THREE CHARGES DISMISSED

WHICH WERE LAID AGAINST SHOPKEEPERS BY "SPOTTER"

Magistrate Farrell Criticized Department for Allowing Charges to Stand Over a Month Before Being Brought to Court.

A government "spotter" laid a charge against three Kingston shopkeepers for having sold patent medicine without having a stamp affixed to the article, as required under the war measures act, but all three cases were dismissed, and incidentally Magistrate Farrell gave the department at Ottawa dealing with the cases a rap on the knuckles for their method of lodging complaints.

The offence in each case, was alleged to have been committed on March 18th, and His Worship wanted to know why the cases had not been brought before the court sooner. Joseph H. McEwen, who laid the charges, stated that he had to report all cases to the department at Ottawa first.

Magistrate Farrell stated that he considered it very unfair to allow the charges to stand over for over a month. Such cases should be proceeded with at once.

"Tell the department for me that they are very unwise," remarked the magistrate, to the complainant. "It is a very peculiar method."

Two of the men accused are "corner grocers" and the other a druggist. One grocer sold a bottle of electric oil and the other a bottle of cough medicine. The druggist sold a box of talcum powder. All three pleaded "not guilty."

T. J. Rigney, who appeared for the druggist, held that as the complainant had admitted that he had not bought the talcum powder for his own use, but merely to get a conviction and that no conviction could be made under the act, and he was upheld by the court.

The complainant admitted that he was not under salary from the government, but that he received half of the money imposed in fines.

KINGSTON REGIMENT HOLDS STREET PARADE

The Newly Organized Militia Unit Made a Favorable Impression Tuesday Evening.

The Kingston Regiment held its first march-out of the season on Tuesday evening. After some preliminary company work at the armouries, the battalion paraded and marched through the streets, preceded by its brass and bugle bands. The turnout of the local infantry was most favorably commented upon by the spectators. The playing of the re-organized bands was of a high order.

Recruiting is proceeding briskly, battalion parades being held on Tuesday evenings, while Thursday and Friday evenings are reserved for company drills.

A meeting of the officers was held after the dismissal of the parade, when several matters pertaining to the welfare of the unit were discussed.

COMING TO GRIFFIN'S,

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday,

"The End of the Road."
 Hailed as the "most praised and the most abused of pictures," "The End of the Road," the most unusual morality play of the age, which has evoked the most enthusiastic comment wherever it has been shown, comes to the Griffin Theatre Monday for a three days' engagement.

The picture deals with the most serious of the social evils, an enemy which knows neither race nor creed, and which punishes innocent and guilty alike. It is a striking and very plain-spoken arraignment of this evil, dealing with the subject in a manner that is daring and frank, but clean and true.

"The End of the Road" is played by a distinguished cast. The leading woman is Claire Adams, of Toronto, hailed on the screen to-day as the "Canadian Beauty," and with her is Richard Bennett, one of the most dignified and polished character actors of the day. Miss Adams' experience as a nurse in Grace Hospital, Detroit, stands her in good stead in her interpretation of the leading character, who is a hospital nurse.

"The End of the Road" is shown under the auspices of the Canadian National Council for Combating Venereal Diseases, and is the initial gun in a campaign for which the Dominion and Provincial Governments have given $400,000. Owing to the nature of the story, none under sixteen, whether babes in arms or youngsters of understanding, are admitted to any of the performances.—Adv.

Cobourg Hospital Board.

A board composed of Major Bishop, Captain Fisher and Lieut. Houston has been appointed to proceed to Cobourg and carry out the closing of the Cobourg hospital, which has been used for the past three years for returned soldiers suffering from nervous disorders. The hospital has been under the management of Major Ernest Young. The patients will be cared for in permanent institutions nearest their homes.

TYPHOID FEVER CAUSED DEATH

Mrs. John H. Grapotte, Dies at Cape Vincent, N.Y.

Cape Vincent, N.Y., April 28.—On Sunday Mrs. Mary A. Grapotte, wife of John H. Grapotte, of the Cape Vincent Telephone company, died after an illness of three weeks with typhoid fever. Mrs. Grapotte was born thirty-four years ago in Watertown, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wilson, but had lived in Cape Vincent nearly all of her life. In 1909 she married John H. Grapotte. She was well known here because of her long connection with the telephone business.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Grapotte is survived by her father, George F. Wilson, Cape Vincent; one sister, Mrs. Roy Ross, Cape Vincent; one uncle, Fred M. Marsh, and one aunt, Mrs. George E. Satchwell, both of Watertown.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from St. John's Episcopal church. Interment was made at Cape Vincent.

Why Called Doughboys.

World War Veteran—Say, Rookie, do you know why they called the soldiers overseas doughboys?

Rookie—No, why?

Vet.—Cause our secretary of war was a Baker.

The cheerful giver is often handicapped because he has so little to give.

Some people are asleep when the chance to make money comes their way.

Somewhat Puzzling.

Canadians may think they have a complicated method of arriving at the amount of their income tax, but one look at the United States form would convince them that our system, by comparison, is simplicity itself. The Boston Record has evidently become discouraged and hands on this advice:

"First, take your income.
 "Add wife's income.
 "Divide by your eldest son's age.
 "Add your telephone number.
 "Subtract your auto license number."

"Add electric light bill.
 "Divide by the number of kilowatts.
 "Multiply by your father's age.
 "Add number of gold filling in your teeth.
 "Add your house number.
 "Subtract wife's age (approximately).
 "Divide by the number of aunts you have.
 "Subtract the number of daughters.
 "Multiply by the number of times you have gone up in an aeroplane.
 "Subtract your best golf score.
 "Add a pinch of salt.
 "And then go out and
 "Borrow the money and pay the tax."

Kings and Their Characters.

The class composition was on "Kings," and this is what one boy wrote:

"The most powerful king on earth is wor-king; the laziest, shir-king; one of the worst kings, smo-king; the wittiest, jo-king; the quietest, thin-king; the thirstiest, drin-king; the sleaziest, win-king, and the noisiest, tal-king."

Mines Worked by Romans.

South-western France has deposits of iron ore that have been exploited as far back as the time of the Roman occupation, and which still yield some of the purest minerals found in that country.
