

Hurry Along Sir!

The privilege will be yours until we close at 9 p.m. on Saturday night, to buy Ready-to-wear Clothing at 20 per cent. Discount—afterwards it will be too late. We've made a whole army of Clothing Buyers happy during this sale and many a household has been clothed up from the grandfather down to the little man. Better come than wish you had. All sales for cash.

Livingstons

75-77-79 BROCK STREET.

"If Off Your route it Pays to Walk"

MET IN CONFERENCE HERE

FREIGHT AGENTS AND SHIPPERS GET TOGETHER.

The Cause and Prevention of Claims Were Discussed—Visitors Were Entertained by City at a Dinner.

On Tuesday afternoon there was a meeting of freight agents of the Kingston district and the shippers in the district for the purpose of discussing the cause and prevention of claims. The meeting was a "get together" gathering to give the freight agents and the shippers an opportunity of discussing the question from both sides, hearing suggestions, and in short, to put forth plans to best meet the needs of both parties concerned.

The gathering was voted a great success, and it is the intention to hold similar meetings from time to time. The meeting was held in the Board of Trade rooms, and Mayor Hugh C. Nickle was present, and extended a hearty welcome to the visitors, as did also J. M. Campbell, president of the Board of Trade, who with N. P. North, trainmaster at Belleville, acted as joint chairmen.

Among those present were: L. Harold, superintendent of transportation, Montreal; G. A. Crawford, representing the general superintendent, Montreal; D. W. Walker, representing the division freight agents; W. Loney, representing the freight claims agents, Toronto; J. D. McMillan, superintendent, Belleville, and agents from Cobourg, Napawan, Gananoque and Kingston were also present. There was a very good representation of the local shippers.

The meeting was a great success from every standpoint, and all present expressed themselves as being highly pleased and satisfied with the conference.

The city entertained the visitors at dinner in the Frontenac Club at 7.15 o'clock. The corporation was represented by Mayor Nickle, presiding, Alds. Kent and Craig. The Board of Trade members were President J. M. Campbell, J. M. Hughes and J. G. Elliott. An hour or so were whittled away, after the dinner, with happy speeches and fragrant cigars.

Addresses were given by Mr. Harold, who spoke of the great future in store for Kingston as a trans-shipping point just as soon as the grain elevators are erected here.

Mr. McMillan, of Belleville, made a happy address, in which he offered every assistance within his power to Kingston. Addresses were also given by ex-Mayor J. M. Hughes, J. G. Elliott, N. P. North and others.

Theatrical

At the Grand.

The programme of Big Time Keith Vaudeville that is showing at the Grand Opera House for the last time to-night, is an exceptionally attractive one, being made up of excellent acts. Sam K. Naoni, who has a reputation as the world's greatest guitar player, has a splendid musical act; Bud and Jessie Gray have a highly entertaining sketch, entitled, "Brilliant Bits of Vaudeville"; and Rialto and LaMont, "The Talkless Boys," have a musical act that would be hard to equal, and Frank Morrell, "The California Boy," has a singing and talking act that draws great applause. The feature picture is one that will appeal to everyone, as it has love, comedy, pathos and exciting situations, all skillfully blended to make a picture of surpassing excellence, Zasu Pitts, in "Better Times." The comedy is one of the latest Ford stirling releases and its continuous laugh, and the Pictorial Lite is a signally entertaining picture. This will be shown for the last time to-night.—Adv.

Coming to the Grand.

For Thursday only of this week the management of the Grand offer a splendid programme of high class photo plays and vaudeville. One of the feature pictures will be "Ninety-nights of the Law," starring Mitchell Lewis. This is a great picture of the big out-doors and was produced in the Canadian North-west at Vancouver at great expense. Neither money, time or talent were spared in making this feature one of the best of its kind yet offered to the moving picture fans of Canada. The picture has an intensely gripping story, a clever cast, and the greatest background and setting that could be desired for a picture of this type. Other pictures, including a comedy, pictorial and news weekly, will complete the film programme. An act of high class vaudeville will complete the programme for Thursday afternoon and evening.—Adv.

