate, he teaches them to use their eyes, and here the work is not as easy as it might appear. While position in play and combination work are essential, the chief requisite to success is brains, and Bawlf is a master of tactics. He says, "Your combination soon becomes known, and you have got to be able to turn the opponents' combination to your own account, and it is here that brains count most." Even after we have taught a team how to play and provide against every possible contingency, we are going to be beaten if the other fellows can do the work better. Our work, therefore, is to create stars, and an all-star team.

Ambitious hockey players of the city never miss an opportunity to watch Bawlf instructing his classes. He now has 120 Queen's students taking his courses, and every one is a worshipper of Bawlf. To see him on the ice is a revelation that makes an enthusiast of every youngster on skates, and the work that he is doing here this winter is going to have a far-reaching effect on hockey throughout the province. But it will have a distinct effect upon Queen's itself, and every ambitious skater will know that the university has the best professional coach in Canada, and it is the university to go to in order to become a great hockey player.

HOCKEY NOTES.

Tommy Smith may join the Quebec pros. soon.

Tigers are said to be after "Goldie" Prodgers as coach of their senior team.

Parkdale seniors open the O.H.A. season on Friday night, when they go to Kitchener.

Tom McCarthy, the Hamilton player, who was suspended by the O. H. A., is trying his hand at refereeing, and is said to be making good.

Quebec is up against it for a good reason. They have tried to land many amateurs, but Brophy was the only one who would turn.

A glance over the Parkdale juniors does not bring to light any familiar names. However, the P.C.C. officials have been working quietly on their juniors, and may spring a surprise in the local group.

Frank Boucher, son of Mr. Tom Boucher, one of Ottawa's famous athletes of other years, and a brother of George Boucher, the well-known hockey player, is starting in the Mounties team of the Lethbridge District League. Boucher recently scored six goals in one game. The Lethbridge Herald declares he is the fastest forward in the league. Boucher played last year with New Edinburgh, in the Ottawa City League. Lethbridge critics declare he is one of the best players in the west. He is connected with the Royal North-West Mounted Police.
