MILITIA RE-ORGANIZATION
NOT GOING FORWARD WITH ENTHUSIASM DESIRABLE.

Canadian Military Gazette Points Out
That the Returned Man Must Not Look Down Upon Those Who Did Not Serve.
Canadian Military Gazette.
It is a matter of common knowledge that the reorganization of our various militia corps is not going forward with that enthusiasm which is desirable.

This is not at all to be wondered at. The country as a whole is weary, tired of all that pertains to it, is inclined to say, "Oh! there's plenty of time, there is not going to be another war for a while anyway," and the individual who served in the war is most war-weary of all, and not at all anxious to don khaki for a season or so to come.

Then we have the officers of the old militia who for one reason or another did not get to the war, through no fault at all of their own, in the vast majority of cases, and who feel a bit shy in consequence, often smarting under the feeling that they are subject to adverse criticism on the part of a great many who do not know the facts, but who are quick to sneer and insinuate.

While first chance should undoubtedly be given to returned men, to fill the officer's ranks, we might just as well realize at the very outset that a successful reorganization is next to impossible, without the hearty co-operation of those men of the old militia who, through adverse circumstances, did not get overseas.

To run a militia regiment or battery in peace time is no easy matter, nor inexpensive, either.
It is all very well to theorize and say that there should be no expense to the individual, that the government should pay the piper, etc., but we are confronted with facts, not theories, and these facts are otherwise.
There is many a returned man with an excellent war record who simply could not undertake the re-

To Give Royal Welcome.
The official board of St. Andrew's Church, 76th Street and Columbus Avenue, New York, invited the friends of the pastor, Dr. Allan MacRossie, to the morning service yesterday. Dr. MacRossie began his fourth year as pastor of St. Andrew's at this service and the desire was to give him a royal welcome.

Case of Kidnapping.
When Edward Whitford, South Branch, Glengarry County, died a few months ago he left his two children to the care of his father. Last week, it is alleged, Mrs. Whitford and two men, one of them flourishing a revolver, kidnaped the children from near the school house at South Branch, in spite of the protests of the teacher, and made off in a buggy.

Reserved Decision.

The case concerned the breaking of a chain on and the removing of a rowboat, owned by Warren, from a hunting lodge situated on Charleston Lake. The magistrate reserved decision.

The Annual Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Camp Louise Club was held in P. C. Macnee's office in Picton, when the following officers were elected: N. D. Gearing, president; James H. Porte, vice-president; P. C. Macnee, secretary; S. B. Gearing, treasurer; G. T. Carter, N. D. Gilbert, Jas. H. Porte, P. C. Macnee, S. B. Gearing, W. J. Carter. A good summer's sport is being looked forward to.

At a Venerable Age.
John A. Box, who recently went from Burnstown to Calabogie to spend the remainder of his days in the fine new home of his son, John S. Box, has reached the patriarchal age of ninety-eight years. The old gentleman is in remarkably good condition physically, except that his eyesight has gone wrong. Born in England in 1822, he came to Canada when a boy.

Shipped Hay to West.
W. Bell, manager of the Merchants' Bank, Kingston, had a telegraphic request this week from Calgary, Alberta, to know what quantity of hay he could secure for immediate shipment to the west. His enquiries resulted in securing four organization of a corps, or even a leading part in such reorganization. He must mend his financial fences, fallen into bad decay because of long absence at the front, and anything tending to make large calls upon his time, apart from his business, he must perforce refuse.

On the other hand, there are not a few men who saw no service or are none the less most capable organizers, and real enthusiasts along military lines, men too old for active service conditions, but still young enough for the work of establishing and maintaining a corps, men enjoying the respect of their respective communities, in large measure, an indispensable adjunct to successful command.

There must be give and take, there must be self-sacrifice, if our militia is soon to emerge once more as a thing of moment. It is for the returned man to show clearly to him who did not go, provided he had a good excuse for not doing so, that he is not looking down upon him, and it is for the latter to be less sensitive, less looking for slights on the part of the men from overseas. An atmosphere of mutual confidence is what we need now more than ever before, and till we get it we need not look for a very satisfactory re-establishment of the Canadian militia.

It is to be hoped, too, that the militia department will not insist too greatly on complete physical fitness in the officers of the force. After all, what we are looking for now is men who can and will give us back well organized and well disciplined corps of citizen soldiers. Many a returned wounded man, who will never again be fit for active service, is still quite well enough to play this important part, and very often, too, because of those very wounds, he has an influence on the young men who are the draftees for a new force.

cars at $30 and five at $21. Hay is said to be selling at Calgary at $100 a ton. An extract from a letter from this point says that feed is very scarce and the loss in live stock will be heavy. Farmers are shooting cattle and selling the hides. Everything points to hard times.

Married at Cataract.
A pleasing event took place on Thursday, April 8th, at Christ's Church, Cataract, when Jean Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Compton, Colijn's Bay, became the bride of Arthur Howard Pomeroy, Oshawa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Smith. The bride was given away by her father and attended by Miss Florence Hogan, Glenburnie. The groom was assisted by his brother, Albert. After the wedding breakfast the happy young couple, amid showers of confetti and good wishes, left on the noon train for their future home in Oshawa.

Taking Harbor Soundings.
On Friday Douglas Anglin, engineer for the Public Works Department, was busy making soundings in the harbor. He took soundings around the dock at the Collingwood ship-building company's plant. It is the intention of the shipbuilding company to extend the wharf for a distance of seventy-five feet, and soundings are being taken for the purpose. Soundings were also taken near the C.P.R. between Brock and Clarence streets for the purpose of seeing if the water is deep enough for steamers to come in at the wharf and load field spar. Soundings taken show that for a distance of three hundred feet out the water is not more than fourteen feet in depth.

Accidentally Shot.
Harold Vanderwater, son of Mrs. Fred Vanderwater, Picton, met with an accident when a rifle was accidentally discharged, the bullet entering the leg near the knee. The rifle belonged to young Vanderwater, and he and his friend, Clifford Colliver, went to the grounds behind the college to shoot at a mark. It appears that the rifle had been fired by one of the boys, and while Colliver was reloading it, it went off. Local X-ray examinations failed to locate the bullet, and Dr. Platt accompanied Vanderwater to Kingston Hospital, where the X-ray disclosed its whereabouts. It was decided that it was not necessary to operate, as it will not cause any inconvenience.

"Y" Auxiliary Thank Offering.
A fine gathering of the members and friends met in the local Y. M. C. A. parlors on Friday afternoon for the annual thank offering meeting of the Y. M. C. A. women's auxiliary. The president, Mrs. John Wright, conducted the programme. Splendid vocal items were rendered by Mrs. A. E. Berman. After the programme, the refreshment committee in charge of Mrs. R. H. Ward served all present with tea and cake.

BRING AUTO FROM ITS WINTER NEST
No Harm to Tires Unexposed To Heat, Sunlight and Weight.

Spring is close at hand and the motorist who has had his car stored away in the barn during the cold weather will soon give his attention to getting everything in shape for the season.
There are few things to worry him about his tires if he put them away carefully. The low temperatures haven't harmed the tires at all, and if they have been kept away from the heat and sunlight and have been relieved of the weight of the car, they are just as good as when they went into storage. This may be contrary to general belief, but a prominent tire manufacturer has declared it so.
However, a careful inspection of tubes, casings and valves will do no harm. If there are any tread cuts these should be replaced, and bad spots in inner tubes should be fixed. The repair men aren't as busy now as they will be later and they can give better attention to your needs.
In getting ready for the season it might be well to suggest that attention be given to the following:
See page nine for details of Steacy's big anniversary sale.
