Dependable Store

Do you want ordinary clothing turned out like so many pieces of machinery, each exactly the same without a spark of individuality or personality?

You do not.

Or do you want ready-made clothing that looks as though you really had a hand in selecting the fabric, the cut and the style into which it is made?

You do most emphatically.

SCORE THE GOVERNMENT

IN REGARD TO ITS SOLDIERS' UNEMPLOYMENT SCHEME.

Address By President Howe to the G. W. V. A.—A Resolution Passed—Satisfaction Over Municipal Election.

The local branch of the Great War Veterans held a special mass meeting on Friday night for the purpose of discussing the emergency legislation of the Government for the relief of unemployment among the returned men. The meeting was well attended, and was addressed by the President, Comrade H. L. Howe.

In opening his address the president called attention to the indifference, not only of the Dominion Government, but the veterans themselves to the problems with which they are confronted. How could they expect others to take an interest in their welfare if they had no interest themselves?

The constructive policy of the G. W. V. A. turned down by the Government would have resulted in a great industrial development, and would not have entailed a greater expenditure than would be required to re-establish the bankrupt Grand Trunk Railway.

Dealing with the pension problem, he pointed out that the cost of living, according to Government figures had increased 101 per cent, and in order to meet this increased cost they have allowed a miserable 20 per cent. increase in pensions to the widows and dependents of fallen comrades. The Government had not forgotten the employees of the Civil service, and had voted a ten million-dollar bonus to enable them to combat the high cost of living—based on the calculation that a man, wife and three children required $1,558 a year to enable them to live with a minimum of comfort. On the other hand the widow with four children is expected to combat the same H.C. of L. with from four to five hundred dollars a year less.

Believing in the justice of the cause of all veterans, the greatest possible publicity is needed to combat the Government propaganda spread throughout the entire Dominion, camouflaging the facts, said President Howe. Their policy is a challenge to the G. W. V. A., and, he said, it is up to every individual member of the association to get behind his own national publication, which has dared more for the cause of the veteran than any other magazine in the country.

At the close of the address by the president, the vice-president called for a vote on the following resolution, which was unanimously carried:

"That every individual member, not only of the Kingston branch, but of the entire association, pledge himself to be a subscriber of the national publication, as an expression of condemnation of the Government's miserable policy, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to every branch in the Dominion of Canada."

Immediate steps are being taken to put this into effect in the Kingston branch. Great satisfaction was expressed by those present with the result of the Municipal Election, and a vote of thanks and appreciation was passed for the hearty co-operation of the citizens of Kingston, who made such a splendid record possible.

man. Be sure and see this picture. For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday we have been most fortunate in securing the great Wm. Farnum production, "The Last of the Duanes," dramatized from the most successful Zane Grey novel of the same name. Wm. Farnum is supreme in this picture, and some of the finest dramatic action ever witnessed, takes place. You have seen Wm. Farnum in some exceptionally fine photoplays, but you have never seen him reach the heights of artistic ability as he does in "The Last of the Duanes." It is one of the best pictures to be shown in Kingston this season.—Advt.

A SERIOUS BLAZE IN ALBERT STREET HOME

The Fire Was Caused in Thawing Out Frozen Water Pipes.

Quite a serious fire broke out at 8.30 o'clock on Saturday morning, at the home of Prof. G. B. Reed, 218 Albert street, and damage to the extent of $300, and perhaps more, was done to the building and contents. Both the building and contents are insured. The fire started as a result of the efforts being put forth to thaw out water pipes in the outside kitchen.

This is the first fire to occur this winter from thawing out pipes and it would be well for citizens to take every precaution to prevent a fire from this source.

Special warning is also given to the caretakers of the churches and other buildings to watch their fires closely during the cold spell.

Completed Bonspiel. The curling bonspiel was completed at the curling rink Friday evening when the rink skipped by J. Elliott won from A. Turcotte in the consolation event. The club series games were commenced at the rink on Friday night when the rink skipped by Dr. Waugh won from A. B. Cunningham's rink by a score of 15 to 5; S. R. Bailey won from T. M. Asselstine's rink by 15 to 8; M. P. Reid won from T. Slater's rink by 10 to 5.

Theatrical

At The Grand. Tonight will be the last presentation in Kingston of the excellent programme showing at the Grand for the last part of this week. The clever Fox film co-stars, Albert Ray and Elinor Fair are seen in one of the best pictures they have yet produced, called "Love is Love." The story is pure comedy, in that its live, snappy clean fun is interspersed with serious scenes and incidents. Bessie Barriscale is also seen in a big feature picture, "The Woman Michael Married." The picture is filled to overflowing with love, suspense, heart-interest and in fact everything that goes to make a perfect photoplay. For the vaudeville, Frank Gates, Irish comedian, has a novelty act of witty dialogue that pleases.—Advt.

Coming to the Grand. For the first three days of next week, the management has arranged a programme of big time vaudeville in conjunction with some excellent feature pictures. For some time past the patrons of the Grand have been asking for vaudeville of the better class, and the acts that will play here the first three days of each week are sure to please everyone. The feature picture that will usher in this new policy is "For a Woman's Honor," with H. B. Warner in the leading role. This is a very strong play and Mr. Warner does full justice to a very difficult part. For the vaudeville, Keno and Wagner have a very pleasing act composed of the latest songs and dances; Knight and Gale, comedy and harmony singers; Leo, Elliott, in an unusual act of character camouflage; and Hamlin and Mack in a clever novelty entitled "A Vaudeville Surprise," will complete the programme.—Advt.

At Griffin's. Another exceptionally large audience witnessed the splendid programme shown at Griffin's last night, which is headlined by Will Rogers in "Almost a Husband." As a motion picture star Will Rogers is new, but as a figure of public interest he is not new. One of America's foremost humorists, the author of several widely circulated books, and the big star in the biggest legitimate shows in the country, the Ziegfeld Follies, Will Rogers has a solidly established reputation. All the natural fund of wit, humor and magnetic personality that made Rogers the sensation of the "Follies," is brought to the surface in "Almost a Husband." As the lovable school teacher, Rogers is positively irresistible. Everything he does, every move he makes, registers with a bang. When he smiles you smile, you just can't help it—that's the kind of a smile he has. There is nothing actorish or affected about Will Rogers, he's hu-