"Let's Go."

"The Girl With the Venus Form" has been the usual designation of Gertrude Hutcheson, the charming prima donna of "Let's Go" at the Grand Opera House Saturday, Jan. 31st, matinee and night. Though there have been many stage claimants of this qualification, there seems to be none more justified than Miss Hutcheson. She ascribes her physical perfection to her dancing exercises.

There have been many notable dancers who have failed to preserve general development without some parts being over-developed. But Miss Hutcheson had as teacher the greatest dancing instructor, Signor Silvio Ligati, under whose tutelage many notable dancers have gained fame.—Adv.

At the Grand.

"Seven Keys to Baldpate," which will be played at the Grand, Friday, Jan. 30th, tells the story of a novelist, William Magee, who makes a wager that he will write a ten thousand word story in twenty-four hours. His efforts to win the bet gives opportunities for the funniest situations ever seen in comedy and the characters he introduces in the story are of the wild and woolly sort, and the mystery deepens as each new character appears. If you want to have the most enjoyable evening you have ever had, and if you want to help the War Memorial Fund, go to the Grand, Friday night. A splendid cast, under the direction of C. A. Gates, will make you say that there is as good talent here in Kingston as we find with any company of professional players. Get your seats now.—Adv.

At Griffin's.

To-night will be the last opportunity to see Sylvia Bremer and Robert Gordon in the splendid J. Stuart Blackton production, "Moonshine Trail." It is the first of a new series of big dramatic human heart interest subjects that J. Stuart Blackton is to produce. "The Moonshine Trail" is a story of youth—youth when it faces one of the big problems of life and realizes how it must build for the future. Miss Bremer is delightfully cast in the role of a girl who is as sweet and lovely as the wild azaleas in her mountain home, while Robert Gordon makes the most of a difficult role. Don't miss this picture, and on the same bill see Harold Lloyd in "Bumping Into Broadway," his latest and greatest comedy, in which "the different" comedian performs in splendid style. To-night this programme will be given a final presentation.—Adv.

At the Strand.

One morning about ten years ago a youth entered the newspaper office in a Jersey town and asked for a job as reporter. He didn't know anything about the business, but had a burning desire to write. The editor liked his looks and put him on the staff at $1 a week. The "cub" made good from the start, but after a few months the wanderlust attacked him and he left for the west. A few weeks ago this same "cub" was again back grinding out copy in a newspaper city room. He has aged hardly at all, but his salary has been growing by leaps and bounds. He doesn't even have to depend upon his writing for a living, for he is Wallace Reid, the famous motion picture star, and he has the role of a reporter in his new Paramount-Artcraft picture, "The Lottery Man," which will be shown at the Strand theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is a "property" newspaper office. "I still haven't given up that old ambition to write," said Mr. Reid recently, "and some of the happiest days of my life were those I spent as a reporter. That's one of the reasons I enjoyed making 'The Lottery Man' so much."

LITTLE WHIG ADD FOUND ARTICLES. Everybody to-day realizes that it pays to advertise. On Saturday last Miss Bessie Stewart, daughter of Postmaster James Stewart, had the misfortune to lose a watch and bracelet. She picked it up on the street by Sgt. Fowler, of the R.C.H.A. Sgt. Fowler served overseas, and was with the late Rodgie Stewart the night he was killed.

Police Court Brevities.

In the Police Court on Wednesday morning, Walter O'Donnell pleaded guilty to carting without the necessary license, and was fined $3 and costs. After paying his fine, he took out licenses for two teams. A young man was fined $20 and costs, for being intoxicated in a public place, and a citizen was fined $5 and costs for driving his automobile on the wrong side of the street.

Clifford Butterill, son of George Butterill, Fermoyle, was operated on at the General Hospital on Monday evening for tubercular bone in the foot. He is progressing as well as can be expected.

