GLASSES GRIND ON THE PREMISES

A HAIR IN THE BUTTER

"I'm sure of it," exclaimed Professor Wiseman Goodlight, to the landlady of the boarding house, as he passed up his plate for more butter, while the other boarders snickered.

"With good glasses I cannot miss a thing like the cook's red hair," and the professor smiled good naturedly.

Queen's Winner of Round DEFEATED K.C.I. BY 3 TO 2 ON MONDAY NIGHT.

And Captured the Round by a Score of 9 Goals to 2—Winners Will Now Go Up Against 'Varsity Juniors.

Queen's won the junior intercollegiate hockey game at the covered rink on Monday night with the Kingston Collegiate Institute by a score of 3 to 2.

The Collegiate boys put up a far better game than on the first match, but they are a much lighter team, and could not be expected to make a better showing than they did.

Queen's will now go up against 'Varsity Juniors. The teams lined up as follows: Queen's—Goal, McNeil; defence, Hamill and Smith; centre, Swartman; wings, Gibson and Finkle; spares, Bracken, Simpson and Richardson.

Big Game To-Night. This evening at the covered rink one of the fastest games of junior hockey will be played between Toronto Canoe Club and Royal Military College.

Edwards Cup Game. At a meeting of the trustees of the Edwards hockey cup on Monday afternoon, at which were present G. H. Gillespie, J. T. Sutherland and G. B. McKay, it was decided that the final game between Wolfe Island and Verona should be played next Saturday afternoon at 2.15 o'clock on the island rink.

ices heard representatives of both clubs with regard to the game started on the 14th instant, and after consideration came to the unanimous conclusion that it was in the interests of sportsmanship to replay the game ordered on that date.

Drawing to a Close. The senior series of the S. A. A. A. A. basketball series is drawing to a close. This evening two games are scheduled to be played.

Brampton Won First Game. In Brampton on Monday evening in the first game of the semi-finals of the intermediate O.H.A., Brampton won from St. Francis, winner of the Beach League, Toronto, by a score of 10 to 6.
