CITIZEN WAS ROBBED OF STOCK OF LIQUOR While He Was Enjoying the "Movies."

A prominent downtown citizen is mourning the loss of nine cases of liquor. There were three cases of gin, and six cases of whiskey.

The liquor was in the citizen's cellar, and the party or parties who made the haul evidently had a tip as to it being there. The liquor was stolen one night when no person was home. While the man of the house was enjoying himself at a moving picture show the theft was pulled off.

BECKEL-DRIVER WEDDING.

At the Bride's Home, George Street, Wednesday morning.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Driver, 43 George street, a quiet wedding took place this morning, when their second daughter, Beatrice Mary, became the bride of Elmer Ernest Beckel, of Oshawa.

Quantities of lovely pink roses, sweet peas and carnations and graceful ferns were artistically arranged in the drawing-room, where the ceremony was performed by the groom's brother, Rev. Mr. Beckel, of Napanee. The bride, who was unattended, wore a smart suit of navy blue serge, trimmed with roses of American Beauty shades. Her bouquet was of these beautiful flowers. Only the relations and most intimate friends of the bride and groom were present.

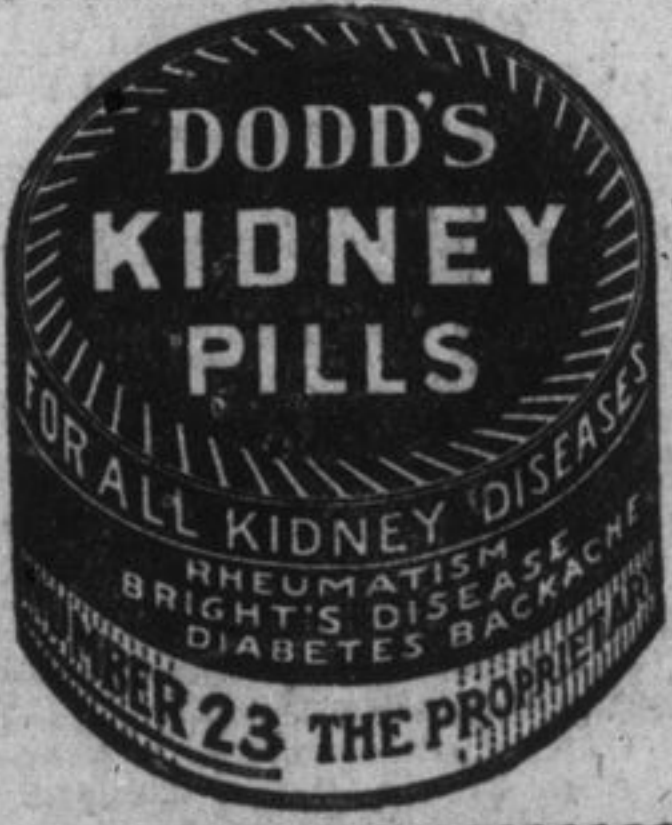

The out-of-towns guests being the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Beckel, Napanee; Mrs. Beckel and Miss Hazel Beckel, Oshawa, and Mrs. Peaker, Ottawa. After the ceremony a buffet lunch was served, the colors of the bride's table being pink and white. The wedding cake, surrounded by pink and white tulle, stood in the centre, while pink and white sweet peas in glass vases and silver candlesticks, in which stood pink candles, completed a very dainty and pretty bride's table.

Going away the bride donned a chic hat of navy blue taffeta to match her suit, and amid showers of confetti and good wishes, Mr. and Mrs. Beckel left for their honeymoon.

This afternoon Mrs. Driver is entertaining at tea, when their many friends will have an opportunity of seeing the beautiful wedding presents.

Mrs. Catherine Nelson, widow of the late John Nelson, Belleville, has gone to her reward. Deceased was in her ninety-first year.

Chicken-hearted people are always ready to hatch up an excuse.
