FRENCH STEAMER SINKS IN BAY OF BISCAY

After Struggling Two Days Through Storm to Keep Afloat.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Paris, Jan. 12.—The French steamer Afrique, bound from Bordeaux to Dakar, sank in the Bay of Biscay about three o'clock this morning after a struggle to keep afloat since last Saturday, when she sprang a leak during a storm. The steamer Ceylon, standing nearby, picked up two of the Afrique's boats, with their occupants. Some rafts with survivors were also seen after the Afrique went down.

A wireless despatch received this morning stated that the captain had decided to abandon the ship and that the crews of the Ceylon and Afrique were working to save the passengers on the disabled steamer. The tempest was abating this morning, but the sea was still running high.
