AUCTION SALES

Are you contemplating having an auction sale of your household goods this Spring? Bear in mind that no other method of selling ever devised by human ingenuity can compare with an efficiently conducted auction sale. In many cases an auction sale may represent the hard earned and treasured savings of a life time and therefore you can readily understand how important it is that such a sale should be handled only by a specialist in the profession. Are you having an auction sale of your property, your household goods or anything else?

I will be pleased to give you any information about it.

Book early and secure choice of dates.

I will buy the contents of any house for cash.

DEATH OF BILAUS SNIDER

Resided Near Cloyne, and Was Leading Man of the District.

Cloyne, March 25.—The whole community was shocked on Monday night, when the death was announced of one of this districts' leading men in the person of Bilaus H. Snider, who lived in the highlands of Massawaga Lakes, near Bon-Echo Inn. Deceased had been failing some in health for the past few months, and suffered from heart trouble.

Deceased was the oldest son of Charles S. Snider, of Ernesttown, and was born in Ernesttown on March 15th, 1850, and consequently he only lacked one week of being 70 years. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Deline at home. He also leaves one brother, Levi Snider, living near Cloyne, and one sister, Mrs. Allen Mainse, of Lyndhurst. His death will be deeply felt and regretted by a host of friends as well as neighbors as he was ever ready to help the progress of his fellowmen and was highly esteemed and respected by all who knew him. He was a member and also steward of the Methodist church at Cloyne, and was an earnest and willing worker. He was kind and charitable to the poor. Mr. Snider will be greatly missed in the Chosen Friend Lodge at Cloyne, in which he was Chief Councillor.

The funeral service was held in Cloyne Methodist church Thursday March 11th. Rev. J. C. Wickwire preached a very impressive sermon. His remains were taken to Dempsey's cemetery. The bereaved wife and family have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community.

In spite of protests by Miss E. A. Marty, Toronto public school inspector, a man is to remain at the head of the household science department of Ontario's educational system. Hon. R. H. Grant, Minister of Education, says that no change in this regard is contemplated by the present government.

Brantford dealers in fruit and vegetables have petitioned the council to be allowed to remain open until 11 p.m.
