BOLSHEVIST AGENTS HAVE BEEN CAPTURED

Travelling Between Berlin and Soviet Russia on False Credentials.

(Canadian Press Despatch) London, Feb. 2.—Bolshevist agents entrusted with messages regarding sensational widespread plans have been for a considerable time travelling between Berlin and Soviet Russia on false credentials, it is stated officially. They usually travel as American Red Cross delegates on the pretext of arranging for the exchange of German prisoners from Russia. A number of agents have been arrested in Lithuania. Two men on their way to Moscow, via Berlin were found to have letters concealed in their neckties. One was a German, the other a Swiss socialist. The German carried a letter to Tchitcherin, Soviet Minister of Foreign Affairs, from the head of the Spartacus organization in Germany, suggesting the communist sympathies of that body. Another letter described the system of forged American, French and German passports. The Swiss had a letter from the head of the Red Society in Bern asking for further supplies of Bolshevik literature. The German courier, under examination, said that the German independent socialists would attack and overcome the German government the moment they were assured of support from Lenin.
