

THERE'S NOTHING IN ALL KINGSTON TO EQUAL THESE

Supreme Values

Blue and Black

All-Wool Cheviots; fast dye. Also a good range of Tweeds and fancy Worsteds.

Made to Measure

in our usual first-class style for $57.50

Come in and look them over—then draw your own conclusions.

Livingstons

75-77-79 BROCK STREET.

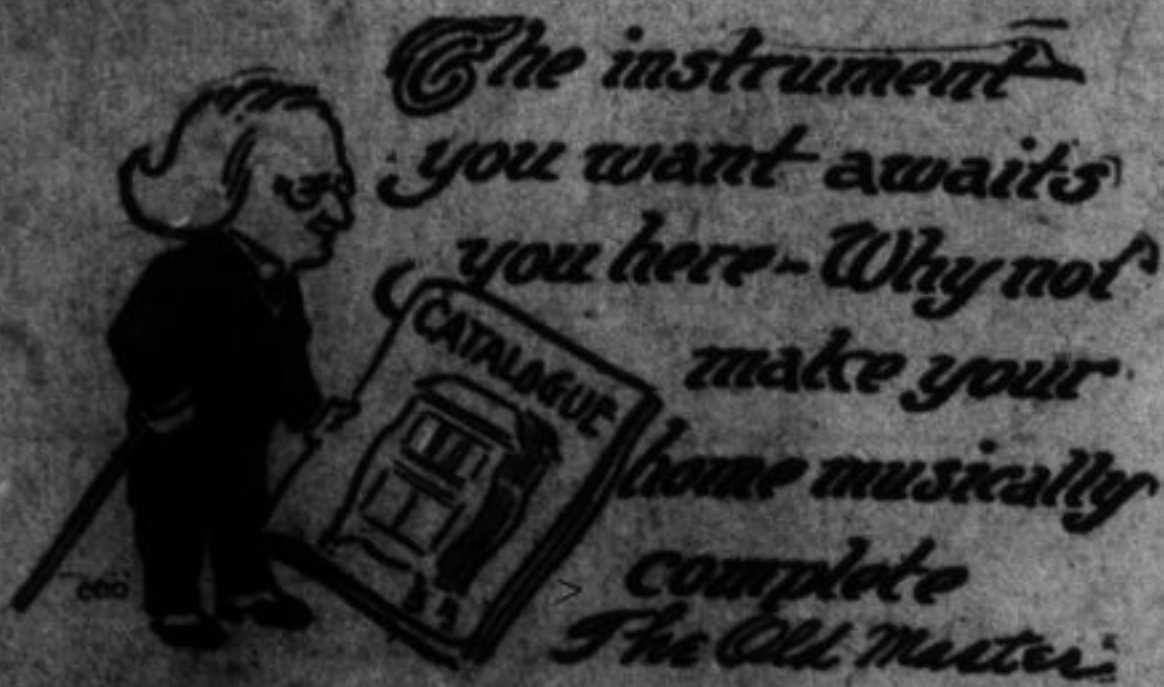

"If Off Your Route It Pays To Walk"

FURS

For Spring and Summer wear, we have a choice lot of Mole and Fox Neck Pieces

Gourdier's

78 BROCK STREET.

The instrument you want awaits you here—Why not make your home musically complete? The All Music!

The Architect of Love designed music to complete the happiness of your home. Our early pianos were planned to enable every home and music lover to place one of these remarkable sound re-creators in your home.

The NEW EDISON

The WORLD'S GREATEST ENTERTAINER brings to your fireside the most famous artists in vocal and instrumental selections. We would like to give you a demonstration of its marvels in your home or at our store. Phone your address—we will do the rest.

The J.M. Greene Music Company, Limited

The Home of Good Music. Princess Street.

WAS GIVEN MONTH IN JAIL

YOUTH RAN INTO MORE TROUBLE AFTER BEING REMANDED.

Chinaman Bobbed Up, Who Claimed That E. E. Allison Had Put a Bogus Cheque Over Him Two Years Ago.

Something more was heard of the "doings" of E. E. Allison, the youth taken into custody for refusing to pay his board bill of $1. He was remanded for a day, in order that a settlement of some kind could be arranged, but when a local Chinaman bobbed up at Wednesday's session, it was found that Allison had put over a bogus cheque for $20 on him in May, 1918, and that the money had not been paid back to the Celestial. Magistrate Farrell looked up the records, and found that on this occasion Allison had been allowed to go on suspended sentence, and so sentenced the youth to one month in jail. Allison told the magistrate that he joined the army shortly after he had the trouble about the cheque.

"And you have been doing a lot of other things since that time," remarked the magistrate. After hearing the evidence on both sides of the case, Magistrate Farrell found that E. E. Allison was responsible for knocking down Sammy Jarvis, a little boy, on a bicycle, at the corner of Princess and Barris streets, on the night of May 1st, and that the accident was due to the fact that the car made the wrong turn. Gordon Peterson, a son of the owner of the car, was driving at the time.

