GIVE YOUR CHILD A CHANCE

Every thinking person will consider the welfare of his children, rather than allow pride or prejudice to interfere with timely help in cases of eye trouble.

If your child has defective vision it is dangerous to go without proper correction. The tissues of young eyes are tender and susceptible to eye strain. If taken in time they may be permanently helped by wearing glasses only a year or two.

Y. JUNG HEBREWS WINNERS

OF CLIFFORD DRURY MEMORIAL BASKETBALL TROPHY

Defeated Sydenham Street Methodists in Final Game By 33 to 20—Junior Cup Presented to Sydenham Street Team.

The Young Hebrews are winners of the Clifford Drury Memorial trophy. On Saturday evening at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium in the final game of senior series of the S.S.A.A. basketball league, they won from Sydenham street Methodist by a score of 33 to 20. The half time score was 19 to 7. It was in the first period of the game that the winners had the better of the play. The Methodists in the second period strengthened their team by putting McKinnon and Anglin on instead of the Salton brothers.

For the winners, Sugel and Fred Morris were the stars. Time after time Sugel scored on what looked like impossible shots. Abramsky, who had just been discharged from hospital, played a real good game.

As soon as the plate is placed on the base of the cup it will be handed over to the winning team. According to the rules of the association the cup will remain with the winners for one month and will then be placed in the case at the Y.M.C.A. building.

The teams were: Young Hebrews—Sugel, Abramsky, Fred Morris, Ben Morris and Yampolsky.

Sydenham street—Salton, McKinnon, Anglin, Moore, Tancock, Salton, and Cross.

Officials—G. Kiell and K. McCutlough.

Junior Trophy Presented.

On Sunday afternoon, at the session of the Sydenham Street Methodist Bible school, D. A. Shaw, who donated the trophy for the junior S.S.A.A.A. basketball series, which was won by the boys from Sydenham street Methodist school handed the cup over to the winning team. Mr. Shaw, in making the presentation, stated that it was a pleasure to hand over the cup to the boys as they had played the game fair and square from start to finish. The team had lived up to the rules of the association in every respect in playing boys who were regular attendants of the school. A representative of the Bible school in accepting the trophy said that he was pleased to receive it on behalf of the team.

WOMAN FAINTED IN COURT

AFTER HUSBY HAD BEEN FINED FOR BEING INTOXICATED

One Tippler Declared He Went Under On Two Per Cent, While Another Blamed Lemon Extract.

"Where did you get your liquor?" is still the question of the day in Police Court circles. Blue Monday morning found the magistrate occupied with liquor cases.

When Edward Delsell was up the other day, for being intoxicated in a public place, he gave the name of a fellow he alleged got him the whiskey but the case fell flat. The accused was on deck, but stoutly denied the charge, and the case was dismissed by the magistrate.

Alfred Tibbits was accused of being intoxicated in a public place but when the magistrate popped the question to as to where he had secured his "crook", he astonished the cadil when he announced that all he had to drink was two per cent beer. This little story did not go with the magistrate, however, and the accused was remanded for a day.

"Better think over this matter," remarked the magistrate to the accused as he laid the case over.

It was alleged that Clarence Young, a smart looking chap, had been intoxicated, but he too, denied having had any liquor. He said he had two bottles of lemon extract, and had downed the contents of both bottles at the corner of Queen and Bagot streets.

Young said he got the extract at a grocery store. The case was enlarged for a day.

The adjourned case of a young man named Demer, for being intoxicated was disposed of with a fine of $10 and costs, with the option of one month in jail. The accused's wife and her baby were in court, awaiting the decision of the magistrate, and as the woman was on her way out of the court room she fainted, and had to be assisted to one of the police rooms, but she was soon revived.

LABOR MAY BE SCARCE

And Local Contractors Are Advised to Get Busy.

A. Stroud, local agent for the Ontario Employment Bureau, states that he is receiving orders for labor from outside points daily. The numbers are increasing, and twenty-five men were asked for for railway construction work near Tichborne. Mr. Stroud states that construction and starting up all around Kingston and in the vicinity of the city unless Kingston contractors and others who employ men during the summer season are not quicker to seize the opportunity for labor at present available, they may in a few more weeks find that they are too late and with a shortage of labor. It, therefore, behooves those who are likely to be dependent upon labor to bestir themselves and plan their work so as to get the benefit of the present situation.

For Jewish War Sufferers.

On Sunday afternoon a mass meeting of the Hebrews of the city was held in the Jewish synagogue for the purpose of organizing for the collection of funds for the Jewish war sufferers in Central and Eastern Europe. The campaign will commence on April 19th, and will last a week.

Rev. W. T. G. Brown, pastor of Sydenham street Methodist church, and Mayor H. C. Nickle addressed the gathering. Both speakers urged the necessity of getting well organized, and if such was done the citizens of Kingston would assist them in getting the required funds.

CASE LOCAL INTEREST IN COURT AT OTTAWA

Action Taken Over a Will Was Dismissed in Supreme Court.

In the Supreme Court at Ottawa the case of Gallagher vs. Woodman, was taken up. The appellant was a sister, living in California, of Robert Smith, of Wolfe Island. Smith died of cancer, leaving a will in favor of respondent, a neighbor, and the action in the case was to set it aside. The trial Judge held that Smith was in such condition when he executed the will that the respondent was able to, and did impose his will upon him, and that the will was not really the last will of Smith. His judgment was to set it aside. The Appellate Division set aside his judgment and dismissed the action, holding that there was evidence that deceased was capable of making a will and understood what he was doing. J. L. Whitting, K.C., Kingston, appeared for the respondent.

The case was dismissed with costs.

PLANS ARE UNDER WAY

To Make London Great Catholic Educational Centre.

The London, Ont., Advertiser has the following:

London will become one of the greatest Roman Catholic educational centres in the Dominion of Canada within the next few years, when the plans of Bishop M. F. Fallon are fully realized. His lordship stated that a large college for boys would be erected here, that the Ursuline College for young women now located in Chatham, and possibly the Assumption College for young men, at present in Sandwich, are to be brought to this city.

"Although it had been definitely decided to bring the Ursuline College here, and to build the seminary, the building programme would not be started this year, he said, owing to the high cost of building material.

"The Ursuline College is the greatest preparatory school for girls under the jurisdiction of the Roman Catholic church in Canada. At the present time there are nearly two hundred students attending it, and it is expected that the number will be greatly increased when the school is moved to London. The new one will adjoin the grounds of the new Western University on the north branch of the Thames. It is on an elevation that overlooks the whole city."

Our Prices Are Right. We have a few pieces of Scotch tweed suiting left which we will make to order for $40 a suit. Our range of colored worsteds suiting at $45 and $50 are exceptionally good value. Prevost Clothing House, Brock street.
