

Spring Suits

You'll find the new advance styles now on display.

Livingston's Spring Clothes

Mean better styles, better materials, finely tailored garments-Suits that will stand the test of long wear, hold up and look the best under all conditions.

The young fellows look to this store as the style centre, Business men know that Livingston's Clothes label means the greatest satisfaction and worth.

Suits at $30.00, and up to $60.00.

Livingstons

- 75-77-79 BROCK STREET.

"If Off Your Route It Pays To Walk"

Most Attractive Are

00

All the popular styles and materials are featured in the newest colors and at moderate prices.

May we have the pleasure of showing them to you?

00

Theatrical

At The Grand The Grand Opera House opened his week's entertainment on Monday with 2 of the most brilliant and thrilling pictures "The Dragon Pain- born March 20th, 1868, at Inversry, ter," starring Sessue Hayakawa, the and died at the same village on Feb. Japanese wizard of the screen, and 16th last of pneumonia. The re-Alice Brady presents some of the 'in- interment beside her late husband, side' life of fashionable New York. George Roseboom. Deceased's par-'The Dragon Painter' has a beauti- ents were James and Rebecca Gumful and elaborate setting. It is a mer. She leaves to mourn her loss love-legend of old Nippon with Haya-one son, Norman; a brother, Wilkawa in the role of a wild mountain liam Gummer; and two sisters, Mrs. artist who dreams some day of meet- H. R. McConnell, of Inverary, and ing his Dragon Princess, the embodi- Mrs. J. C. Shaw, of this city. Her ment of his dream of beauty and married life was spent at Cape Vinlove. Ume Ko, realizing that she stood between him and his art, steals away to a convent leaving a note in which she sacrifices her joy and life for the sin of depriving him of his Methodist church. She possessed a creative power. Heartbroken, Tatsu quiet and loveable disposition, which rushed to the mountain torrent and endeared her to all.

his lovely Dragon Maid. on Fifth Avenue, New York.

Berge, and the special musical pro-gramme of the orchestra, which in-No. 245. Rev. Mr. Curtis also assistcludes choice selections from the lat- ed in the service.

and evening.

cavorts in "The A B C of Love," years of age. the talents and personality of the in politics, and was also a member of seemed to find much in the picture staff, Kingston; one daughter, Mrs. to enjoy, and responded to its fun W. H. Larkins, of Mallorytown; also in the opening reels, and thrilled to four sisters, Mrs. William Knowles, its tense dramatic situations later of Lanark; Mrs. A. M. Wright, of of the ignorant little country girl he | Phoenix, B.C. not fail to please the most blase motion picture devotee, for it is the collectors for generations, but not ing which is to be held in August every medical library, not every this year. vellum folio as that now deposited in its glass case in the library of the old medical building at Queen's. An- crop was 2,115,000 pounds last year, dreas Vesalius' 'Book of Human An- and was valued at $1,225,000. The atomy," 1555, lies open there, with bulk was sold in the American three and a half centuries. The as farmers are finding sheep are easy label on the contemporary vellum to raise and that they thrive in the binding is dated 1555. Where is climate of this province. physician who would not covet this previous volume? The A lot of men go broke just before ater work of 1642 of Harvey, the the day breaks. blood, is overshadowed even by this superb folio, the record, printed in his early years, of the life work of the father of "Human Anatomy," Andreas Vesalius, the first to refuse traditional myths regarding the human body, and intent only upon recording scientific truth, the evidence of personal observation and verified investigation at a time in the world's history when such an attitude toward long-accepted error often meant banishment and death. Vesalius ranks with Sir Isaac

A LITERARY TREASURE.

Newton, with Galileo, with Roger Bacon and Francis Bacon, with the few whose achievements are new births, creations, so to speak. The happy possession of this invaluable treasure suggests the unspeakable interest excited by Newton's "Principia," Roger Bacon's "Opus," or the Mazarin Bible (the first printed with movable type). Queen's at Kingston is to be congratulated on the acquisition of this literary trea-

WILL BE INVESTIGATED.

to be Taken in Case of Girl

Alleged Illused. ay forenoon, that the matter of the en-year-old girl, a ward of the Orhans' Home, who is alleged to have een illtreated at a home in the district, had been placed in the hands of a lawyer and that the case would be investigated. The girl is doing as Funeral notice later.

Increases Its Dividend. The directors of the Canadian Locomotive Company, Limited, have declared a dividend of 2 per cent. on the common, and 1% per cent. on the preferred, both payable April 1st to shareholders of record March 20. The increase in the dividend on the common, from 7 to 8 per cent. per annum, follows close upon a similar increase in January, when the isbursement was enlarged from 6 to