HANSON, CROZIER & EDGAR PRINTERS

Market Square, Kingston

DAILY MEMORANDUM.

Band at the Palace Rink to-night. See top of Page Three, right hand corner for probabilities.

BORN.

COLLINS—In Kingston, on January 25th, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. Norton J. Collins, 132 Montreal Street, a daughter, Margaret Rita.

DYDE—In Dawson, Yukon Territory, on Saturday, January 24th, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Farrell Dyde, a son.

GORDON—At 9 Alvington Avenue, Portsmouth, Jan. 25th, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Gordon, a daughter. (Napawan Beaver please copy.)

DIED.

BOURDEAU—In Kingston, January 26th, 1920, Amelia Laclair, beloved wife of Baptiste Bourdeau, aged 74 years.

Funeral will take place from her late residence, 138 Lower Bagot street, Thursday morning, at 11.45 to St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung for the body and repose of her soul. Friends and acquaintances respectfully invited to attend.

CARTWRIGHT—On January 25th, 1920, at Shaughnessy Heights, Vancouver, B.C., the Rev. Conway Cartwright, brother of the late Sir Richard Cartwright, and father of Mrs. Arthur Matheson, 139 First Avenue, Ottawa.

DENNISON—In Chicago, Saturday, on January 24th, 1920, William J. Dennison, second son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Dennison, 132 Collingwood Street, Kingston.

Funeral Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his father's residence, 132 Collingwood Street, to Catholic Cemetery.

KNIGHT—In Hotel Dieu, Kingston, on January 26th, 1920, Miles Knight, aged sixty-five years. (Napawan Beaver please copy.) Friends and acquaintances respectfully invited to attend. Interment at Wilbur Cemetery.

JAMES REID

The Old Firm of Undertakers. 254 and 256 PRINCESS STREET Phone 14 for Ambulance.

ROBERT J. REID

The Leading Undertaker. Phone 577. 230 Princess Street.

M. P. KEYES

Undertaker and Embalmer. Undertaking Parlors, 228 Princess St. Ambulance Phone 1839.

JOHN CORNELIUS

Undertaker and Embalmer. Phone 599. 274 Princess Street.

The January Sale Of FINE LINGERIE

From the woman who is lavish in her taste to the woman who takes thought of her income, the sales of Lingerie hold interest, for they offer beautiful pieces at very low prices.

500 Fresh, New

Envelope Chemise

Priced $3.75 to $5.00 Of dainty Crepe de Chene, priced $5.50 to $7.50.

Of lovely fine Cotton and Nainsook, priced $1.25 to $3.25.

Silk

Bloomers

A special showing at $3.25 to $6.75 pair.

Lovely Cotton & Nainsook Drawers

In a splendid assortment—priced 45c. to $3.50 pair.

Silk Petticoats at $6.50, $7.50, $8.50 on up.

NAINSOOK PETTICOATS From $1.25 to $10.00

John Laidlaw & Son, Ltd.

Exquisite Night Gowns

Of fine Silk, priced $7.50

Of beautiful Crepe de Chene and Wash Satin Priced $8.25 to $15.00

Of very fine French Nainsook and Cotton, priced $1.00 to $3.00. Others up to $6.50.

Corset Covers

Several groups of finely made Corset Covers—priced from 50c. to $2.25

Our great January Sale finishes the end of January. Judging from the number of pairs sold the people appreciated this sale. Shoes are to be a great deal dearer, especially the fancy kind. We still have some Fawn and Grey Buck Boots and some Kid Boots with Buck Tops. They are bargains, and we have quite a few other nice boots. Glad to show what we have.

Lockett's

For The Linen Cupboard Or The Blue Box

NOW IS THE BEST TIME

to replace your stock of household linens. Sheets, pillow cases, bed spreads, table napkins and other useful household articles can be purchased to a great advantage during our sale of Linens.

R. WALDRON