William G. Lennox was fined $3 and costs, as Constables Leslie Armstrong and Boaprey testified that the car cut the corner of Princess and Montreal streets. The owner said he was sick in bed at the time, and that his car was in a garage. A garage man gave evidence about the car being in the garage while he was on duty, but as he was not at the garage all the time, the magistrate said he could not vouch for the car being indoors all the time, so he took the word of the constables and imposed the fine.

The last has probably been heard of the consignment of twenty-five cases of liquor, shipped here by express from Montreal, two weeks ago, in care of the captain of a steamer plying the lake. The captain disclaimed ownership of the liquor when the case was heard, and Inspector McCammon asked that an order be made out by the magistrate for the seizure of the liquor. The magistrate issued the order for the liquor to be seized, so the "precious stuff" will now be sent on to the provincial license board. Kingston's loss will be Toronto's gain.

Theatrical

"Keep Her Smiling."

An attraction of delightful interest to local playgoers will appear at the Grand Opera House tonight when Richard Walton Tully will present the sparkling comedy of domestic life, entitled "Keep Her Smiling." It was written by John Hunter Booth, dramatist of "The Masquerader," and is founded on the Edgar Franklin stories which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. The play is in three acts and four scenes, with the action taking place in a New York office, and a nearby residential suburb. The author has cleverly upset the tradition that a wife's extravagance drives her husband into bankruptcy or the criminal courts for embezzlement, for the theme or moral appears to be embodied in one of the lines of the piece, that: "A wife's extravagance is like the last touch of the whip that sends the thoroughbred under the wire a winner," meaning in this instance that Polly's extravagance makes for her husband Henry's ultimate financial success. The company of twenty-five talented players includes the noted English comedian David Miller, Isabel Withers, De Witt C. Jennings, Lillian Conroy, Frank, Roy, Egan, Ethel Conroy, Lincoln Plummer, W. A. Whitecar, William T. Hays, John M. Washburne, Enrico Shordi, Marie Bantshaff.—Advt.

Coming to the Grand.

For Thursday and Friday of this week only the management of the Grand offer an unusually attractive picture programme. Bessie Barriscale, the charming star of Robertson-Cole productions will be seen in a splendid five reel feature of the great outdoors. The plot is one of a girl disguised as a boy in a cadet-camp—a bunch of devil-may-care "punchers" who know her secret and don't let on, but make life exciting and miserable for her and screamingly funny for the spectator. There will be another fine feature, "Burnt Wings" starring Frank, Roy, Egan from the novel "The Primrose Path" by Bayard Veiller. The play is the story of a man who owes his life and success to a woman's sacrifice and who realizes his great debt to her just in time to save them both from a regrettable step. There will be reels of comedy and other subjects and a splendid musical programme by the Grand's augmented orchestra.—Advt.

"Keeping Up With the Joneses"

One of the most substantial and sensational hits of the current season is the new Gus Hill triumph, "Keeping Up With the Joneses" which is to be the next attraction at the Grand Opera House on Saturday, May 15th, with a series of matinees with the customary matinees. This new offering is based on the popular cartoons of Pop Momand's appearing in the New York Globe and a thousand other newspapers throughout the country. It is a musical comedy full of novel surprises and from all accounts is one of the best contributions of its kind seen hereabouts since the days of "Floradora." The cast contains thirty people, sixteen of whom are pretty and stunningly young women who know how to sing and dance with more than passing grace and skill.—Advt.

At the Strand.

Constance Talmadge proves that a woman can get anything she wants if she only knows how to go about it, as you will see in "Two Weeks," a picture taken from "At the Barn," Anthony Wharton's play, which will be shown at the Strand Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Miss Talmadge, as Lillums, a show girl flees from an escort who has been rude and winds up at the home of three crusty bachelors. The grave, old butler is horrified at her appearance and tells her no women are allowed on the premises. Nothing daunted, she shows him a slight thumb bruise and pretends to be suffering. The butler falls at once, and in his sympathy takes her to the bathroom, to bathe and bind up the wound. Then Lillums is caught by the owners, who are shocked at the very thought of her intrusion. But a flirty smile and a toss of her pretty head wins two of them to her cause, and she settles down for a visit. And the third bachelor? Well, she vamps him plenty before her two weeks' stay is finished.

It's the story of a chorus girl who wins her way to stardom and then gives up the stage because she has found something more to her liking.—Advt.

DR. O. L. KILBORN IS ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

Rev. O. L. Kilborn, M.A., M.D., D.D., who is home on furlough from missionary work in China, is ill with pneumonia. He is in Toronto. He was reported to be a little easier at noon on Tuesday. He is a graduate of Queen's and has many friends in Kingston.