The company is reported to be in a very strong position, with orders | The Old Firm of Undertakers. on hand which will necessitate operations at capacity for many months ormer well known young lady of Athens. She had been ill for the past wenty-two years of age and a daughter of the late Norman and Mrs. Brown, Athens. For the last year she had been a nurse-in-training at St. Luke's Hospital, Ottawa. You may sell that used office furniture at a fair price through the Late Mrs. Roseboom, Inverary. Mrs. Annie Louise Roseboom was

plunged into its depths, but is rescued. After many days he returned The Late Thomas Mallory. The funeral of the late Thomas Mallory, who died at Mallorytown Alice Brady portrays the character on Friday last, took place on Sunday of Drina Hilliard in "Marie, Limited" afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock, to the a fashionable millinery establishment | Mallorytown cemetery, and was very largely attended by friends of the The entertainment is varied by a deceased. The Oddfellows had charge superior vaudeville act by Murray and of the service deceased being a char-

est operas, is a delight to all lovers | The late Mr. Mallory was born in Mallorytown and had lived there all The programme will be repeated his life. He was widely known all Tuesday and Wednesday, matinee over the district, and the news of his death was Tearned with sincere regret by his many acquaintances. Mr. Mallory was stricken with an at-Mae Murray takes a bath in a tack of pleurisy which developed instationary wash tub and otherwise to bronchial pneumonia. He was 73 which is her newest picture, and in-cidentally one particularly suited to of the Methodist Church, a Liberal charming maid of many moods. Yes-terday's audience at Griffin's, where "The A B C of Love" is showing, Charles W., of the British Whig when the heroine is deserted by her Toronto; Mrs. Thomas Bennett, of playwright husband, who has tired Nelson, B.C.; Mrs. Thomas Moore of Addressed Queen's Alumnae. Mrs. R. F. McWilliams, who was essence of springtime, and bubbles the speaker before the Women's Caover with humor. Harold Lloyd in "Captain Kidd's Kids" is this great comedian's best effort, and kept the audience in high glee throughout its showing. Topics of the day and other reels are shown also, and commen's Council of Canada, was considered. plete a first-class programme which ered. Mrs. McWilliam is a graduate will be repeated to-day and to-mor- of Toronto University and is president of the National Federation of Women's Councils organized in Winnipeg last summer. The object is to unite university women throughout Rare Book at Queen's University, Canada and the United States, with Montrose W. Listor, editor of ternational federation which was be-MacMillan's, writes to the Toronto gun last year and attended by wo-Star in this effect: men from England, Sweden and the Medical men, it is well known, United States. It is hoped to found a have been among the keenest book scholarship before the annual meet-

Alberta's Wool Crop, 1919. Calgary, Feb. 24 .- Alberta's wool its superb linen paper, beautiful markets, and the average price was ype and elaborate, if quaint, copper fifty-eight cents a pound, as comlates, almost as fresh as when pared with nineteen cents in 1914. ssued, and ready to live another The production is increasing rapidly

Market Square, Kingston

DAILY MEMORANDUM. Band at Palace Rink to-night.

Hockey: R.M.C. Jrs. vs. Toronto, Cov-See top of Page Three, right hand corner for probabilities.

BARRY-At Westbrooke, on Feb. 23rd, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Barry, THORP—At Hotel Dieu, Kingston, on Feb. 23rd, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Thorp, a daugther, Marg-aret Evelyn.

ANNIS—In Kingston, on Feb. 23rd. 1920, at the residence of her daugh-ter, Mrs. R. H. Stevenson, 174 Bar-rie Street, Susan Annis, relict of the late Asel Annis.; Funeral (private) Wednesday morning The Whig was informed on Tues- | CARNEGIE-In Kingston General Hospital, on Feb. 23rd, 1929, Donald Alexander, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Carnegie, 337 Funeral service (private) at the chapof Robt. J. Reid, Tuesday, Feb. 24. BICKNELL-In Kingston, Feb. 54th, well as can be expected at the Gen-eral Hospital. FRANCIS—In Toronto, Feb. 23rd, 1920.

Albert Francis, only child of Mr.

and Mrs. G. E. Francis, aged 14 months, (formerly of Kingston).

JOHNSON—In Kingston, Feb. 24th,
1920. at his home, 30 Pembroke St.,
Percy N. Johnson, aged 49 years.
Funeral at 2.30 Thursday afternoon, to Cataraqui Cemetery.
Friends and acquaintances respectfully

McGALL—In Kingston, on Feb. 21st. 1920, Hugh James, son of Mrs. Mary Funeral, with Military Honors, was held from his late residence, 165 Queen street, Monday afternoon, to Cataraqui Cemetery.

Phone 147 for Ambulance

Undertaking Pariors, 228 Princess St. Ambulance Phone 1839.

Everybody Wants Ginghams

Foreseeing

-an unprecedented demand for GINGHAMS we protected ourselves by putting a big order in extra early

Ana

-we are certainly glad, for now we are able to offer you a most comprehensive display of fine GINGHAMS.

Such A Wealth

-of patterns and such excellent qualities-they exceeded even our expectations when they arrived.

Included Course

-are plenty of those delightful plaids, which make up into such irresistible school frocks. Come and look these offerings over. You'll enjoy their refreshing newness. Specially priced 30c., 35c., 40c., 45c. and 50c. a yard.

John Laidlaw & Son, Ltd.

Is Your Baby Afraid To Walk?

Oftimes backwardness in learning to walk is directly due to fear of falling. It's only natural that Baby should prefer the safety of creeping to frequent bumps.

Their tiny ankles need gentle support, but of course binding and stiffness should be avoided. For Baby's first steps we have pretty little Shoes that will help them when they learn to walk.

Soft Sole Shoes in black, white or chocolate.

ussy Foot Shoes in patent, white kid, black and chocolate.

Lockett's