LOW TARIFF AND LABOR

BELIEVED THAT ONE MILLION WOULD BE OUT OF WORK.

If the Tariff was Lowered—S. R. Parsons, of Toronto, Says It Would Close Factories.

Toronto, May 1.—At the annual meeting of the Toronto Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, considerable exception was taken by S. R. Parsons to the tariff and a half per cent war duty placed on certain importations, as Mr. Parsons contended that this duty had put the manufacturers in a wrong light with the public. He added that it was one of the hardest impositions ever put upon the manufacturers, for it gave the opponents of tariff an argument to the effect that there is high tariff, when in reality, as he viewed it, there is only a small tariff. Statistics had been prepared to show that the average tariff on importations is slightly less than 28 per cent, including the war duty. This, he went on to point out, does not mean that the average protection is 28 per cent, for many of the manufacturers are obliged to import much of their material from the United States, and as they have to pay duty on material, it cuts down their measure of protection. On the whole, he declared, it works out in such a way that the protection is very low, and in some cases it drops as low as 5 per cent. Mr. Parsons referred to the fact that there is a strong agitation under way in favor of free trade, or a marked lowering of tariff from its present basis, but he wanted to point out in this connection that any marked lowering of the tariff would be a dangerous thing, not only to the industries, but to the workers of Canada.

"In the interests of the workingman," he went on, "I must point out that anything approaching free trade for Canada would mean that a large number of factories would have to close, and every factory which closes means workmen thrown out of employment. There are a large number of United States firms which have branch factories in Canada, and they do not hesitate to say that if Canada gets free trade they will close their Canadian factories and do their business in Canada from their home factories. If any changes are made approaching free trade, it will mean that half of Canada's industrial population will be thrown out of work, and that is a fair estimate. At least 1,000,000 workers would be affected, and the only result of that would be such a slump that the country could never recover from it in the history of any person here to-day."

NARROWLY ESCAPED WRECK.

Saved Lives by Mysterious Warning—Born in 1832.

Silverwater, April 30.—Mrs. Barbara Grubb, one of Silverwater's oldest residents, will celebrate her eighty-eight birthday here to-morrow. She was born at Wick, Caithness-shire, Scotland, on May Day, 1832, in the reign of William IV, thus living in the reigns of four British sovereigns. She has outlived her six brothers and two sisters. She married William Grubb in 1865. He was born April 5th, 1826, in the reign of George IV, and died a few years ago. They left Scotland in 1865, living in Belfast, Ireland, till the spring of 1870, when they emigrated to Canada. The celebration of her prosperous years in Dundas, Ontario, in 1882 they decided to move to Manitoulin Island, and sent household goods and personal effects to Owen Sound, where they were placed on the ill-fated steamer "Asia." It was their intention to leave Dundas in their one-horse wagon on Friday, Sept. 8th and drive to Owen Sound, where they were to take passage on the "Asia" on Wednesday, the 13th. However, Mrs. Grubb was seized with a mysterious prostration of impending disaster and refused to start till Sunday. They arrived in Owen Sound Thursday evening. The first person they met there was a little boy, who was crying because his father had sailed on the "Asia" the evening before. Fear was entertained for the safety of the vessel on account of the violent storm which had arisen. Her arrival at French River, the first port of call, had not been reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Grubb took passage on the next steamer. When they reached Gore Bay, Manitoulin Island, after an anxious voyage, their fears were confirmed. The "Asia" had gone down. Of crew and passengers numbering two hundred, there were but two survivors, who had drifted in an open boat for three stormy days without food or shelter. The foundering of the "Asia" left Mr. and Mrs. Grubb almost penniless. There remained only a little that they had carried with them and the horse that had been worth $100 at Dundas. They now refused an offer of $20 for it, and shortly after lost it by drowning, the fate they themselves had so narrowly escaped. With well-preserved faculties, Mrs. Grubb is still strong and active, frequently during the past year taking walks of from one to three miles.

MARRIED IN TORONTO

War Veteran Weds An Arden Girl in Queen City.

The marriage was solemnized at Toronto in St. Simon's Church, Howard street, by Rev. Canon Hodley, of Emma Victoria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pringle of Arden, to William Stanley Carey, son of Arthur Carey of Loughborough Park, London, England. Mr. Carey, who enlisted in Hamilton on the second day of the war, went all through the conflict, right up to the entry into Germany after the armistice, and won his commission at Vimy Ridge. Miss Pringle was a nurse in military hospitals in Canada for several years during the war. After a short honeymoon in Southern cities, they will take up their residence in Toronto. The bride wore her travelling suit of navy blue serge, with hat to match and beaver trimmed Hudson seal coat, with corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. She also wore the grooms gift, a lovely string of pearls.

Dr. W. A. R. Mitchell has purchased the brick residence at the corner of North and Wilson streets, Perth, from L. Karakowsky.
