QUEEN'S GRADUATES MET THE 21ST BATTALION CLUB

AT A RECEPTION AND DANCE ON TUESDAY IN TORONTO

The Esprit de Corps was manifestly felt and shown for the Old Institution in Ontario's Strand.

One of the Queen's anniversary songs, which runs, "Queen's College our happy home, we'll love her still when she's far away," contains more truth than poetry perhaps, for the love that her graduates bear her and the esprit de corps they feel is shown forth abundantly at every gathering at which the graduates meet. The reception and dance given by the graduates in Toronto at the Metropolitan Assembly rooms Tuesday night was, of course, filled with the "Queen's spirit," and was very jolly in consequence. The patronesses were: Lady Willison, Mrs. Bruce Taylor, Mrs. John MacNaughton, Mrs. Hamilton Cassels, Mrs. W. A. Logie, Mrs. R. W. Leonard, besides the patronesses who were in the receiving line—Mrs. Thomas MacMillan, who was gowned in black charmeuse, with overdress of black embroidered net, a scarf of blue tulle and diamonds; Mrs. R. F. Segsworth, in a French gown of white silk net, embroidered in silk, the bodice of rose point lace, through which was seen a hint of the mauve silk, brocaded in silver white, which formed the train; large white ostrich feather fan and diamonds; Mrs. S. Morden, in a trained gown of black velvet with jet; Mrs. Alexander Longwell, in deep rose tulle with opalescent sequins, with Mrs. George B. Young, who, as President of the Women's Association of Queen's, was first in the line, and wore a charming frock of rose George, with silver embroideries and pearls. Cards, as well as dancing, filled up the evening, and Ruthven Macdonald sang several times.

Among those present were noticed Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Knight, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Connell, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burroughs, Dr. and Mrs. J. Murray Clark, the Rev. Crawford and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Borden, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cameron, Mrs. O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Urquhart Fairlie, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Livingston, Dr. and Mrs. Dennis Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Kidd, Mr. and Mrs. Macneil, Mr. and Mrs. Macfarland, Mr. and Mrs. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hunslett, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Mowat, W. S. Morden, (President of Queen's Men's Association), L. E. Cummings, Dr. J. M. Clark, Dr. J. M. Cameron, Dr. H. M. Harrison, Dr. and Mrs. W. Halliday, Capt. Kirkconnell, Miss Ruth Buchanan, home from India; Miss Flora Stewart, Miss Olga Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tyrrell, Miss Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Raynor, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Hollis, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Patterson, Miss Robertson, Miss Allen, Miss Grier, Miss Rose, Miss Wright, Miss McGill, P. F. Monro, Ross Parrott, W. R. Rogers, R. S. Rayson, G. Newman, J. F. Pirie and G. C. Bateman.

TO HOLD A SOCIAL EVENT DURING THE MONTH

Outside Clubs Will Be Asked To Send Representatives—The Club Enters Team in Indoor Baseball League.

The 21st Battalion Club of Kingston will hold a social event during the present month. It is likely that it will take the form of a supper, and application will be made to the G.W.V.A. for the use of the assembly hall. The newly-elected executive of the club met on Wednesday evening and appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements. An entertaining programme will be arranged, and preparations made for an enjoyable time. The 21st Battalion Club of Ottawa, Toronto and Peterboro will be invited to send representatives.

SAID MAN GAVE HER LIQUOR

MRS. LE VECK MADE CHARGE AGAINST JOSEPH LA ROSE

The Latter Denied the Charge—A Wolfe Islander Fined For Driving Without Sleigh Bells.

In Police Court on Thursday morning Mrs. Hattie Le Veck, who was gathered in by the police on the charge of being under the influence of liquor, stated that Joseph La Rose gave her the liquor. She said that Rose came to her home and brought along with him a bottle of liquor and gave her a drink and as a result she was "captured" by Constable Mullinger.

La Rose when called, denied the charge of giving her liquor. He stated that on Saturday night last he met Mrs. Le Veck on Queen street and she was lying in the snow and he saw that she was taken to her home. On Monday, the time he was accused of giving her the liquor, he went to her house and found her "full as a loach."

Mrs. Le Veck claimed that La Rose was telling a lie and that she could prove that he offered a drink to another man who was at her house at the time, so the case was enlarged for a day to have this man give evidence.

During her evidence, Mrs. Le Veck told the magistrate that if he would allow her to go free she would never take a drink again and would also change her way of living. Citizens and farmers, who persist in driving their horses without sleigh bells had better beware or else they will be "pulled." On Thursday morning a Wolfe Islander pleaded guilty and was called upon to put up $5 and costs.

MAJOR ANDREW W. GRAY

CHOSEN TO COMMAND THE 47TH FRONTENAC REGIMENT

Meeting of Officers Held on Thursday Morning—Major Gray Was the Unanimous Choice. Major Andrew W. Gray, M.P.P., presided at a meeting of the officers of the 47th Frontenac Regiment at the Prince George hotel on Thursday morning when the matter of re-organization under the recent militia general orders, was taken up. The officers present were Lt.-Col. Knight, of Elginburg; Major Andrew Gray for the County of Leeds; Major F. W. Partridge, Kingston; Captains George Campbell, Cole Lake, S. Jamieson, Battersea, E. Freeman, Hartington; Capt. the Rev. J. W. Jones, chaplain, Lieuts. H. S. Partridge, W. J. Barrett, William Pillar, paymaster, and Lieut. Wagar. Major A. W. Gray was unanimously chosen as the new officer commanding the regiment and a resolution was passed submitting his name to the general officer commanding the district for approval. Capt. the Rev. J. W. Jones acted as secretary. When Major Gray's appointment is confirmed he will submit a slate of officers for the new establishment. In the meantime, Major F. W. Partridge is acting as adjutant.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

About Socialism. Gananoque, Feb. 2.—(To the Editor): I have read with considerable interest the Sunday lesson of January 26th by W. T. Ellis, "Socialism's First Hypocrite." I doubt if Mr. Ellis has ever studied Socialism in the first place. Why does he call a Socialist a liar? We all know Anaxias was, but we have no proof that he was a Socialist. If he was, why our churches at the present day are full of them, but perhaps when teaching a lesson on truth and honesty it would be well to keep by the one subject, so that those who read the lesson can draw no erroneous opinion regarding Socialism and what it teaches. I have always found that it is easier to draw souls to Christ by the chords of love, rather than by the terrors of the law.
