MOTHER'S DAY

Let every day be Mother's Day! Make roses grow along her way And beauty everywhere. Oh, never let her eyes be wet With tears of sorrow or regret, And never cease to care! Come, grown up children, and rejoice That you can hear your mother's voice!

A day for her! For you she gave Long years of love and service brave, For you her youth was spent; There was no weight of hurt or care Too heavy for her strength to bear, She followed where you went; Her courage and her love sublime You could depend on all the time.

No day or night she set apart On which to open wide her heart And welcome you within; There was no hour you would not be First in her thought and memory, Though skies were gray or skies were blue Not once has she forgotten you.

Let every day be Mother's Day! With love and roses strew her way And smiles of joy and pride! Come, grown up children, to the knee Where long ago you used to be And never turn aside; Oh, never let her eyes grow wet With tears, because her babes forget. —By Edgar A. Guest.

A DELIGHTFUL CONCERT AFTER ALLEGED BIGAMIST

GIVEN IN CONVOCATION HALL WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Several of the City's Talented Artists Took Part—Programme Was Arranged by Mrs. R. Bruce Taylor. A most successful concert was given in convocation hall, Queen's University, on Wednesday, in aid of the expense fund of the Local Council of Women. The programme, which included numbers by Kingston's most talented instrumental and vocal artists, was arranged by Mrs. R. Bruce Taylor, while Dr. Taylor presided. Miss Leslie Taylor, the talented daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, delighted the audience with her violin-playing selections, by both the ancient and modern masters. The opening piece was "The Devil's Thrill" by Giuseppe Tartini, an Italian composer who wrote about two hundred years ago. Miss Taylor's technique was faultless and her interpretation truly wonderful. Other selections were "Rachini" (Beethoven-Kreutzer), "Hymn to the Sun" (Rimsky-Kossakoff), "Dedication" (Schuman Auer), "Caprice" (Kreutzer). Mrs. Taylor accompanied her daughter, with much feeling.

Master Peter Fair, boy soloist, sang "Happy Day" (Risero), "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes" (F. Lynes), and "The Years at the Spring" (Mrs. Beach), in splendid voice. He was accompanied by R. F. Harvey. Mrs. Lyster, who never fails to delight Kingston music lovers, played "Etude" in C. (Chopin), "Taran-telle" (Moszkowski). Miss Ruth Clarke gave a demonstration of aesthetic dancing to "Waltz" (Coleridge Taylor) and "Impromptu B flat," (Schubert), played by Mrs. Taylor, both of which were greatly enjoyed. Dr. Harold Angrove, baritone, sang "The Wind Song" (Rogers), "Morning" (Speaks), and "At the Fair" (Marline), in his usual delightful manner. All of the numbers were highly appreciated. Miss A. Shaw accompanied Dr. Angrove in a most sympathetic manner.

Meditating Revenge. "Ah," exclaimed the brisk caller, "having a day dream?" "You might call it that," said Mr. Dubwaite, sourly. "Yes?" "I was just thinking up a few cold and sarcastic remarks to make to my landlord if I ever pass by him in my driver when his motor car is in a ditch."

SAID TO HAVE MARRIED THIRD TIME IN WATERTOWN, N.Y.

He Spent a Term in Portsmouth Penitentiary For Bigamy—The Wives Afterwards Refused to Have Anything to Do With Him. Watertown, N. Y., Times. The police are looking for Private Thomas Ensbay, a soldier at Madison Barracks, who is wanted on the charge of bigamy. Last October, Ensbay, who had been twice married before, married Miss Ross Jessmore, daughter of George Jessmore, of this city, it is alleged. The district attorney is investigating. Ensbay, who is about thirty years of age, was first married at DeKalb on April 3rd, 1912. At that time he was a barber at DeKalb. He left his first wife to marry Eva Tarnay, Kingston, Ont., and was afterwards arrested and sentenced to two and one-half years in the penitentiary at Portsmouth. His first wife refused to do with him, as did his first wife also, but he got into the army, and after he had been at Madison Barracks about three weeks married the Jessmore girl, who refuses to desert him in spite of the fact that he has been a much married man, and is supposed to be with him now. In case he does not return soon to the barracks, the military authorities will search for him on the charge of desertion.

An Irishman Never Works. Prudly, after working eight years for one firm asked for an increase in salary. "You don't really work for us at all," said the manager, and then proceeded to prove it by the following subtraction: "There are 365 days in the year. You sleep eight hours per day, making 122 days that, subtracted from 365 days leaves 243 days. You also have eight hours recreation every day, also making 122 days, leaving a balance of 121 days. There are 52 Sundays that you do no work at all, which, deducted leaves 69 days. Our store is closed every Saturday afternoon, this giving 52 half holidays or 26 days more that you do not work, now leaving a balance of 43 days. We allow one hour for lunch each noon which totalled makes 16 days and leaves a balance of 27 days. We give two weeks' vacation during the year which leaves only 13 days. There are 12 legal holidays during the year that the store is closed. This leaves only one day in the year and that is St. Patrick's Day, and of course you are off.

The wages of sin is work, if you see the inside of the prison and are detained there against your will.

Seven Sentence Sermon.

To love abundantly is to live abundantly.—Drummond. "There is nothing so kingly as kindness, and nothing so royal as truth."—Anon. Not what we give, but what we share. For the gift without the giver is bare; Who gives himself with his alms feeds three, Himself, his hungry neighbor, and me. —Lowell. We have no liberty to choose whether we will serve or no; all the liberty we have is to choose our master.—Sanderson. They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.—Isa. 40:31. Why, therefore, should we do ourselves this wrong Or others, that we are not always strong? That we should ever weak or heartless be, Anxious or troubled, when with us is prayer, And joy and strength and courage are with Thee. —R. C. French, D.D. A wise man has well reminded us that in any controversy the instant we feel anger we have already ceased striving for truth, and have begun striving for ourselves.—Carlyle.
