INTERCOLLEGIATE HOCKEY

THREE GAMES ARE SCHEDULED HERE THIS WEEK.

The Kingston Intermediates Are to Play the Winner of the Oshawa-Peterboro Series Next Friday Night.

Three games in the Intercollegiate hockey series will be played at the covered rink this week. This evening Queen's and R.M.C. will meet in the junior series; Wednesday night Queen's and R.M.C. in the intermediate series and Friday evening McGill and Queen's the senior.

The McGill senior team is coming to Kingston quite confident that they will be able to pull out on top as they have defeated both Queen's and Varsity on Montreal ice. A win for McGill will practically give them the championship as the best Varsity can do is to tie the series and that would only be providing that Varsity wins from Queen's on Kingston ice, which they are not likely to do.

Kingston vs. Peterboro.
The first game of the O.H.A. intermediate semi-finals, between the winners of the Oshawa-Peterboro games and Kingston will be played Friday evening, Feb. 13th. The Kingston management was fortunate in getting the first game on the opponent's ice, as there is a better chance of winning out on home ice if they should happen to lose by a few goals. It is expected that the winner will be Peterboro as that team tied with Oshawa in Oshawa on Friday night last, and play in Peterboro this evening. The return game with Kingston will be played on Monday evening, February 16th. With Brown back in the game the Kingston team is quite confident that they will be able to trim either western team.

Tie in Senior C.O.C.L.
Napawee, Brockville and Kingston are tied for the championship of the senior series of the Central Ontario Curling League. All three clubs have won two games and lost two. As yet it is not known what will be done to break the tie, but it is understood that if the rule of the Ontario Curling Association is lived up to, the winner will be decided on points obtained by each club. Although official figures are not available for the present, it is understood that if the rule is followed Kingston is the winner.

The winner declared at the winner of the western group, composed of Cobourg, Belleville and Picton.

District Series Postponed.
The two rinks representing the Kingston Curling Club, scheduled to be played in the District Cup finals in Toronto this evening, were advised that on account of the mild weather the games would be postponed for one week.

The Whig Trophy Series.
On Saturday, at the curling rink, the rink skipped by W. J. Drysdale won from E. N. F. Macfarlane by a score of 12 to 10. The rinks:
H. McCartney George Lawes
J. Newell J. Macfarlane
A. McMahon S. R. Bailey
W. J. Drysdale R. N. F. Macfarlane
Skip.....12 Skip.....10
In the doubles D. B. Murray and J. B. Cooke lost to E. Moore and Dr. Cartwright.

W. R. Lyons and J. Baker won from M. Manahan and A. Turcotte.

Ladies' Curling Games.
Two games were played by the ladies at the curling rink on Monday morning. Mrs. G. B. McKay won from Mrs. Waldron by 11 to 7, and Mrs. Dawson won from Mrs. Davis' rink, skipped by Miss Cartwright, by 10 to 9. The rinks were:
Mrs. Gibson Mrs. Eaton
Mrs. Assestine Miss Cunningham
Mrs. Bibby Mrs. Macfarlane
Mrs. McKay Mrs. Waldron
Skip.....11 Skip.....7

Mrs. Gill Miss Lewis
Mrs. Richardson Mrs. Waugh
Mrs. Mooers Miss Birch
Mrs. Dawson Miss Cartwright
Skip.....10 Skip.....9

Another Queen's Defeat.
Queen's senior basketball team lost to Varsity in Toronto on Saturday by a score of 16 to 13. At half time the score was 15 to 7 for the winners. Queen's will play McGill here on Saturday.

Theatrical

At the Grand.

The feature programme the management of the Grand has arranged for the first three days of this week is an exceptional one. The four acts of vaudeville from the B. F. Keith Vaudeville Exchange are as follows: Williams and Taylor, in a good act of comedy and dancing; Howard and Ross, in a distinct novelty offering; Cleo and Thomas, in a delightful act of comedy and piano, and the Adroit Brothers, offering a splendid bar novelty. The feature picture is "The Gray Wolf's Ghost," starring H. B. Warner, and is a screen adaptation of Bret Harte's famous novel, "Marjua." The plot concerns an old Indian curse, and its working out at the time when the old time pioneers were building the first railroad to cross the Great West. The picture is a romance of the Great South-West, and is a finished production. There is an extra good Shea-McCoy comedy, and a reel of the very popular "Fictorial Life" which will complete this bill. The Grand's augmented orchestra will play all the latest music.—Advt.

At Griffin's.

For to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday, a feature of rare merit will headline the programme at Griffin's; it is "The Thirteenth Chair," the melodrama that mystified New York audiences for over a year, and which has been adapted to the screen, by Leon Perret. Spiritualism and mystery make up this interesting picture, and so completely has Mr. Perret covered up his tracks in "The Thirteenth Chair" that the spectator is kept guessing up to the very end. This thrilling and mysterious picture will only be shown for three days in Kingston, and no person should miss the opportunity of seeing it. Larry Semon will also be shown in the first of his three million dollar comedies. "The Star Boarder," which is sure to please all admirers of the different comedian, is the title which Larry Semon has earned by reason of his unique line of comedy. Science and Educational films of Griffin excellence complete the programme.—Advt.

At the Strand.
In "The Market of Souls," a new Paramount-Artcraft picture which comes to the Strand Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Dorothy Dalton, the popular star, is said to have a dramatic vehicle of the first rank. It relates the adventures of Helen Armes, a country trained nurse, who comes to New York to follow her profession. There in the fast set in which her friends, the Howells, are leading lights, she meets men of both the vicious and manly type. Two brothers, Lyle and Temple Bane, fall in love with her. Lyle is a rouser and attempts to take liberties with Helen. He is foiled by Temple, who is blinded in a tussle with his brother. Helen helps to nurse back his sight again, and a romance is budding, when Lyle re-vengees himself by telling his brother lies about the girl. Only after the evil brother has died a soldier's death in France does the truth come out and Helen and Temple are made happy.—Advt.

MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO.

The Annual Report For the Golden Jubilee Year.

The annual report of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada for 1918, which, incidentally was the Golden Jubilee year of the institution, is a very satisfactory one. In every department there have been great increases in the business done. In spite of heavy death losses, due to the influenza epidemic, the surplus earnings of the company were $1,302,801, an increase over 1918 of over sixty per cent. The report states that never in the history of Canadian life insurance has there been such a remarkable opportunity for the investment of life insurance funds, and the effect of last year's investments will be to enhance the surplus earnings over a long period of years, and at the same time hold up the rate of interest earned on the invested funds. For the year 1919 the company earned the very satisfactory rate of 6.33 per cent. During the fifty years for which the company has been in existence the growth has been marvellous. In 1870 the total assurance in force was $500,000. At the end of 1918 it was $170,706,305, a truly wonderful record. The biggest increase was during the past ten years, the total in 1910 being $64,855,279.

Mrs. Bramard Rice, Cape Vincent, N.Y., is dead after a brief illness. For several years she had been living with her daughter in Watertown, N.Y.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad, but loving memory of my dear husband, Mr. James B. Hill, who died of influenza, Feb. 8th, 1919, buried at St. Anne's Cemetery, Le Havre, France.

He marched away so bravely,
His young head proudly held,
His footsteps never faltered,
His courage never failed.

Though he sleeps not in his native land,
But rests a foreign sky,
Far from us who loved him dear,
In a hero's grave he lies.

No one he loved was by his side,
To hear his parting sigh,
Or whisper just a loving word,
Or even say good-bye.

Sadly missed by wife and children.
