Parents Attention

Do you ever consider how much your children use their eyes in the concentrated close work that their education calls for? Little eye troubles grow to big ones if neglected. Give them a right chance in life. Give us the care of their eyes.

SMILES

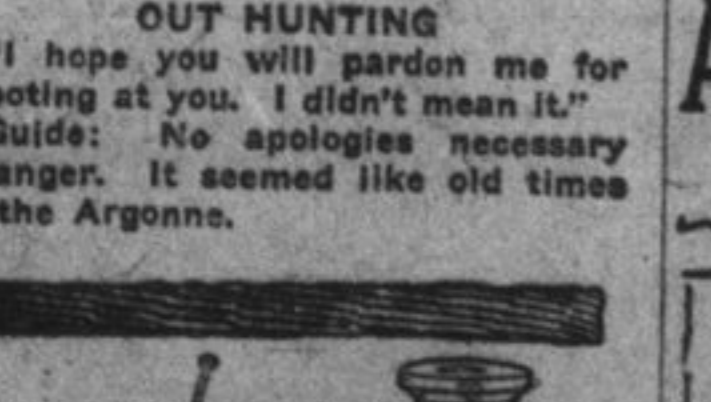

SHE'S RIGHT. He: If we're going to quarrel at the time, we'd better not get married. She: For heaven's sake, you don't want to live a monotonous existence, do you?

NOT IN THE SAME CLASS. Muger, the Lead, "at liberty." You seem to consider me a mere ham. Booker, the Agent: More like a sparerib. Hams are worth seventy cents a pound.

POOR WORM! Heek: My wife contradicts me continually. Peck: My wife acts as if my ideas weren't worth discussing.

OUT HUNTING. "I hope you will pardon me for shooting at you. I didn't mean it." Guide: No apologies necessary stranger. It seemed like old times in the Argonne.

A SNOB. Miss Spoil: I hate that fresh Mr. Pinchuskin, he's so stuck up.

Boot-mending at Home. The calling-up of the village boot-maker or "cobbler" has seriously affected domestic convenience in many rural districts.

Technical classes in sewing, healing and patching have been arranged, and country women are rapidly acquiring the art of cobbling. Lady Petro declares that it should be as natural to do this at home as to darn stockings.—London Chronicle.

Remarkable Telephone.

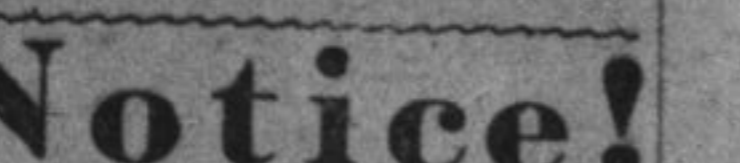

The Queen of Spain possesses what is claimed to be the most remarkable telephone in the world. It is of solid silver with a gold transmitter, and is supported by four bronze figures, among which a boy leaning against a Spanish coat-of-arms is conversing by telephone—a golden woman—with an English lion. This work of art stands on her Majesty's writing table, and connects with the Royal nursery only.