A DESERTER IN TROUBLE

HIS MOTHER AND SISTER ARE ALSO INVOLVED.

When Sergeant-Major Lowry Went to Apprehend Him He Was Resisted and Assaulted—Charges Are Laid. Desertions from the R.C.I.A. are reported to be of frequent occurrence. During the past five or six months there have been a large number of desertions. On Tuesday evening an escort was sent to the home of Pte. Lloyd to apprehend him for desertion, and when R.S.M. Lowry endeavored to secure Lloyd his mother and sister interfered and beat the sergeant-major. Lloyd was ultimately taken to the barracks and placed in the "clink" to await the hearing of charges of being absent without leave, resisting an escort and resisting the regimental sergeant-major. Charges have also been preferred against Mrs. Lloyd and Miss Lloyd for interfering with an officer in the discharge of duty and assault. These charges have been lodged with the local police, and they will be tried before the police magistrate. On Wednesday morning Lloyd appeared before Lieut.-Col. W. H. P. Elkins, D.S.O., M.C. officer commanding the R.C.H.A., for a hearing. Upon conviction he is liable to six months' imprisonment and possibly longer.

Upon inquiry at the police station it was found that charges of assaulting Regimental Sergt.-Major Lowry had been laid against Mrs. and Miss Lloyd.

THE OLDEST MAN AT QUEEN'S CONVOCATION

The oldest man to attend the Convocation exercises at Queen's University on Wednesday afternoon was James M. Fair, aged ninety-two years, who resides at Glenburnie. Mr. Fair was present for the purpose of seeing his grand-daughter, Miss Marjorie W. Fair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Fair, receive her B.A. degree.

INSPECTED ARTILLERY.

Col. A. T. Ogilvie Visited the Units in Kingston.

Col. A. T. Ogilvie, D.S.O., officer commanding the Royal Canadian Artillery, Quebec, arrived in the city on Monday, and he made an inspection of the batteries at Tete de Pont barracks on Wednesday morning, and also the barracks and unit stationed at Artillery Park. The R.C.A. includes all of the artillery units in Canada. Col. Ogilvie succeeded Col. J. E. N. Leslie last year. The batteries are expected to go into camp at Petawawa before the end of the month.

F. S. Evanson, secretary-treasurer of the Oddfellows' Relief Association, and J. M. Farrell, one of the trustees, left to-day for Toronto, where they will attend a meeting of the fraternal insurance societies.

Miss Florence Harvey, of Hamilton, defeated Miss Stewart, Cork, in the woman's golf tourney at Newcastle, Ireland last year. The batteries are expected to go into camp at Petawawa before the end of the month.

HANSON, CROZIER & EDGAR PRINTERS

Market Square, Kingston

DAILY MEMORANDUM

"Keep Her Smiling." Grand 3.15. See top of Page Three, right hand corner for probabilities.

DEED.

LAWLESS—In Kingston at the General Hospital on May 12th, 1926, Margaret, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lawless, 211 University Avenue. Funeral (private) to St. Mary's cemetery.

JAMES REID

The Old Firm of Undertakers. 254 and 256 PRINCESS STREET. Phone 147 for Ambulance.

ROBERT J. REID

The Leading Undertaker. Phone 577. 250 Princess Street.

M. F. KEYES

Undertaker and Embalmer. Undertaking Parlors, 250 Princess St. Ambulance Phone 1326.

JOHN CORNELIUS

Undertaker and Embalmer. Parlors, 254 Princess Street. Phone 599.

SILK WEEK

AT

LIDLAW'S

FEATURING

Special displays and special prices of beautiful Silk merchandise in order that this week might be a really splendid shopping event.

Rich Black Silks

- Black Chiffon Taffetas.
- Black Dress Satins.
- Black Charmeuse Satins
- Black Paillette Silks
- Black Duchess Silks
- and
- Black Habutai Silks.

This Week

ATTRACTIVELY PRICED

Crepe De Chenes

in all the wanted shades.

Specially priced.

PALETTE Silks

in all the favorite shades; this week, very popularly priced.

New Figured

Georgette Crepe

FOR SMOCKS AND BLOUSES

You'll go in raptures over their lovely color combinations—moderately priced.

CHARMEUSE SATINS in a host of new street shades.

John Laidlaw & Son, Ltd.

Here's a sturdy Oxford for that bustling boy of yours.

OXFORDS

For the Little Ones

This season we expect to sell a number of Oxfords for the little ones as well as to the grown-ups.

We have good sensible Oxfords for Little Boys and Girls.

Sizes:—5 to 7½, 8 to 10½, 11 to 2—brown and black.

Lockett's

Four years in the penitentiary was the sentence imposed at Toronto, on George A. Chagalis and Cameron F. Rumpke, who pleaded guilty to four charges of auto theft, involving five cars.